

POLITY

PARTING WORDS.

"And he said, let me go, for the day breaketh." Genesis xxxii. 26.

Let me go, the day is breaking—
Dearest company, let me go:
We have spent a night in walking
In the wilderness below!
Upward now I bend my way;
Part we here at break of day

Let me go; I may not tarry,
Whistling thus with doubts and fears;
Angels wait my soul to carry.
Where my risen Lord appears;
While I sigh, "Farewell to you,
If ye love me, let me go."

We have travelled long together,
Hand in hand, and heart in heart,
Both through fair and stormy weather,
And 'tis hard 'tis hard to part:
While I sigh, "Farewell to you,
answer, one and all, "Adieu!"

'Tis not darkness gathering round me
That withdraws me from your sight:
Woe of flesh no more can bound me,
But translated into light,
Like the lark on the mountain wing,
Though unseen, you hear me sing.

Heaven's broad day has o'er me broken,
Far beyond earth's span of sky;
Am I dead? Nay, by this token,
Know that I have ceased to die.
Would you solve the mystery,
Come up hither,—come and see.

THE VOICE OF GOD.

What called me forth from dust?
What bade my blood
Throughout my veins thus warily flow?
What bade me live, and it was so?
The voice of God!

What, even from my youth,
Where'er I've trod,
Has warned dread danger from my way
and called me back when I would stray?
The voice of God!

What, when affliction reared
Its weighty rod,
and I stood tremblingly in tears,
Till most melodious on my ears?
The voice of God!

What, when I mouldering lie
Beneath the sod,
Shall bid the tomb resign its trust,
and rouse again my sleeping dust?
The voice of God!

Then ever let me heed,
At home, abroad,
Where'er my earthly lot is cast,
While duty calls, and life flows fast,
The voice of God!

A Candidat's Pledges.—Immediately after the Rochdale Radical demonstration last week, the clown or fool of the ring to the Rochdale Circus came forward into the middle of the ring, there being not less than 2000 persons in the house, and, appearing to the audience for their sufferages, called upon to elect him their member. He said, "Gentlemen, my qualifications are that I am a fool and a beggar; I will promise to fill my own pockets first, and then yours if there is anything to spare. I will bring in bills to do away with all taxes, and keep every poor man out of the public purse without work. Every man shall eat, drink, and get drunk, and beat his wife to boot, without paying for it. I will abolish all labour or work, every man shall have as many clothes as he likes without paying a farthing for them. I will abolish all magistrates, judges, police officers, bailiffs, sheriffs, jails and jailers, executioners, stocks and whipping posts, as I them to be directly opposed to true and rational liberty." At this stage of the address, the master of ring, feared that his fool might in his satire be going too far with the audience pulled the chair from under the patriot's feet, and whipped him round the ring, the fool exclaiming, "Oh Sir, you know how to justly pay a patriot's wages."
