Crow's Nest Bill Discussed in Committee—Iron Bounty Resolutions Adopted After Discussion—Bank Note Contract

Ottawa, June 25.—(Special.)—The inconvenience which has arisen consequent upon the departure of so many members from Ottawa before the close of the session led to an explanation by Mr. Taylor this morning. The Montreal Gazette attributed to the Speaker the responsibility for so many members having drawn the balance of their session's pay and gone home. Mr. Taylor said the Speaker was not to blame. If blame was to be attached to anyone it was to be attached to Mr. Speaker that it would be convenient to some of the members to allow them to leave.

The $10,000,000 loan resolution was then taken up. Mr. Taylor said that it was not one dollar of the loan which was to be expended without a vote by Parliament. The Conservative government had borrowed the money and the Government stood as a debtor to the public. The amount of borrowing would be $10,000,000, with the addition of $1,000,000, the total amount of the loan would be $11,000,000. There were at present floating loans to the amount of $7,150,000 required for Canada and there would be required $3,850,000 for other railway subsidies would fall due during the next three years.

Mr. Foster denied that the rate of interest be limited to 3 1/2 per cent. Mr. Fielding concurred with him and the change to 3 1/2 per cent. was made. The bill was then reported.

The Crow's Nest Bill. In committee on the Crow's Nest Railway bill Mr. Taylor said that it should be made imperative that the C. P. R. should hand over 50,000 acres of coal lands out of the 800,000 acres acquired under the British Columbia Southern charter.

Mr. Taylor said that the bill was not a dollar of subsidy would be handed over to the C. P. R. until these 50,000 acres had been transferred. The matter was under discussion when the House adjourned at 10 o'clock.

Mr. Taylor's Death. Sir Richard Cartwright, at the opening of the afternoon session, said that it was his painful duty to announce the death of Mr. Pontif, M. P. for Toronto. Mr. Pontif had been ill for some time with apparently a long life of illness before him, and his untimely death would be deeply regretted.

Mr. Taylor said that the bill was not a dollar of subsidy would be handed over to the C. P. R. until these 50,000 acres had been transferred. The matter was under discussion when the House adjourned at 10 o'clock.

A Thousand Boys From Eton With Bands and Torches and Fireworks Came Down at Dinner Time and Gave An Exhibition—Everything Ready at Portsmouth for the Great Naval Review—Sir Wilfrid Laurier Says Nice Things to the Colonial Troops—The Soldiers at the Lyceum Theatre.

Windsor, Ont., June 25.—The Queen drove to Windsor Park to-day and visited 6000 school children, who were celebrating Her Majesty's Jubilee. The Queen received delegations from fire brigades belonging to all parts of the Kingdom. The Queen seemed in excellent health and spirits, and smilingly conversed with those around her, evidently much pleased at the children's gathering.

Each child wore a commemorative medal, and finally all joined in singing the National Anthem. Firemen's Parade. The firemen's parade was one of the largest held in England. There were 1200 men in line, and 100 engines. The Duke of Marlborough, President of the National Fire Brigade, presented the officers to the Queen.

While the Queen and the Empress Frederick were dining this evening, a band of 1000 Eton boys, with bands of music, entered the quadrangle of the castle and gave an exhibition of torch-light evolutions and fireworks. The charming spectacle was watched by the Queen and the members of the Royal household from the castle windows.

Premiers at the Theatre. The Colonial Premiers and their families were present at the evening at the performance of "David Garrick" given at the Criterion Theatre, with Mr. Charles Wyndham and Miss Moore in the cast. After the performance Mr. and Mrs. Wyndham and Miss Moore received them upon the stage.

Lord Provost of Glasgow for the Canadian Troops—Sir Wilfrid Laurier's Remarks. London, June 25.—(Telegram cable.)—The Lord Provost of Glasgow has telegraphed the authorities at the Colonial Office requesting them to reconsider the decision not to send the colonial troops northward. He stated that the city is most anxious to entertain the visiting troops.

The colonial troops will be given the opportunity to witness the great naval review at Spithead to-morrow. The Mayor and Corporation of Portsmouth will meet them at the railway station and welcome them to the historic port. The civic functionaries will then escort them to the Town Hall, where they will be entertained to breakfast. They will subsequently embark at Southampton on steamers reserved for them.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier visited Lord Glenoe today. The Canadian Premier will attend a meeting at the House of Commons on Monday, when an address will be delivered by Premier Seddon of Australia. The National Liberal Club has decided to invite Sir Wilfrid Laurier to a banquet.

The directors of the Bank of England will invite the visiting Premier to visit that institution. The London and Lady Glenoe will give a reception on Dominion Day in the Imperial Institute. The colonial troops were invited to-day by Sir Henry Irving to visit the Lyceum Theatre, and they accepted the invitation with pleasure.

Mr. Quinn made a vigorous protest against the condition of affairs in Montreal where the political life of every citizen is being strangled by the public officer who is in the hands of a committee of five warblers. The New Brunswick cases, argued that the money spent on those commissions was public money, and that they were a violation of the public trust.

On the item $1307 for pay increases in salary in the Postoffice Department, Mr. Foster said early in the session the Government decided to abolish statutory increases in the service. Now, at the eleventh hour, they were violating this principle as regards one department, to the detriment of all others. Mr. Mulock insisted that these were not statutory increases.

POLITICAL COMMISSION MERCHANT CARTWRIGHT: I'm afraid Miss Canada won't take it on account of the price. FARMER SPENCE: Don't say anything about the price till she gets in. Bill her afterwards.

REV. CANON BRUCHESI

Is the New Archbishop of Montreal.

HE IS QUITE A YOUNG MAN

But Possesses All the Qualifications for the High Office.

A Sketch of His Life at School, at College and in the Church—Montreal Church Lands to Be Thrown Open for Settlement—Said to Be Among the Most Valuable Lands in the Northwest—St. Lawrence Pilots Decide to Continue the Strike.

Montreal, June 25.—(Special.)—News was received here from Rome that Rev. Canon Bruchesi, of the Episcopal Palace, and one of the late Mr. Fabre's most able and trusted advisers, has been appointed Archbishop of Montreal. The papacy has evidently arrived at the wise conclusion that the episcopal sees of Canada are quite safe in the hands of young prelates, as Mr. Bruchesi is only 42 and is probably the junior of the French episcopacy. The new archbishop will be the ideal of the younger clergy of this province and his splendid administrative powers and deep piety will command the respect of the older members of the Montreal priesthood.

Sketch of His Career. Louis Paul Napoleon Bruchesi was born in Montreal, Oct. 29, 1855. He entered the Montreal College at an early age and after a full course of classes, went to complete his studies of philosophy in the Sulpician College of Issy, France. He afterwards entered the Grand Seminary of Paris to commence the study of theology and remained there for two years, after which he proceeded to Rome, there to attend the lectures of the great theological faculties. Having obtained the degree of Doctor in Theology and Licentiate in Canon Law, he was ordained a priest on Dec. 21, 1878, and returned to Canada shortly afterwards.

He was appointed to the parish of St. Joseph, and served there for two years, after which he was appointed to the parish of St. Lawrence, where he remained for two years, after which he was appointed to the parish of St. Anne, where he remained for two years, after which he was appointed to the parish of St. Louis, where he remained for two years, after which he was appointed to the parish of St.
