

have taken to demonstrate their opposition to apartheid such as boycotting South African products, writing to their Member of Parliament, writing to the South African Government, organizing public education events and providing financial assistance to groups working in South Africa to end apartheid. Like the earlier volumes, the fourth volume will be presented to the United Nations Secretary General in the fall.