AN EXPENSIVE WINDOW.

Thousands of Dollars in Furs in a Young-Street Window - A Rug With 4000 Pieces, and Valued at an Even Thousand.

If you want to get some idea of the amount of money required to run a fur store, just take a peep into the corner window of the store of Messrs. Cumming & Sellers, at 244 Young-street. It is, without doubt, the most appropriately arranged and expensive collection of furs and fur garments ever seen in Toronto.

Mr. Kahner has expended the best skill and artistic conception of design that gentleman possesses. The materials composing the rug consist of over 4000 carefully selected pieces of seal and natural otter, while many of the little birds thereon contain as many as forty different pieces of otter.

When looking in this window, you will also notice, amongst other things, that the floor is covered with a magnificent sable cloak lining. There is no workmanship whatever upon this, but it contains exactly 800 Russian sable heads.

Mr. Kahner is not much surprised to know that this little pile of skins in another corner. If you are very well posted in the value of furs, you may be surprised to know that this little pile, not much larger than a "Hough Rider" hat, is worth almost another thousand dollars.
