

Mr. Chown—On Monday next—The following proposed Resolution:—That, in the opinion of this House, the government should give early consideration to the advisability of the appointment of a Royal Commission with instructions that they have power to make recommendations with a view to promoting economy, efficiency, and improved service in the transaction of the public business in all government agencies, and Crown Corporations by:

1. Methods and procedures for reducing expenditures to the lowest amount consistent with the efficient performance of essential services, activities and function:

2. Eliminating duplication and overlapping of services, activities and functions;

3. Consolidating services, activities and functions of a similar nature;

4. Abolishing services, activities and functions not necessary to the efficient conduct of government;

5. Eliminating nonessential services, functions and activities which are competitive with private enterprise;

6. Defining responsibilities of officials;

7. Reviewing the salaries of departmental heads and deputies; the Prime Minister and Ministers of the Crown, Parliamentary Under Secretaries; the Speaker and Deputy Speaker; the Deputy Chairman of Committee of the Whole House; the Leader of Her Majesty's Loyal Opposition; the Leader of any other opposition in the House; and the Members of Parliament.

Mr. Morton—On Monday next—The following proposed Resolution:—That, in the opinion of this House, a select committee of the House should be appointed to study how greater assistance for education can be given by the Government of Canada, within the provisions of the British North America Act and in co-operation with the provinces.

Mr. Howard—On Monday next—The following proposed Resolution:—That, in the opinion of this House, the government should give consideration to the advisability of extending diplomatic recognition to the People's Republic of China in order that greater impetus may be given to the attainment of Canada's objectives of peace, disarmament, and increased trade.

Mr. McIlraith—On Monday next—The following proposed Resolution:—That, in the opinion of this House, consideration should be given to eliminating the parking of automobiles in the area in front of the Houses of Parliament.

Mr. Robichaud—On Monday next—The following proposed Resolution:—That, in the opinion of this House, the government should give urgent consideration to the advisability of establishing an atlantic provinces capital investment fund, for the purpose of financing large projects essential to further economic development of the primary industries in these provinces.

Mr. Coates—On Monday next—The following proposed Resolution:—That, in the opinion of this House, the government should give early consideration to the re-establishment of the Minas Basin Ferry Service between Parrsboro and Kingsport in the Province of Nova Scotia, and make the necessary improvements required for the efficient and profitable operation of this service.