

Tall Slender Men Who—

are naturally long in the leg will find it much better to have their trousers finished with permanent turn ups at the bottoms.

This has a tendency to shorten the appearance of the lower extremities and in consequence is much more becoming. You have only to mention this when you order clothes from a Fashion-Craft shop.

We cut Suits specially for tall men, slender or stout, these have special proportions particularly becoming to such figures.

FATHER AND SON

but when disaster came he sought to shield him.

"I thought that he had told the whole story when he told Inspector Parkinson of the hide at Gowanda, New York. Then it appeared that he had not disclosed the hide of materials in the boys' farm, as he feared the results of the discovery of the unfinished plates. There was the notebook found in Toronto, it is true, which spoke of this hide. But his disclosure showed all.

"Again his desire to shield his son crept in. For this was not blameworthy. It was natural, noble and perhaps the most commendable thing in this man's unfortunate, erring career.

"With regard to this act, when he led into this act at 16 years, when he could not, I take it, have any proper knowledge of what he was doing—punish him you must, but I would ask you to temper justice with mercy. I would ask you to defer sentence that he may have the chance to rejoin the ranks of respectable society rather than to be forced to associate with criminals and sink, as he then must, still deeper in his degradation.

"This I urge. I feel it my duty to my client. I feel a higher duty to humanity and I might say to Christianity. He has been in jail. He now knows what it means. I must leave the matter with your wisdom, turning up on you to exert your clemency."

"Passing of Sentence. "Thomas Crozier, stand up," said the magistrate. "I am pleased to say that you have made a full, free and open confession. If it had not been for that the full sentence of life imprisonment would have been imposed. Under the circumstances you are certainly entitled to consideration. Your sentence is that you be confined in Kingston Penitentiary for a term of nine years, with the option of a further term of labor, and I trust that you will come out a better man and a wiser man."

"Good God," murmured Crozier, shaken with sobbing. "This is one of the hardest things that I have ever been called upon to do in the history of my life," said the magistrate to the boy.

"You have shown intellect and brilliant ability. You might have filled important offices of church and state. You might have become a pillar in society. Your present position is that you be confined in the Central Prison. The prayer of my heart is, bring you out a better man."

"At the close of the proceedings many crowded about both prisoners to clasp their hands. Speaking to U. S. Secret Service Officer Gammon, he had explained that all the plates were made from zinc etchings. To him the father said, "I will never come out alive."

"Early in 1906 we started to make the plates," says Crozier, in his confession. "We made the Quebec and Imperial following winter. They were the Farmers' $10 and Standard $10. The Farmers' $5 and American $5 were made the next winter. The United Empire $5 next winter. They were never finished. It was not our intention to finish them. I was disgusted with the trouble I had in passing any of them. My son faulted. I drew him into the field. He made them in the house upstairs. The garnet during the day time, when the other boys were away. The other members of the family knew nothing of what we were doing.

"The first bill I tried to pass was a $10 Quebec, to pay my $9 bill at Gough Bros. Toronto, in April, 1906. They believed it was bad, and refused to take it, and I told the detectives I got it at Guelph, and nothing more was done in the matter. I never tried to pass any more Quebecs.

"I never passed any more till the middle of June, 1908—the same day as I hid them in Gowanda on the way back. At Buffalo I passed two Standard $10 and two Farmers' $10. The reason I had not passed any before was that I was afraid to pass any before the plates and tools were hidden.

"The next I passed was about Sept. 20 to 25, this year, at Buffalo. I had been to the farm, and passed them in Buffalo on the way back. I passed four $10 bills, no $10 at that time. A few days after this I passed three American $5 in Toronto. The next I passed in Oakville. These were all the bills I ever passed.

"The reason I tried to get the bills that were buried on the Campbell farm destroyed was that I thought that if they were destroyed I could get off easier. The temptation came with the presence of my wife.

"There was no one else in the matter but myself and boy. We made them, and no one else knew anything about it. I never knew or saw Mr. Burk, the Lindsay counterfeiter.

Bartholomew Dingle Gets Verdict Against The Telegram. ANOTHER SCALP. At 8 o'clock last evening a jury in the assize court returned a verdict awarding Bartholomew Dingle of Berlin $250 against the Toronto Telegram, because the latter published a despatch from St. Catharines which intimated that Dingle had been involved in a swindle. It was shown that this allegation was false and the Telegram had promptly and handsomely apologized, but Dingle, who sued for $10,000, said there were some things which apologies could not atone for.

Several other Ontario papers had already settled with Dingle at about the same amount.

MAKES A HIT. Donald McGregor, Toronto's own popular baritone, more than made good at Shea's Theatre yesterday, when he took the place on the program vacated by Lew Sully. He sang a number which was unable to continue the week.

WEST TORONTO, Oct. 20.—With a scalp wound four inches long and a slight concussion of the brain, together with severe bruises about the chest, James Bond, carpenter, now lies in a serious condition at his home, 54 Clendenan-avenue, as a result of falling a distance of 18 feet from a scaffold at the new Elizabeth-street school, where he was working, this afternoon. He alighted on his head and was unconscious for some time after the accident occurred. Dr. Perfect is in attendance, and thinks Mr. Bond has good chances for a complete recovery.

Mrs. Scruton, wife of Louis B. Scruton, undertaker, Dundas-street, was seized with a paralytic stroke at 1 o'clock this morning and has been in an unconscious condition ever since. Slight hopes are held out for her recovery. Dr. Perfect is in attendance.

The first was at No. 238, a grocery store occupied by Morris Sworth, where damage to the extent of $75 covered by insurance, was done to the store contents and fixtures. The second fire broke out about 20 minutes later in a bedroom at No. 236, the house next door. The damage to furniture and clothing amounted to about $75, fully covered by insurance. He was attending to business in his store this morning, when he became suddenly ill, and from the first very little hope was held out for his recovery.

Very impressive indeed was the funeral service at the Salvation Army City Hall, 502 Krankin-avenue, whose remains were afterwards removed to the last resting place in Prospect cemetery. Sincere tributes of respect and esteem in which Mrs. Pym was held not only by her co-workers in the store, but by all who knew her, were freely expressed, and beautiful selections of old hymn tunes were rendered by the Salvation Army Silver Band, December 25th, 1907, and leaves a husband and several children.

Look All Day. The cases against the local hotel-keepers, accused of breaking the local option by-law, were again brought up in court this morning, and occupied Magistrate Ellis's attention all day, with the exception of a recess at noon. All the cases were adjourned to the afternoon session, which was conducted by City Solicitor Anderson.

British South African Soldiers Feel They Are Entitled to Canadian Grants

About one hundred British South African veterans, now citizens of Canada, met last evening and perfected an association which has for its purpose the gaining of Dominion land grants equivalent to those allotted the Canadian soldiers who served in the Transvaal for British veterans now residents here.

The organization is called the Imperial South African Veterans' Association. These men participated in the war as British soldiers and subsequently removed to Canada. They now seek to have the parliament amend the Dominion Land-Bounty Act so as to include those soldiers who had become Canadian citizens subsequent to the war.

A deputation was appointed to interview local candidates to ascertain at Ottawa whether the government is willing to extend the scope of grant to include these men.

A meeting will be held Saturday night to receive the report of the deputation.

ADA COMPTON THE WINNER. Templar Oratorical Contest for Gold Medal Had Seven Competitors.

The Royal Templars of Temperance oratorical contest in Berkeley-street Methodist Church last night, under the auspices of the Gordon and Lytle branches of the W.C.T.U., attracted a large gathering. The competition was open to girls 15 years of age and under, and there were seven contestants, all of whom had previously won silver medals. The subject matter was excellently prepared and the delivery highly commendable. Miss Ada Compton was awarded the gold medal. Her subject was "College Oil Cans." Rev. J. E. Starr presided.

RUNAWAY BOY HIS HEIR. BOSTON, Oct. 20.—A quarter of a million dollars is waiting for a runaway boy who left home in 1886 and has never been heard from since.

Daniel Russell, Jr., was fourteen years old when, after quarrelling with his father, a Boston merchant, he left home saying he would never return.

His father died some time ago and the boy was probated to-day. After expressing his regret for any action on his part that might have led the son to think he was not wanted at home, his father leaves him $250,000, as partial atonement for sufferings he may have endured.

A BAD BRUISE often causes a good deal of trouble. The best cure is a prompt application of Nerville, which instantly stops the pain, prevents swelling, removes all blackness and discoloration. Nerville is antiseptic—prevents blood poisoning. No lint or bandage, so penetrating, so swift to destroy pain. You miss a lot of comfort by not using Poison's Nerville. For nearly fifty years it has been the standard family remedy of Canada.

House of Industry. The house of industry of the Toronto House of Industry yesterday the report for the outdoor poor showed 231 families on the books of the house since April 1 last. At the corresponding date last year the families were 188. Of these there are 158 in the home and 73 casual. 267 individuals were sheltered for 1032 nights. The treasurer's statement shows an overdraft of $4,862.32. Sixty-two refused to work in the month.

Two prominent Tennesseans were killed on Reel Foot Lake, it is alleged, by night riders.
