

part thereof the returning officer shall, so far as possible, select as one of the enumerators for such polling division or part thereof a person whom he believes to represent the same political interest as such candidate.

When Act comes into force.

8. Notwithstanding anything in section one hundred and four of the Dominion Elections Act, this Act shall come into force forthwith upon its being assented to.

10. The returning officer shall, in the manner directed by or under the ballot paper in the presence of the sworn electors or of the sworn electors representing the polling division at the polling station and of no other person, and shall not allow any person to be present at the ballot box.

11. The returning officer shall either deal with a blind voter in the same manner as with an illiterate or otherwise uneducated voter, or, at the request of any blind voter who has taken the oath in Form No. 38, and is accompanied by a friend, shall permit such friend to accompany the blind voter into the voting compartment and mark the voter's ballot for him.

12. Any person who is permitted to mark the ballot of a blind voter as directed shall first be required to make an oath that he will keep secret the name or names of the candidate or candidates for whom the ballot of such blind voter is marked, and no person shall at any polling station be allowed to act as the friend of more than one blind voter.

13. Schedule Three of the said Act is amended by including therein the name of the electoral district of Regina in the Province of Saskatchewan.

14. The Governor in Council may retain the services of a member of the bar of at least ten years' standing to act as legal adviser to the Chief Electoral Officer in reference to any matter relating to the general election following the dissolution of the present Parliament.

15. The provisions of Rules 1, 1A and 1B of Schedule A to section thirty-two of the Dominion Elections Act enacted by this Act shall not apply to any election for which the writ is issued within one month from the date of the coming into force of this Act, but the returning officer at any such election shall, in the manner and subject to the conditions in the said rules specified, act upon any recommendations he may have received from or on behalf of either of the candidates named in the said rule 1A at any time earlier than two days before the date of such writ, and if no recommendation has been received from or on behalf of any such candidate for any polling division or
