MAN IS KILLED BY A TRAIN NEAR BLADON STATION

Frederickton Man, Victim of Fatality, Had Gone to Post Letter

Fred Vanbuskirk, fifty, a native of Frederickton, was almost instantly killed, when struck by a C. P. R. freight train bound west, about 100 feet east of Cunningham's bridge, near Bladon Station, yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The accident occurred at a sharp curve, and evidently the unfortunate man neither saw the train because of the dense fog, nor heard it because of deafness.

Vanbuskirk had left the lumber camp in the woods back of Bladon, where he had been working since the opening of the lumbering season for the purpose of mailing a letter. He had mailed his letter in the Post office at Bladon, and was walking to the camp via the railway tracks, when he was struck by the train.

Unmarried, the only close relative who could be discovered last night was a cousin, J. M. Pickard, of Frederickton. The scene of the accident is about 20 miles from the city.

The body was brought to the city last night by W. E. Brennan, undertaker, West Station, and will be sent to New Brunswick today where interment will take place.

WEDDINGS

Sullivan-Emery.

At the rectory of St. Catherine's church, Charlottetown, Friday evening, Miss Jean P. Emery, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Emery of Myrtle avenue, East Sonerville, was married to Mr. Thomas E. Sullivan, of 88 Monument street. Rev. T. McCoy performed the ceremony. Many friends of the couple were present at a reception after the ceremony. The parents of the bride and groom assisted in receiving. Miss Anna C. Sullivan, sister of the groom, was maid of honor, and Frank J. Donahue, of Charlottetown, was best man. The bride wore midnight blue and was attended with white ermine. The bride was formerly of St. John, N.B. The groom was a lifelong resident of Charlottetown, a member of Bunker Hill Council, K. C. After a wedding tour through Canada they will make their future home in Charlottetown.

Collins-McVicar.

The wedding of Miss Jean McVicar, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. McVicar, of Louisburg, Cape Breton, to Mr. William Collins, of St. Martins, N. B., was a great interest in Sydney, N. S., where the ceremony was solemnized by the Rev. A. H. Campbell, of Plymouth street Presbyterian church on Dec. 31, 1923. The bride and groom came to St. Martins last Monday morning, and were royally welcomed by an old time charivari, after which a dance was held to welcome the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Collins, who operate a business in the woods where he is a trusted employee of W. C. Collins, who operates a business in that district. Many good wishes are extended to the bride and groom.

DEATHS

Mrs. T. S. Simms

General regret was expressed throughout this city yesterday when it was learned that Mrs. T. S. Simms, widow of T. S. Simms, formerly Miss Lila Rutherford, had passed away at her temporary home in Wolfville, N. S., after a fatal illness extending over only a week. Mrs. Simms, who was in her sixtieth year, was born in St. John, and lived here during her entire lifetime, removing to Wolfville only four months ago, where she intended to reside until her daughter, Helen, who is a student at Acadia University, had completed her course. She is survived by four children, L. W. Simms, Philip McAllister Simms, Stockwell Simms, of Indiana Harbor, near Chicago, and Miss Helen.

Following a service at the Wolfville Baptist church this morning, to be conducted by Rev. F. W. Patterson, principal of Acadia University, the body will be brought by D. A. R. to connect with Boston train, and will be taken to Portland, Me., for interment. The body will be accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Simms, their children Marjorie and Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Philip McAllister, and Miss Helen Simms. It is expected that Stockwell Simms will meet his relatives on the arrival in Portland.

The funeral will be held from the home of C. Eugene Wescott, and interment will be in the plot where her husband was buried.

The late Mrs. Simms was a life-long member of the German street Baptist church, taking every active interest in all the affairs of the church until some nine years ago when, through illness she was prevented from taking as active an interest as formerly. She removed to Wolfville four months ago. Although Mrs. Simms had been ill, death was unlooked for until about a week ago, when she took a turn for the worse.

Two sisters, Mrs. G. M. Barker, and Mrs. J. McCarthy, both of this city, also survive.

At the evening service in the German street Baptist church yesterday, touching reference to Mrs. Simms' passing and a glowing tribute to her work, while a member of the church, was made by Rev. Dr. Toole.

Mrs. Lydia J. Marr.

At the advanced age of 88 years, Mrs. Lydia J. Marr passed away yesterday at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Frank L. Violette, 104 City Road. Mrs. Marr was a highly respected resident of Gondola Point and had come to St. John to visit her daughter. While in the city she was stricken with a stroke of paralysis and did not recover. She is survived by 119 direct descendants. Some of her children died before her. She was the widow of George Marr, of Gondola Point, and leaves to mourn two sons, Arthur C., of Gondola Point, and Oliver H., of Torriburn, and two daughters, Mrs. Frank Vincent and Miss Ella Marr, both of St. John, also by 41 grandchildren, 69 great grandchildren and five great great grandchildren. The funeral will take place on Tuesday from the Baptist church at Gondola Point.

George Alexander Law.

A citizen who had won the respect of the community and whose death will be sincerely mourned passed away on Saturday evening in the person of George Alexander Law, whose death occurred at his residence, 181 Princess street. Although he had been ailing for some time Mr. Law had been up and about until a comparatively short time before his death, news of which came as a great shock to his many friends. He was born in Westfield, a son of the late Robert and Elizabeth Law, and had lived in St. John practically all his life. He was the city agent of the Canada Sulphate and Specialty Mill, Limited, and was closely identified with Centenary church, of which he had been a steward for several years. Besides his wife he is survived by one sister, Mrs. S. Jean Jenkins of this city. Deep sympathy has gone out to the bereaved.

Rev. William J. O'Shea.

The death is announced of Rev. William J. O'Shea, pastor of St. Bartholomew's church, Chicago, after 28 years' service at the altar. Father O'Shea who was 45 years of age, is survived by one brother, Christopher, and one sister, Mother Mary Williams, of the Sisters of Mercy, Mrs. Peter C. Stacey, of this city, and Mrs. Rose McGill, Ottawa, are cousins of the late Father O'Shea. The priest's family left here in 1870 and for years previous his father, Christopher O'Shea, carried on a meat business in the city market.

Dr. G. K. Clarke.

Toronto, Jan. 21.—Dr. Charles Kirk Clarke, famed as a specialist in phylisiatry, mental hygiene and psychology, died at his home here yesterday, aged 67 years. He was born in Elora, Ont.

John G. MacDougall.

Ottawa, Jan. 21.—John G. MacDougall, a son of the late Hon. Wm. MacDougall, one of the fathers of Confederation, died in the hospital here yesterday after a lengthy illness.

LIKELY CANDIDATE

Mrs. John Dickinson Sherman of Estes Park, Colo., shown here, may be the next president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs. Mrs. Sherman is chairman of the applied education committee and is looked upon as one of the most prominent of America's club women.

ARMY OF FRANCE DOWN TO 660,000

Paris, Jan. 20.—The reduction of the French army under the terms of the 18 months service bill now being applied will soon be terminated. The army will then number some 220,000 men less than were under the colors in 1914. It is pointed out. The official figures show that the French army on Aug. 1, 1914, totalled 864,000 men, against 660,000 under the present reorganization measures.

STEAMER YANKTON DAMAGED IN GALE

Boston, Jan. 20.—The steamer Yankton, a week behind schedule, arrived here Saturday from St. John's Nfld. Heavy weather forced her to put in at Liverpool, and at Louisburg, C. B. Deck fittings and a life boat had been smashed by the waves, and a pin in the steering gear worked loose outside Boston harbor, causing further delay. The usual run from St. John's is three or four days.

DESIRE TO KNOW MORE OF SCHEME

Meeting Asks Government to Stay Hand on Game
Preserve Proposal

A largely attended and representative meeting of those interested in the proposal to turn some 400,000 to 500,000 acres in the south of the province, over to the Loch Alva Fish and Game Association as a fish and game preserve, was held yesterday afternoon in the Kennel Club, George W. Gaynor acting as chairman and W. E. Haley, as secretary.

After considerable discussion, the meeting finally decided to petition the Provincial Government to grant them a hearing, in order that they may present their side of the case, as they see it before the government finally decides to lease this property extending over some 400,000 to 500,000 acres in Charlottetown, Kings, Queens, Sunbury, York and St. John counties.

A committee composed of Sidney C. Young, D. King Hazen, W. F. Kiersey, W. E. Haley, E. R. Hansen, and George W. Gaynor were appointed to draw up the petition, which will be presented to the government, and a copy of which will be sent to every member of the Provincial House, representing the counties affected by the proposed action.

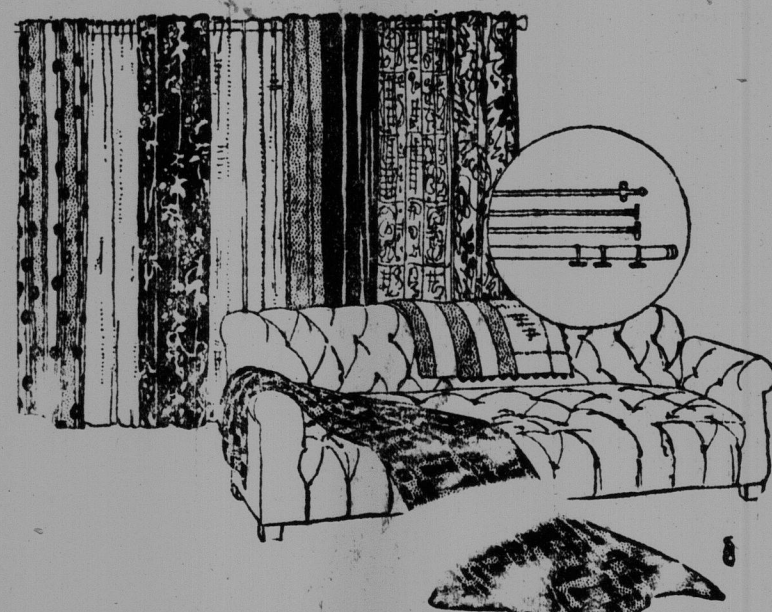

Although several of those present at the meeting yesterday were in attendance at the meeting on Thursday night, when the matter was discussed, they expressed themselves as not quite clear on what the proposition would mean and what would be their status under the new regime. Fears were expressed that the new regulations, might prevent many who had been accustomed for years to make the affected part of the province their playground during the hunting and fishing seasons each year.

On the suggestion of A. G. McAvity, it was decided to hold a meeting in the Board of Trade rooms on next Thursday evening at 8 o'clock, when the matter could be more fully gone into with the proponents of the scheme.

FUNERALS

The funeral of Mrs. William Donner was held yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from her late residence, 21 Clifton street, West St. John, with the Rev. Charles Freeman, of the Charlottetown Baptist church, officiating.
