

CONFERENCE ON DISARMAMENT
1964

The Conference on Disarmament was held in Geneva from 10 January to 15 February 1964. The Conference was the first of a series of annual meetings of the Conference on Disarmament, which was established in 1978. The Conference was held in Geneva, Switzerland, and was attended by representatives of 28 countries. The Conference was held in Geneva, Switzerland, and was attended by representatives of 28 countries. The Conference was held in Geneva, Switzerland, and was attended by representatives of 28 countries.

The Conference on Disarmament was held in Geneva from 10 January to 15 February 1964. The Conference was the first of a series of annual meetings of the Conference on Disarmament, which was established in 1978. The Conference was held in Geneva, Switzerland, and was attended by representatives of 28 countries. The Conference was held in Geneva, Switzerland, and was attended by representatives of 28 countries. The Conference was held in Geneva, Switzerland, and was attended by representatives of 28 countries.

1964