

would criticise, instead of impugning motives which none but the suspicious would imagine, should we not rather unite our forces and strengthen the foundation of our system so that the records of the past would be a prelude to the still greater achievements of a united people and a friendly Parliament?

APPENDIX.

Statement of Cost of Departmental Examinations, 1895-6, by the Chief Accountant of the Education Department.

1895

Salaries, Printer, Asst. Printer, Secy. to Committee and Clerk, etc	$ 2,350 25
Sub-examiners, services and expenses, including Com. Exams., extra clerical assistance, etc.....	16,661 53
Sub-examiners, Entrance and P. S. Leaving Papers ..	90 00
Board of Exam., Chairman and 15 members, service and expenses.....	1,346 80
Appeal Examiners	1,364 91
Kindergarten Exams., services and expenses.....	215 10
Nor. Sch. Exam., services and expenses.....	786 35
Nor. Coll. Exam., services and expenses.....	637 95
Bracebridge Mod. Sch. Exam., services and expenses.	72 55
Specimens, etc., for Microscopical Exam.....	121 25
Warwick & R., Rowsell & H., printing, etc.....	979 54
Queen's Printer, printing paper, envelopes, etc.....	1,259 93
Postage stamps (proportion)	190 00
Sundries for printer, type, etc., power, pressmen, etc.	210 05
Examination sundries, bags, rent of tables, etc.....	111 02
Sundries, express charges, freight, etc.....	97 93
Advertising	177 00
Proportion, salaries	3,295 00
Total expenditure, 1895	$29,976 16
Total fees received, 1895	$27,892 56
Less refunds	515 00
Net receipts from fees.....	$27,377 56