DYKEMAN'S

Two Huge Lots of SHIRTWAISTS

Bought from a manufacturer at just half the manufacturer's price, arrived here yesterday by express.

There are just two styles in the large lot, but we doubt if the large quantity is sufficient to go round as the Waists are the biggest bargains we have ever offered.

NO. 1 LOT IS A TAILOR MADE WAIST of the very newest styles with separate collar and cuffs, pleated front and back and made from a very fine English lawn. The price will be 75 cents, regular price $1.50. These are all sizes from 32 to 44.

NO. 2 LOT IS A VERY FINE FANCY WAIST with a Swiss Embroidered Front, finely tucked on the sleeves and back and is priced $1.25, regular price $2.50. These come in sizes from 32 to 44. These waists are not shown in our windows, but will be found on display on the second floor in the ladies' department.

SCHOOLS RE-OPEN

In a couple of weeks and the chances are that many parents have neglected giving their children's teeth proper attention.

Do not procrastinate.
Delays are dangerous.

Decayed teeth breed ill-health and are a menace to other school children.

We make no charge for consultation.

CIRCULATION

The following is the average daily circulation of the Times for the last seven months:—

January - - - 6,716

February - - - 6,978

March - - - 7,165

April - - - 7,189

May - - - 7,003

June - - - 7,029

July - - - 7,028

The Times does not get its largest sale through newsboys. It is delivered at the homes. That is the kind of circulation which is of value to advertisers.

LATE LOCALS

Tax bills were handed to the city constables yesterday, and will be distributed to the tax payers, beginning Monday next.

Charles Robinson is reported by the police for encumbering Celebration street, with a quantity of rubbish last night without a light.

Fourteen births were reported to Registrar John B. Jones during the week. There were six girls and eight boys. There were nine marriages.

The members of the Artillery Band are requested to meet at 1.30 p. m. sharp, on Monday. Staff caps, with white covers, will be worn. A full attendance is urgently requested.

Rev. Dr. Woodruff will address a temperance mass meeting on the Every Day Club grounds tomorrow at 4 o'clock, and Mrs. Woodruff will speak in the club's hall in the evening at 8.30 o'clock.

Those who plan to attend the Canadian Club luncheon at which the Right Hon. James Bryce will be the guest, should secure their tickets today. None will be sold after Monday. In fairness to the caterers they should know tonight about how many they must provide for.

Rev. Dr. Austin deBlois, of Chicago, has been paying a visit to his mother, Mrs. S. W. deBlois, of Wolfville, this week. Dr. deBlois has just returned from the Pacific coast. Dr. deBlois was for a time principal of the Union Baptist Seminary at St. Martin, and is well known in St. John.

Before Judge Ritchie this morning Louis Jones, a negro youth, was fined $4 or ten days for intoxication last night, and William Reardon was fined the same sum for intoxication on the east side ferry floats. Jones, who was said to be under age, said he obtained the liquor in a school.

Rev. A. H. C. Morse, Mrs. Morse and little daughter, are spending a short time in Wolfville, at the home of the former's sister, Mrs. Hugh Fowler. Rev. Mr. Morse, who is a graduate of Acadia of the class of '06, is now pastor of one of the largest churches in New York. He occupied the pulpit of the Riverside Baptist church in this city for a time.

St. George's Lodge, A. F. & A. M., of Wolfville, recently received from W. H. Smith, of Robertson, Foster & Smith, of St. John, says an exchange, a handsome set of door fittings in solid bronze, decorated with masonic emblems. The lodge decided to have constructed a new door in keeping with the handsome present and one of native oak was built.

The N. B. and F. E. Island Sunday School Association annual convention is to be held in Chatham October 20-22. It is expected that this convention will be the largest in the history of the association. Rev. J. B. Ganong, field secretary, left this morning for St. Stephen and will go to Chatham next week to arrange details.

We are pleased to announce to the readers of the Times that Eld. J. O. Miller has returned to the city and will occupy the desk at Foresters' Hall, No. 38 Charlotte street, Sunday evening at 7 p. m. None can fail to appreciate the benefit derived from his timely talks. The public are cordially invited to attend this service. The subject will interest all.

THE HALF HOLIDAY

There's a Likely List to Pick From in Selecting Afternoon Amusement

Although there have not been so many attractions arranged for the half-holiday today, it should not be difficult, with fine weather, for anybody to enjoy himself, as there are numerous places at which an enjoyable time may be spent. Westfield will undoubtedly draw a large crowd on account of the annual water-front illumination and sports, but Rouses, Renforth, Bay Shore, Brown's Pits and other popular pleasure spots will come in for their share also. Those who are not so fortunate as to be able to leave town over Sunday or who do not desire to do so, can spend their way to beautiful Rockwood or Sunny Seaside, with its gentle breezes so refreshing to the pleasure-seeker.

The baseball game on the Every Day Club grounds, the third in the championship series between the St. Peters and the Marathons, will prove a great drawing card. Each team has been hard at practice since the game, and that an excellent exhibition is expected.

At Millidgeville a number of the boats will go Westfield to take part in the torchlight procession. This is expected to be a glorious affair, and judging by what it has been in other years, the expectations should easily materialize. The salmon boats, row boats, motors, yachts and canoes will all be tastefully decorated for the occasion with flags and bunting and illuminated with colored lights and Chinese lanterns. Cash prizes are to be given for the prettiest designs and most original illumination effects. The start of the parade will be made at 8 p. m.

There will also be sports at Westfield in the afternoon.

The Nickel and Star and other moving picture houses have good programmes.

From this excellent array of attractions no person should experience much difficulty in spending an enjoyable half holiday either within the city limits or at any of the suburban resorts.

SUITS MIXED

Visiting Oddfellow Has at Least One Good Story to Tell at Home.

Yesterday afternoon two men entered a store in Charlotte street, one of the duo being a visiting Oddfellow in uniform. The man in civilian clothes purchased a suit for his boy and the Oddfellow bought a suit for himself. Both suits were placed in boxes and deposited on the counter side by side. The Oddfellow picked up one of the boxes and walked to his hotel and the local man took the other box home. When the latter reached home he extracted his purchase to try it on his offspring and when he ascertained that the suit was not measure with his child's stature he hurried back to the store with the box containing the apparel.

The Oddfellow dozed in his room preparatory to donning the suit, and on opening the box was compelled to return to the store, where the error was rectified.

NEW POLICEMAN

Sandall Journey is to Go on Duty Tonight.

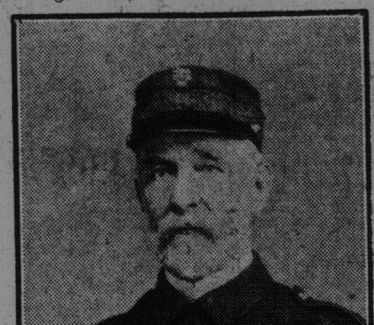

Sandall Journey was sworn in a policeman before Judge Ritchie this morning, to fill one of the vacancies caused by the dismissal of Patrolmen Bowes, Steeves and McNamee by Chief of Police Clark last night. The new man, who had been a drug clerk by occupation, is twenty-one years of age, and came to this city four years ago from Nova Scotia. His grandfather, Samuel Waters, was for many years a policeman on the west end division.

Chief Clark examined a number of candidates this morning, but Journey is probably the only acquisition who will join the force tonight. Journey resides in Tower street, west end.

FUNERAL OF PROF. WILLIAMS ON MONDAY

The funeral of Professor Charles H. Williams, bandmaster of the City Cornet and St. Mary's bands, will be held on Monday afternoon.

At 8.30 o'clock Monday morning the body will be taken from his late residence, Golding street, to the Mission church.

The Late Bandmaster Williams

Paradise Row, and at 2.30 p. m. service will be held in the church, and the funeral will take place from there to Fernhill.

Ernest Williams, one of the sons, was expected to arrive here from Norwood, Mass., at noon today. Dr. Arthur Boutillier Williams, another son, is expected from Memphis on Monday.

Mr. Williams was the oldest bandmaster in Canada.

TO MEET TODAY

High School Teachers' Association in Session Here This Afternoon.

A meeting of the High School Teachers' Association will be held this afternoon at 2.30 o'clock in the High School building. The association was formed in January last for the purpose of having discussions on matters that might prove helpful to the teachers. The intention was to have two meetings a year, one in the summer vacation and the other in the winter. Today's meeting has been called in accordance with that plan.

A. B. Maggs, of Moncton, is president and H. P. Dole, of Riverview, is secretary. Both arrived in the city this morning.

McGOLDRICK IS NOT AFTER JOB

Alderman McGoldrick, speaking to the Times this morning about the report that he was being put forward as a candidate for the office of director of public works, which office some of the aldermen are said to be in favor of reviving, said he did not know what his name should be used. He was not looking for the position, he said, and added that if he wanted a job he was able to ask for it.

Zion Methodist church, Rev. James Crisp, pastor, Men's class meeting at 10 a. m. Preaching service at 11, subject, "What I saw and heard at Berwick Camp meeting." Sunday School at 2.30 Evening service at 7 subject, Second sermon of a series of sermons on the Book of Daniel. Class meeting on Thursday at 3. Prayer meeting at 8. Strangers cordially invited.
