A CAPTAIN COURAGEOUS.

CAPT. C. P. J. O'KELLY, of the 52nd Batt., is another conspicuous example of the courageous Canadian. Capt. O'Kelly was awarded the V.C. for most conspicuous bravery in an action in which he led his company with extraordinary skill and determination.

After the original attack had failed and two companies of his unit had launched a new attack, Capt. O'Kelly advanced his command over 1,000 yards under heavy fire, without any artillery barrage, took the enemy's positions on the crest of the hill by storm, and then personally organised and led a series of attacks against "pill-boxes," his company alone capturing six of them, with 100 prisoners and 10 machine guns.

Later on in the afternoon, under the leadership of this gallant officer, his company repelled a strong counter-attack, taking more prisoners, and subsequently, during the night, captured a hostile raiding party consisting of one officer, ten men, and a machine gun.

The whole of these achievements were chiefly due to the magnificent courage, daring, and ability of Capt. O'Kelly.

Capt. O'Kelly, who comes from Winnipeg, is naturally attached to a Manitoba Batt., recruited largely at Port Arthur. He is also a holder of the M.C.
