

Executive Assistant to the Director General.

Mr. MacLellan is married and has three children.

Mr. Webster was born in Ottawa in 1918 and was educated at McMaster University (B.A.) and the University of London (BSc. (Economics) and M.A.). Mr. Webster joined the Canadian Army in 1941 as a lieutenant, served in Northwestern Europe where he was mentioned in despatches, and was discharged as a Major in 1946. After serving in the Department of National Defence from 1949 to 1956, Mr. Webster joined the Department of External Affairs. He has served with the Canadian Embassy in Djakarta from 1959 to 1961 as Second Secretary and later First Secretary, and with the Canadian Embassy in Moscow from 1961 to 1963 as First Secretary. Mr. Webster is married with one child.