

Omeemee promised this. Then the lynx coaxed the wolf to order the fox to tell the muskrat to ask the duck to bring back the squirrel, and the wolf ordered the fox to tell the muskrat to ask the duck to bring back the squirrel, and the fox told the muskrat to ask the duck to bring back the squirrel, and the muskrat asked the duck to bring back the squirrel ; and the duck swam away down the river and caught the big black squirrel just before it went over the falls and brought it back to Omeemee, who cooked it outside of her wigwam and had it for her supper.

THIS IS THE WHOLE STORY.
