

be added, as in themselves amply sufficient to require the denial of the prayer of the memorial, your remonstrants respectfully submit that the peculiar circumstances of the case afford important additional reasons in opposition to the desired enactment.

April 20, 1858.

PETER COOPER,
WILSON G. HUNT,
Committee of the American Telegraph Company.