Cicero remarks, that not to know what has been transacted in former times, is to continue always a child. If no use is made of the labours of past ages, the world must remain always in the infancy of knowledge.

JOHNSON.

AN EPITOME OF ENGLISH LITERATURE.—

Under this title will be published in a concentrated form, a Series of Standard English authors. In History no facts, and in Philosophy no reasoning will be omitted or distorted, so as to render a reference to the original author requisite; and thus persons of both sexes may become perfectly acquainted with authors repulsive from bulk alone, at a comparatively little cost of time as well as price.—(See Prospectus.)

LIBRARY OF SELECT NOVELS—Being a series of the best and most approved novels in the English language, including some choice original novels, English and American—printing in a neat and uniform style.—(See Prospectus.)
