VICTORIA,
THE BRITISH "EL DORADO,"

CONTAINING

A GRAPHIC DESCRIPTION OF THAT COLONY AND ITS CAPITAL—MELBOURNE;

AND ALSO SHOWING THE

Advantages of Victoria as a field for Emigration.

BY A COLONIST OF TWENTY YEARS' STANDING,

AND LATE MEMBER OF A COLONIAL LEGISLATURE.

With two coloured Views and a Map.

"All who would take a part in promoting the welfare of their weaker brethren may peruse this little volume with real profit. It presents colonial life in a favourable aspect, yet without concealment of its drawbacks, a few of them permanent, but most of them temporary. . . . Two pretty little views and a small but careful and correct map add to the satisfactory get-up of this useful and opportune work of a bona fide colonist."—Athenæum.

"A more useful work can scarcely be imagined."—Weekly Dispatch.

"The book contains a great amount of information, brought up to the latest date, and communicated in a matter-of-fact style, and in plain intelligible language."—Melbourne Argus.

Uniform with the above, super royal 16mo. cloth, 5s 6d.

FOUR YEARS IN QUEENSLAND,

By E. B. KENNEDY.

With Photograph of a "Squatter's House, and a COLOURED MAP, (Scale 64 miles to an inch; size, 23 inches by 18) showing all the latest Discoveries from Private and other Sources, with the Agricultural Districts and Gold Fields clearly defined.

"We close with regret Mr. Kennedy's useful and compact little volume. It contains in a small compass a mass of useful suggestions to intending emigrants, while it will furnish to stay-at-home readers an admirable summary of the position and prospects of one of the most promising of England's colonies. . . . Thoroughly interesting and readable from beginning to end."—Examiner.

"Gives much information to the intending emigrant. The map seems excellent."—Athenæum.

"There is more valuable matter in this small book than will be found in many volumes of much larger size and much greater pretensions. It is marked by thorough conscientiousness; it reads like an honest book."—Manchester Guardian.
