Dear Sir Arthur,

I beg to remind you of the special object of the General Meeting tomorrow evening at the Ritz-Carlton Hotel, viz:- enactment of By-Laws, and to say that the proposed draft as far as I can judge meets with general approval, and should not involve much time in passing.

I also enclose memorandum of the Agenda for the Council meeting, together with my interim report, for your advance advice.

The letter addressed to yourself in my care arrived last evening.

Believe me, Dear Sir,
most respectfully

Dominion Secretary-Treasurer
