STRAW HAT

AST Saturday was the largest hat selling day in our whole history-Panamas had the long call. You will understand why we sold so many hats it you looked over our stock.

This display of hats in our store is far and away the best ever shown in Toronto. includes rare English designs in stiff and soft felt, by Henry Heath and Mellville of London, England, for which we are sole Canadian Agents; Silk hats by the same makers and by Dunlap of New York, and an unusually high-class showing of imported Panamas starting at Five Dollars. There is also on sale an exclusive line of straw sailors for men.

If you need a Hat, look over Dineen's Stock-Buy for the 24th-to-day.

d—that is, perfect sight—is exception rather than the e. Yet there is nothing more. precious than good vision—nothing more provocative of misery and headaches than bad eyesight. We are expert opticians and understand thoroughly all about the correct treatment of the eyes, so far as providing the proper lenses for glasses and spectacles.

BASEBALL GOSSIP.

Toronto disposed of Vickers, classed as the Birds' best pitcher, yesterday, thanks to Johnny Lush, and his left arm, but the ywill find Dygert, the former Athletic twirler, fully as tough a proposition in to-day's game, which will be called at 3.45. Cather will probably work for Toronto.

To-morrow's games with Baltimorwill be called at 10.30 and 3.30. The reserved seat plan will be 2t Shea's Theatre until 10 o'clock to-night, when will be transferred to the Bay Tree

Grace Church Cricket Club will play their annual game on Varsity lawn on Wednesday, starting at 9.30, between the City League and C. & M. teams. The City League team will consist of Holmes, Hill, Cameron, Peel, Millward, Dr. Smith, Williams, Foxley, Tew, Brown and McDonald.

Motor car owners are invited to vol-unteer cars to convey the crippled chil-dren from the various institutions to the big Free Show at the Royal Alex-andra Theatire next Saturday morning to see the Lyman H. Howe Travel Fes-tival. Now, Mr. and Mrs. Car Owners be generous in your prosperity and health—give the poor little cripples a chance. Phone The World Circulation Department for particulars.
