

4th. In each apartment of fifty persons, two monitors to be selected by the residents of such apartment, to hold their office for one month; such, however, to be eligible for re-election with the concurrence of the superintendent. The same principle of election to hold among the single of both sexes but the adjudication of all punishment to be alone enforced by five persons to be called jurors, to be chosen monthly by all the monitors, but as to their re-election, such to be sanctioned, as in the case of the monitors, by the superintendent: the proceedings of this court to be open, and to take place in the presence of the superintendent, and on the evening of the day on which the offence comes to be known, and punishment immediately to follow conviction.

5th. That being guilty of disobedience of any rule disqualifies from holding office, either as monitors or jurors, for such period as the superintendent shall think proper.

6th. The hour for rising shall be at sunrise throughout the year, the bell to be rung, when every person shall immediately arise, comb hair, wash hands and face, under the inspection of the monitors, and such as are so disposed, repair to the school room, (place of public worship,) where the ten commandments and the Lord's prayer, shall be read by a discreet person, selected for the purpose by the superintendent, from thence to breakfast and to their respective occupations, the children to attend school for two hours, after which those capa-
