To say that the live stock market at the Union Stock Yards closed up strong on Thursday, would be putting the best possible construction on the wind-up for the week, and it is questionable if the facts would bear out the statement.

There was not a very heavy run yesterday, only about 30 cars, with 284 cattle, 100 calves, 1779 hogs and 879 sheep and lambs, a very moderate run; but, added on to the left-overs, of which there were quite a number of cars, made up quite a heavy market for a Thursday. lbs. at $8: 8, 7650 lbs. at $8.25; 2, 1540 lbs. at $8.25; 2, 1740 lbs. at $8.50; 2, 1150 lbs. at $8.25; 2, 1740 lbs. at $9.75; 4, 3300 lbs. at $8.60; 21, 18,350 lbs. at $8.35; 17, 15,300 lbs., at $8.35; 19, 20,950 lbs., at $9.25; 1, 250 lbs., at $9; 1, 1060 lbs., at $9: 2, 1800 lbs., at $9.50; 5, 5120 lbs., at $9.50.

up quite a heavy market for a Thursday.

Butcher cattle, as during the week, were in good demand at steady prices, and more of the good, handy type would have found ready sale. Heavy steers, of which there were few on the market, were not in demand, and for the medium and common stuff, aithout the market lacked life and snap, the bulk of the stuff was pretty well cleared up. Buyers, however, bought sparingly in anticipation, probably, of another heavy run on Monday.

The stocker and feeder trade is quiet, unless for the good, heavy, breedy type, and these were wanted and are still wanted at the market. A lot of admittedly poor stuff has swamped the market, well sood quality cattle of this type will sell well.

Milkers and springers are in demand, and all offerings are readily taken up at the market.

Sheep, Lambs and Calves.
The sheep, lamb and calf trade held steady. There is said to be a strong enquiry or light, young sheep for breeding purposes, and good veal calves find ready sale at strong prices.

The hog market was weak, prices selling off to 16c lb. fed and watered, and 18%c lb., off cars. Rumor credited the packing houses with getting the price down to 17%c, but none of The World reports indicate the cut as being quites of regular to the packing houses with getting the price down to 17%c, but none of The World reports indicate the cut as being quites of regular, is being watched with keen interest by the trade generally.
