The committee in charge of the trip were: Joseph Rush, president, Humber Bay; Robert Larkin, Eastern-avenue; F. Reeves, Humber bay; A. E. Playter, secretary, Doncaster, and H. Jordan, Bracondale. Among many others present were George Syme, Joseph Rush, William Harris, Joseph Allen, Randolf Reid, Rupert Steeie, Robert Larkin, W. H. Clarke, Robert Larkin, W. H. Clarke, Robert Guthrie, F. Daniels, Mrs. Cruickshank, Messrs. Robert, Charles and John McKay, Mrs. Sedgewick, Mr. Tomilinson and Messrs. Brown, Westwood, Sheppherd, Gracey and Vincent.

An interesting figure was Mrs. Burgess of Humber Bay, 94 years of age, who participated in all the festivities of the day. Steele Briggs Co. were represented by Mr. Guthrie and William Rennie by J. C. Rush. The Gardeners' Association was conganized in 1887, and from a small society it has grown to a membership numbering more than 300. The object aimed at is twofold: the social improvement of the members and the formation of a union which will enable the gardeners to present their claims for tariff and other reforms which are live topics with this important body of men.

Meetings are held monthly, and the discussions there introduced are most interesting and profitable. One of the results of this concentration of action has been the reduction of the price of seeds to the gardeners and a corresponding advantage to the consumer. A strong plank
