Perfect Summer Weather Gives Opportunity for Delightful Outings

FLAG RAISINGS IN CITY IN MORNING

Public and Private Picnics Attended by Large Numbers

THE MOST perfect summer day that ever rejoiced the heart of holiday makers made the Dominion Day observances yesterday doubly successful and doubly enjoyable. All of the many local attractions arranged for the holiday had abundant patronage, and all were carried through with hearty zest. Early in the morning the exodus from the city began, but there were ample crowds to attend all of the city's special bill of holiay events.

At Haymarket Square Commissioner Wigmore failing to put in an appearance the flag was raised by J. W. Clayton and the flags were distributed by Mrs. Richard Hooper, Mrs. Isaacs and Mrs. James F. Robertson, with the assistance of some of the men of the neighborhood. As the flags were given out the children were told of what the flags stood for.

In the North End of the city it had been announced that the flag raising would take place at Victoria square and both those in charge and the children had gathered at that place, but the fact that the flagpole is in Indiantown square, and Victoria square lacks this feature, made it necessary to remove the gathering to Indiantown square. The small flags were distributed in Victoria square and in splendid orderly fashion the children trooped down to Indiantown square to attend the flag raising.

The band furnished excellent music for the flag raising on Courtman he distribution of such large in Prance that it might endure.

We were soon followed by the loud booming of the guns as aslute of 21 guns was fired in hence of the birthday of Canada.

AT CRYSTAL BEACH

The largest plenic every held at Crystal Beach was that held yesterday under the auspices of St. Mary's Band when it is estimated that between 1,600 and 2,000 assembled for the plenic pleasures. So large was the crowd that the very generous supply of light refreshments was all sold out and nothing remained for the latter in quirers and the motorship D. J. Furdy which was to have tattem all the crows out the return to the cit that feat. The second trip to the city had not been planned for previously as there were not upon the two trips made by the steamer Majestic and some late-comers went up on the two trips made by the steamer Majestic and some late-comers went up on the two trips made by the steamer Majestic and some late-comers went up on the two trips made by the steamer Majestic and some late-comers went up on the two trips made by the steamer Majestic and some late-comers went up on the two trips made by the steamer Majestic and some late-comers went up on the two trips made by the steamer Majestic and some late-comers went up on the two trips made by the commence of the city had not been planned for previously as there were not upon the well-comers went upon the two-trips made by the steamer Majestic and some late-comers went upon the two-trips made by the steamer Majestic and some late-comers went upon the two-trips made by the steamer Majestic and some late-comers went upon the well-comers went upon the w

AT KING SQUARE.

At the King Square flag raising the tall flagstaff of the ambulance station was used. Engineer Piercey, of the fire department, struck the single alarn from box 2 at 10 o'clock and immediately the band played as if moved by one accord the flags were raised on the ambulance station staff, on the two flag poles of the Imperial Theatre and on th staff of the Admiral Beatty hotel.

Walter H. Golding had charge of the flags raising in King square and the disbution of flags to the children was ried out by Mrs. J. H. Doody, Mrs. Illiam McAvity and Mrs. J. D. Sely. There were no speeches, although a imber of the parants had gathered xpecting to hear patriotic societies, except the Canadian Clubs, had representation and the totell the children of the significance of the observance.

Tam the Resurrection."

It had been suggested that a requiem mass should be sung, but the day being the Feast of the Preclous Blood, high mass was celebrated. Pather Ryan in his address referred to the saintly lives of Rev. J. J. O'Donovan, for 29 years parish priest of the Assumption end St. Rose's Church, both of whom rest in Holy Cross cemetery, and the listening congregations were visibly affected.

Father Ryan spoke of the duty to keep the cemetery well cared for. Rev. W. Mallett, acting parish priest of St. Rose's entered and of Very Rest.
