Timely energy was shown by the city water department last night in discounting the effect of yesterday's weather conditions upon the streets. WEBBER WILL GET LICENSE

Jew Reported for Selling Goods at Auction Finds it Cheaper to Get a License Than to Pay Fine

Isaac Webber, a Jew, appeared in the police court this morning to answer a charge for selling at the Golden Ball corner on Saturday night, without being a licensed auctioneer. Webber said he had engaged F. L. Potts to sell his goods, but after auctioning for some time Potts became indisposed and he acted as substitute. Potts informed the magistrate that he was selling until 9.30 p. m., and was compelled through hoarseness to relinquish his duties, and requested Webber to sell in his stead. Potts said Webber did not knowingly violate the law. His Honor said this phase of auctioning had been settled during the life of Auctioneer (Capt. The penalty for infringement of the by-law in this respect is $100 or 20 days in jail, which was imposed, and all loved to stand until the return of Mayor Bullock from Ottawa. The license fee is $5, and though not desiring Webber as a competitor, he considered it more profitable for the Jew to secure a license.

Thomson Coughlin, arrested on Prince William street yesterday afternoon for intoxication, stated that he was proceeding to the hospital with a sprained left wrist when he was inhibited of the attempt to alleviate his suffering, and the liquor produced an undesired effect. He and another seaman had fired in a mishap on board a vessel, and his fellow employee had sustained a broken back. Coughlin said he was discharged from the craft yesterday and engaged accommodation at James Miller's, on Britain street. A fine of $4 was imposed, but not enforced, as he pleaded for permission to undergo treatment for his wrist at the hospital. Coughlin distributed silver coins to a collection of newsmen on the street last night, and this morning $1.75 was all that remained.

Albert Stackhouse, a Wall street youngster, picked up 60 cents of Coughlin's discarded coin and this morning he returned the amount to Sergt. Baxter, who took Coughlin into custody.

Jack Erickson, a Finn, who arrived in the city yesterday from Muskegon, pleaded not guilty to indignation on Prince William street. Patrolman Cavanaugh stated that Erickson fell from a car on King street, and the car was stopped only a foot from him.—Later he fell on the pavement and turned toward Prince William street. Cavanaugh said Erickson was apparently stupid, but not excessively intoxicated. Erickson said he recollected falling and attributed it to the almost impassable condition of the streets, as he had accumulated only a few glasses of ale. He was liberated.

Arthur Palmer, who was rescued from a pool of water on Charlotte street, was taken to the hospital.

James Cameron and William Cumming were also fined $4 or ten days for selecting last night to become wet on both exterior and interior.

Frank Garter, a youth, arrested on Tuesday night for intoxication, was remanded and given his freedom.

THE BABY CONTEST

Rapidly Increasing Number of Entries Shows the Keen Interest Taken.

The Times baby contest, launched on Saturday last, has created a great deal of interest among the parents of pretty children, and a large number of photographs have already been sent in. The Times is trying to ascertain who has the prettiest baby in New Brunswick—the one who will win the first prize of ten dollars in gold.

Why not have baby's photo taken—Isaac Kelly & Son, photographers, Charlotte street, will take one picture free of charge—and send it to the Times office. You have forty chances to win a valuable prize. Read the conditions, which are very simple and within the reach of all, given elsewhere in the Times today. Endeavor to win a prize for the baby.

WOULD MAKE E.D. CLUB PAY-RENT FOR HALL

Saint John West, Tuesday, Feb. 23, 1909.

To the Editor Times:—Some time ago the Carlton Opera Band made written application to the Safety Board of the Common Council to rent the large room on the ground floor of the Carlton Hotel. The band has been a tenant of the city for seventeen years, occupying a smaller room in the building and for over a year has been discussing the advisability of obtaining larger quarters, in which entertainments could be held. The Carlton Opera Band is not connected with any organization and is entirely dependent on its own exertions to provide instruments and uniforms, and to meet all other expenses in connection with the organization; hence the necessity for entertainments. The band did not want the room for nothing. They were willing to pay a fair rental, and on their application one hundred dollars ($100.00) per annum was mentioned as the sum they considered a fair equivalent for the use of the room. When the matter came before the Safety Board for consideration the room was rented to the West Side Every Day Club for one dollar ($1.00) per annum. This seems rather an extraordinary method of dealing with city property, and rather unfair treatment of an organization that has been so many years a tenant of the city, and has already done a great deal to provide entertainment for the people of the west side. It is alleged that Director Wisely stated that the band has never paid any rent since they have been tenants of the city. This statement is entirely untrue, as an examination of the city accounts will show, and in making such a statement Mr. Wisely was knowingly telling a worthy organization that they have been most unfairly dealt with by the Safety Board and Mr. Wisely, and will appeal to the council to do justice to them and at the same time protect the civic revenue.

Yours truly,
W. T. LANYON,
Secy. C. C. B.

CONVICTION QUASHED

Judge Forbes today quashed the conviction of Judge Ritchie adjudging Patrolmen Ward and Belyea guilty of assaulting William White. The proceedings were merely formal as there was no opposition to J. B. M. Baxter's motion for the quashing of the decision, the respondent or his legal adviser failing to respond. The fines of $20 each imposed by the magistrate will therefore be restored to the policemen. In Boyce vs. Dalton his honor rendered judgment for $165 in favor of the plaintiff by default.

Blenders and Packers of Tiger Indo-Chinese Tea.

DEAR SIR:—Our choice at home of Tiger Tea is grade X, at 35c. per lb. Is it true that the tiny dried, whitish buds in Tiger Tea give it that fine delicate flavor? We used to drink China Tea years ago, but prefer the Tiger 1lb. packets, as it looks clearer, and because Tiger Tea are prepared and packed by machinery instead of by the nasty, sweaty hand-treatment as in China. The pretty blue and white label is enough to make one wish to taste a cup of Tiger Tea. The tiger paws on the label show how strong the Tiger Tea is.

I am very glad to send you this letter about Tiger Tea, and if you wish I will send you a sketch of a tiger which would perhaps be fiercer than the tiger on your label. The rich cherry color of Tiger Tea, please everyone, and I hope that you will always keep the quality of it as good as it is now. My age is..... my last school teacher was..... Hoping that this letter will win a Tiger Tea prize,
I am respectfully yours,

Every Canadian should buy a 1 lb. packet of Tiger Tea, for besides the good quality, we know that the work of blending, packing, boxing, packing, etc., is all done by Canadians in St. John.

My age is..... my last school teacher was..... Hoping that this letter will win a Tiger Tea prize,
I am respectfully yours,

W. F. HATHEWAY CO., LTD.
