The reason why we sell so many shoes for children is simply because we cater for the little one's requirements. Their every want is anticipated. Just now we are showing the new "CHIC" last—a broad, easy shaped last, which will allow the feet to spread out, as nature intended.

ARTILLERY BAND WERE

WELL RECEIVED

The band of the 3rd New Brunswick Regiment, C. A., returned from Boston on Saturday by the steamer Yale, after filling a week's engagement in and about Boston. Speaking to the Sun last evening, Capt. S. B. Smith, who was in command of the band, said that the trip was successful in every way. The band met with a cordial reception everywhere it played. The impression that it made can be judged from the fact that the management of the city of Boston, in the person of Mr. J. W. Ingraham, has already opened negotiations for a two weeks' engagement in 1908.

The Artillery Band played two days at Paragon Park, Nantasket Beach. It also gave concerts in the Dudley street Opera House, Boston. During their stay at the Hub the bandmen were guests at the American House.

MONCTON LIQUOR

DEALERS SOAKED

MONCTON, Sept. 7.—The city's finances were increased by a two hundred dollar donation from the police court today, four liquor dealers paying Scott money. The police court today heard cases against the Windsor and LeBlanc hotels, O. S. Legere and J. Hebert.

A young man living near the city borrowed a horse from a neighbor yesterday and did not return it. Today he was met on Main street by the owner, and when the latter attempted to take possession of the animal, the driver applied the whip and proceeded at a furious pace down the street, running over an elderly lady, who was badly shaken up. He was arrested, and will be tried on Monday, charged with drunkenness and furious driving.

David White, general car inspector of the I. C. R., who leaves the service shortly to accept a pension, was suitably remembered by a number of fellow officials today and presented with a very fine gold-headed cane and an address. Mr. White has been in the I. C. R. service since 1867, entering at Halifax and being promoted to car inspector at Truro in 1874. In 1888 he was made master car builder with headquarters at Moncton, and in 1900, when the increased rolling stock on the Intercolonial made the office of a general car inspector absolutely necessary, he was appointed to that position.

FOUNTAIN PEN FOR

JOHN S. STEVENS

After five years' service on the retail staff with Waterbury & Rising, John S. Stevens has severed his connection with that firm to accept the more lucrative position of manager of the shoe department with J. W. Ingraham & Co., of North Sydney, N.S.

Mr. Stevens was deeply affected at the evidence of good feeling, but he managed to express his thanks in suitable terms for the beautiful gift and the kind expressions of his welfare which accompanied it.

FATAL RIOT AMONG SHORE LINE LABORERS

All Italians; One

Dying, 2 Badly

Wounded

Revolver and Shotgun

Used in Fight Among

Foreigners Maddened by ### Drink.

The quiet village of Prince of Wales was thrown into a state of wild panic on Sunday afternoon when a fight broke out among the Italian navvies who have been working on the New Brunswick Southern near that place. From a wrangle, the fight grew to a riot, shot after shot sent the echoes rattling among the hills and when the combatants, their rage changed to terror, had fled, three men lay writhing in blood upon the ground.

Later investigation showed that they were:

The Wounded Men

Antonio Codispoti—Shot in the throat, bullet wound in right breast. Will probably die.

Antonio Salchitani—Face, chest and shoulders peppered with partridge shot, of which there must have been at least two charges, and one revolver shot in the side. Will be horribly scarred, but has a chance of recovery.

Antonio Quacchi—Shot just above the eyebrows. Will recover.

These men are members of a crew of forty-five navvies who have been living in a car near the village. The victims are Italians, as are the majority of the crew. It is said that the men have been supplied with liquor freely and had been drinking all day. There had been more or less shouting and wrangling all day, but nothing of serious proportions had happened.

Beginning of the Row

At about two o'clock a man named Mr. Austin saw a roll of money thrown from the car. It was immediately picked up by four other Italians, who carried it with them, counting it as they went. Some others joined them and a dispute immediately began. High words were exchanged, a blow was struck, one of the men drew a revolver, fired, and another man fell. Immediately the fight became a general one. Wildly excited, most of the spectators broke cover.

There was some desultory shooting, but in a few moments the actors in the drama had narrowed to four men out of whom lay upon the ground in mortal agony.

It is supposed that Codispoti was the first man to fall, but it is also probable that he had first shot Antonio Salchitani in the side.

Then, as nearly as can be learned, Carlos Codispoti, a youth of eighteen years, took up the quarrel. He sprang into the melee with a double-barrelled shotgun, and, fired, he hit, his face, neck and shoulders mangled by the shot.

The third victim, Antonio Quacchi, was hit by a shot in the head, and the kind expressions of his welfare which accompanied it.

—Re-armament a Question of Interest.

PEACE.

Editor of the Star:

Sir—My last extract from Mrs. Mead's "The New Internationalism" dealt with the proposal advanced by the German Government to limit the armaments of all nations.

The German Government has now announced that it will accept the proposal, and that it will limit its armaments to those of the other nations.

This is a very important step, and it is to be hoped that it will lead to a general agreement to limit armaments.

It is a question of interest to all nations, and it is to be hoped that it will lead to a general agreement to limit armaments.
