The Confession of Faith.

The two hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the adoption of the Confession of Faith will soon be commemorated. Dr. Maclaren reported from the committee at work upon the program, which is as yet incomplete.

St. Andrew's Church Objects.

When St. Andrew's Church, King-street, founded the mission of St. Mark's it also assumed the mission is liabilities. The mission is burdened with a heavy debt, which it cannot meet, and has been served with a notice to vacate the place. St. Andrew's how asks to be relieved of carrying the debt of the mission, which for some time past has had a pastor of its own.

Presbytery appointed the following committee to confer with all parties concerned in the matter and report at next meeting: Revs A Gilray, Dr Warden, Dr McTavish, D C Hossack, D B Macdonald, W G Wallace, Messrs John Harvie, James Mitchell, John A Paterson, Andrew Jeffrey and W Mortimer Clark.

Ottawa, Nov. 2.-The Supreme Court Ottawa, Nov. 2.—The Supreme Court to-day was crowded with counsel, when Dying Condition in Their Home the common school fund case, Ontario v. Quebec and Canada, was called. The Chief Justice, Sir Henry Strong, and Irwin and her hired girl were asphyxiat-

Quebec contended that this was the first time Ontario has raised the question of no liability, and that she raises it in this court, as if the Supreme Court were a court of original jurisdiction. Quebec was now called upon to answer this question and objected. Mr. Justice King remarked that the question was dealt with by the Chancellor. Mr. Trenholme granted this, but it was dealt with in his reasons, not by the arbitrator or court. Quebec has good reasons to object to meeting this question now, and took high ground. Under the statute only such questions as the commissioners agreed upon were Quebec's Contention, Mortimer Clark.

Resignations and Translations.

The resignation of Rev. Charles A. Campbell of St. Andrew's and St. Paul's congregations at Vaughan. was laid upon the table.

Rev. J. C. Tibb was translated from Streetsville to Eglinton and Bethesda, whence a hearty and unanimous call had come to him. He will be inducted on Nov. 1.6, when the moderator of Presbytery will preside, Rev. John Kay preach the sermon, litev. Dr. Gregg address the minister and Rev. J. McCaul address the congregation.

Provisional arrangements were made for the induction of Rev. S. R. McClements into the pastorate of Chalmer's Church, Parkdale, to take place Dec. 2 at 3 pm. Rev. G. R. Faskin will preach, Rev. Dr. Caven address the minister and Rev. W. G. Clark the people.

The resignation of Rev. A. R. Linton from his charge at Port Credit and Dixie was accepted, to take effect Feb. 16.

Rev. Dr. Hunter, because of illness, asked for six months' leave of absence from his pastorate at Erskine Presbyterian Church. While granting his request Pres.
