

November 1st, the Council (as hereinafter constituted) shall have power to elect members by the unanimous vote of those present at any meeting.

3. Persons under the age of 21 years may become Junior members. They shall not be subjected to election as above, but must be recommended by two members, in writing, according to Form B, and such recommendations shall be delivered to the Secretary, and transmitted to the Council for approval or rejection. On approval, the recommendation shall be signed by the Chairman, and the candidates shall be admitted. On their attaining the age of 21, they may apply to the Council for transfer to such other class of membership as they may desire.

4. Honorary members shall be persons eminent for their services to science and literature, and their number shall be limited to twenty-five, of whom not more than ten shall be residents of Ontario. They must be recommended by at least three members, who shall state the reasons for their recommendation, in writing, such recommendation to be transmitted through the Secretary to the Council. If approved, it shall be signed by the Chairman, and read at the next ordinary meeting, previous to the ballot being taken.

5. Corresponding members shall be persons who have shown interest in the work of the Institute, or who have made or are likely to make contributions to the Proceedings or donations to the library, museums, etc. They shall be elected in the same way as Honorary Members for a term not exceeding five years. The number from the Province of Ontario shall not exceed ten.

6. Associate Members shall be those who wish to take special interest in portions only of the work of the Institute. They shall be admitted in the same way as Ordinary Members.

7. Associates and Junior Members shall have all the privileges of membership, except the right of voting, holding office, taking part in the business management of the Institute, and receiving copies of its publications.

8. Honorary and Corresponding members shall have every privilege of Ordinary membership except that of holding office.

9. The annual fee or subscription shall be:—For Ordinary membership $5.00. For Junior membership $1. For Associate membership $2.00. Provided that no change shall be made in the subscriptions of members elected prior to 1st July, 1892.

Every Ordinary, Junior or Associate Member shall be liable to continued payment of the annual subscription until he has signified, in writing to the Secretary, his withdrawal, and paid all his dues to that date, when his liability shall cease. But any Ordinary Member not in arrears may compound for future subscriptions, and become a Life Member on payment of $50.00.

The Secretary shall inform each candidate of his election by sending Form C (appended), and if he fail to pay the proper fee within one month, the election shall become null, and no re-nomination shall be made unless accompanied
