

Classified Advertisements.

LOSSES & CARDS

NURSE BURELL—Disengaged for chronic or short cases. Terms moderate. THE KING'S DAUGHTERS. Phone 1120. 6-12-10.

THE LITTLE GIANT HOUSEHOLD PUMP, at $4.00, is the only device on the market, and enables people who are not mechanics to clean out their own waste pipes. Write to A. N. NIXON, 299 Charlotte St. 6-12-10.

LEAVE YOUR ORDER at once for some of the Scotch Spilt Coal due in a few days. On hand, all sizes Scotch Hard Coal. JAMES S. MCGIVERN, Agent, 5 Mill Street, Tel. 42. 11-10-10.

W. V. HATFIELD, Mason, Plasterer, Builder, Stucco work in all its branches, 2444 Union Street, Estimates furnished. Only union men employed. Telephone 1819. 11-10-10.

S. A. WILLIAMS, CARPENTER and CONTRACTOR, office 109 Prince Wm. Street, Telephone 301. All kinds of work promptly attended to. 11-10-10.

J. D. McAVITY, dealer in hard and soft coal. Delivered promptly in the city. 21 Brussels Street. 11-10-10.

WM. L. WILLIAMS, successor to J. A. Finn, Wholesale and Retail Wine and Spirit Merchant, 119 and 121 Prince Wm. St. Established 1876. Write for family price list. 11-10-10.

F. C. WESLEY CO., Artists, Engravers and Electrotypers, 59 Water Street, St. John, N. B. Telephone 582. 11-10-10.

E. LAW, Watchmaker, 2 Coburg St. 11-10-10.

ROOMS AND BOARDING

FURNISHED ROOM TO RENT—One large front room to let, very sunny and pleasant, centrally located, rent moderate, 25 Carlton street, two doors from Stone church. 25-12-10.

BOARDING—One large, bright room open grate, separate wash room with hot and cold water running. Apply 36 Coburg St. 25-12-10.

BOARDING—Rooms on this floor. Meals if desired. 148 Carmarthen, above Duke. 25-12-10.

TO LET—Rooms for light housekeeping. Also heated rooms, furnished, gas. Address Box 253, City. 25-12-10.

PLEASANT LOCATION in city. Board reasonable. 30 Carmarthen. 14-12-10.

PERSONS WISHING WARM, COMFORTABLE ROOMS for winter, with board at reasonable rates, apply THE TOURNAINE HOUSE, 75 King St. 24 Wellington Row. 25-12-10.

TO LET—Pleasant rooms with or without board. 148 Union Street. 21-12-10.

SITUATIONS VACANT—MALE

MEN AND WOMEN EARN GOOD PAY copying and checking advertising material at home, spare time, no capital, no experience. SIMPLEX MFG. CO., London, Ont. 21-12-10.

YOUNG MEN—I have an excellent plan by which you can greatly increase your earning capacity. For information write to JENSEN, care Bar. 14-12-10.

WANTED—A reliable man in every locality in Canada, with rig or capable of handling horses, on salary or commission, $15.00 a week and expenses, with advancement, introducing and advertising our Royal Purple Stock Oil. Posters, 7 by 9 feet, selling goods to merchants and consumers. No experience needed. Write for particulars. W. A. JENKINS MFG. CO., London, Ont. 14-12-10.

SALESMEN—$40 per week, selling sewing pattern Egg-Beater. Sample and terms free. Money refunded if unsatisfactory. COLLETT MFG. CO., Collingwood, Ont. 14-12-10.

LOST AND FOUND

LOST—Black Spaniel dog, white breast. Return to R. W. MITCHELL, 88 Waterloo Street. 5-1-10.

FOUND—A small dog. Owner can have same by proving ownership and paying for this ad. J. E. WATERS, St. John West. 6-1-10.

MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS.

PIANOS FOR 1910

OUR MOTTO FOR THIS YEAR WILL BE TO OFFER THE BEST VALUES IN PIANOS AND ORGANS IN ST. JOHN

Do not buy an instrument from any agent until you call at our store and how low you can buy a good Piano here.

We will not expect you to buy from us unless we can satisfy you that the quality prices of our Instruments are right.

We keep no agents to bother you; this one item puts us in a position to save you at least 10 p. c.

Please call and judge for yourself. Reasonable terms to pay if you wish.

Belis Piano Store 35 KING ST. OPP. ROYAL HOTEL

WANT ADS. will say "this way, ladies and gentlemen," to all who might want to find such a house as you have to sell.

WANT ADS. are booming a lot of business in this town these days.

1 Cent a Word. 6 insertions for the price of 4

You Should Advertise.

XXXIV. Bargains in the classified—Hats and shoes and beds, beds, Toys and toys for girls and boys, Many ads of things also offered for just half their price—And each boy gets fun and play through our want ads every day.

Here is a way for you to earn plenty of side money during your spare moments at home.

Every day hundreds of people advertise in the Want Columns of the Sun and Star. They need some one to do a little extra work for them. For instance—such work as addressing envelopes, writing short stories, knitting or sewing. These people will pay you well for your services. Why not take this opportunity of making extra money during your spare moments? It certainly will come in handy. Don't miss these valuable opportunities. Start reading Sun and Star Want Ads. today.

SITUATIONS VACANT—FEMALE

WANTED—A girl. Apply T. J. PHILLIPS, Union St. 6-1-10.

WANTED—A girl for general housework. Apply at 185 Princess St. 5-1-10.

WANTED—A nurse; also housemaid. References required. Apply MRS. G. BYRON CUSHING, 21 Queen Square. 5-1-10.

WANTED—A nurse maid, references required. Apply MRS. F. R. FAIRWEATHER, 119 Duke St. 4-1-10.

WANTED—Two kitchen girls. GRAND UNION HOTEL. 4-1-10.

WANTED—A general girl at Carville Hall. 3-1-10.

WANTED—At $5 Coburg street, an experienced housemaid; good wages. Apply at once. 3-1-10.

WANTED—A middle-aged kitchen woman. Apply EDWARD HOTEL, 18-12-10.

WANTED—Several lady canvassers for local work. First class proposition to those willing to work. Inquire Circulation Manager, Sun Office. 7-12-10.

WANTED—A CAPABLE GIRL for general housework. Must be a good plain cook. Reference required. MRS. JAMES L. McAVITY 83 Hazen St. 4-1-10.

WANTED

WANTED—Small cottage or flat until May 1st. West End preferred. Address Star Office, Box 578. 6-1-10.

WANTED—To rent by young married couple, flat, about seven or eight rooms, centrally located, with modern improvements. Write P. O. Box 136, City. 27-12-10.

WANTED—About first May next, by young couple, small flat in city proper. Apply G. H. this office. 27-12-10.

WANTED—Large room or hall suitable for basketball, for two nights each week. Apply to H. K. CLAYSON, Canada Permanent Association offices. 27-12-10.

WANTED TO PURCHASE—Gentleman's cast off clothing, footwear, fur coats, ladies' furs, jewelry, diamonds, musical instruments, guns, revolvers, tools, skates, etc. Call or send postals. H. GILBERT, 34 Mill St. 11-10-10.

PRESERVING TERRACES.

If there are terraces where heavy rains cause the sods to slip off, a good and permanent remedy is to set common barberry bushes rather closely on the terrace. The roots will hold up the terrace and keep it safe from freshets. The lawn will be beautiful the year round with the shrubs.

The romantic story of the dead villain is not supported by a reference to the British peerage, or Who's Who. In neither does such a man as Featherstonhaugh or Featherstone appear.

TO LET

TO LET—Small shop suitable for shoemaker. Apply 155 Duke street. 6-1-10.

TO RENT—Flat, 313 Brussels street. 5-1-10.

TO LET—Flat, 77, corner Charlotte and British street, in excellent order. Apply direct to E. V. GODFREY, 39 Pugsley Building, City. 23-12-10.

TO LET—Upper flat, 77 Celebration street, containing eight rooms, etc. Possession at once. Apply to MRS. SALINA HARNICK, 82 Wall street. 1-1-10.

TO LET—Shop, 12 Sydney street. Apply 25 King street. 1-1-10.

TO LET—New self-contained flat, all improvements, on Wright street. Apply M. S. TRAFFORD, 107 Burpee avenue. 25-12-10.

TO LET—Small house, 4 rooms, 15 Chealsey. Apply ALFRED BURLEY, 46 Princess. 25-12-10.

TO LET—The rooms lately occupied by Dr. Dickie, 48 King St. Apply to Dr. E. M. Wilson, 57 Charlotte street. 6-1-10.

AMUSEMENTS

NICKEL'S FINE NEW BILL TODAY.

The Nickel presents two new Biograph comedies today, also a Selig melodrama as well as a fine travel picture with which to close the week. The Biograph films are entitled, "Choosing a Husband," with no less than three distinctly new players in the cast and the other is labelled, "The Day After New Year's," the story of a masquerade party any all the trimmings. Both a screamingly amusing. The melodrama is called "The Smuggler's Game," a story dealing with Chinese and their white confederates in the smuggling of opium. It is a strong picture. The Trip Through Belgium is highly instructive and was watched with regular "winning" interest yesterday. There will be an extra reel in the afternoon and the children are going to have a special treat Saturday afternoon. Miss Lefroy made a certain hit last evening in singing "Kilnham," and Master Packer is receiving applause as well.

GREAT ORPHEUM ATTRACTION FOR NEXT WEEK.

The Orpheum management is certainly springing a surprise for next week in the form of the finest headline acts in Vaudeville—other than the Barbeau Family, of ten people, all of them talented and versatile. The acts are: "The Trick of the Trade," a story dealing with the life of a vaudeville artist, and trained by the father, Mr. E. Barbeau, a clever and competent musician. "The Trick of the Trade" is a high class musical selection, singing and dancing, rope tying, leotards, etc. The big act assures capacity business at the Orpheum all next week.

MONDAY'S CARNIVAL AT THE VIC ATTRACTING GREAT INTEREST.

All the costumes available in the city for the big carnival at the Victoria Theatre were on display at the vic Monday evening. Previously there had been much difficulty in securing anything worth wearing. But this difficulty no longer exists, as skaters from the Canadian Coast, with headquarters at the Nickel Theatre, and at 14 Union street, the prices of rental are low and the variety splendid. There is always great interest in the costumes of the skaters, for a prize of ten dollars is offered. There will be lots of fun created by the ladies as they parade after the most of the gentlemen who make it difficult to choose the best. The number of handsome costumes will make it difficult to choose the best. The judges to decide which is the best.

"MARTHA" WILL BE SUNG TO-NIGHT BY THE ROBINSON OPERA COMPANY.

"The Show-Girl" will be the offering at the Opera House last night and the Robinson Opera Company sustained reputation for good work in comic opera. As usual Miss Nola was given a hearty welcome by the audience. Her songs being encored several times. Jack Henderson sang "Maudie," and Miss Flynn played a comic role as only she plays one.

Three of the Robinson Company were present Saturday night. The greatest critics of Grand Opera as sung on the American stage have acknowledged "Martha" to be the greatest work of Pjotow, the eminent composer. It is somewhat different from his other work, being a light Grand Opera, the time of action being during the reign of Queen Anne.

The musical numbers are excellent, some of the best being—"The Last Rose of Summer," "Duet," "Lost, scribbled," "Cruel one! may I dream," "Here in Deepest Forest," etc. As Lady Harriet Durham (Martha) Miss Lucia Nola will be heard in her favorite role, having sung it in all the large cities in the United States and Canada and has been favorably commented upon by the press in the different cities.

Mr. Frank D. Wilson will sing the part of Plunkett, a wealthy young farmer. Mr. Wilson has sung this role a good many times, but never in St. John, and will be heard here in it for the first time to-night.

The tenor role of Lionel will of course fall to Charles Fulton, who has made a great name for himself in St. John, and will be heard to great advantage in it. "Nancy" will be sung by Minna Storm, and Jack Henderson will be heard as Lord Tristan Mickelford. Arthur Dano will sing the part of "The Sheriff."

Postmaster Sears is anxious for an opportunity to move up town and be rid of the rats and other undesirable features which attach to the present post office building.

SUNLIGHT SOAP

Do you know the difference between working and having the work done for you?

Sunlight Soap actually makes the dirt drop out—saves you time and money—but injures neither hands nor clothes. That is just the difference between Sunlight Soap and ordinary soaps.

Follow Directions

INSURANCE COMPANY SENDS OUT NURSES

NEW YORK, Jan. 6.—The Metropolitan Life Insurance Company is experimenting with nursing connection with industrial insurance. Fifty nurses were busy in Manhattan yesterday, 100 in Chicago, and in force in Philadelphia, Boston, Brooklyn, Pittsburgh, and Cleveland. If the experiment succeeds, the company plans to have its force of nurses in every city and large town.

Every man and woman taking out a small industrial policy, upon which payments are generally made weekly, receives a card to be sent to the company if they fall ill.

Under an arrangement with the Nurses' Association, as soon as the illness of a small policyholder is reported a nurse is sent to assist the physician in charge of the case.

"We have no idea where this experiment is going to lead us," said Dr. Lee K. Frankel, who has charge of the industrial insurance department. "Our nurses are attending about 200 cases a day in Manhattan. If the experiment seems a good thing, we may establish a training school of our own for nurses."

A. O. SKINNER AGAIN ELECTED PRESIDENT

The annual meeting of the St. John Open House Company was held in the Opera House building last night and the directors and officers for the ensuing year were elected.

Pres. A. O. Skinner reported that the business of the past year, in spite of opposition, had been fairly good. Extensive alterations and improvements had been made in the building and the fittings were in first-class condition. The prospects for a successful year were exceedingly bright.

The directors were elected as follows: President, A. O. Skinner; 1st vice president, John Mitchell; 2nd vice president, Dr. Geo. H. Henderson; directors: David O'Connell, John Ross, Enoch W. Paul, Dr. Geo. A. B. Addy, A. E. McGinley, M. G. S. T. A. Linton.

After the meeting of the shareholders the directors met and elected the following gentlemen as members of the board of management: A. O. Skinner, John Mitchell, E. V. Paul, A. E. McGinley was elected secretary-treasurer.

WHEAT YIELD ON INCREASE.

OTTAWA, Ont., Jan. 6.—The wheat crop of Canada last year is estimated by the census and statistics branch of the department of Agriculture to be 166,744,000 bushels, an increase of 54,330,000 bushels over 1908. Average price per acre was 21.6 bushels, as compared with 17 bushels in the previous year. Average price was $4.45 cwt., as compared with $4.10 cwt. in 1908. The price of wheat in the provinces was $1.25 cwt., an increase of 55,829,000 bushels.

GRAFT-EXPOSER BERRY ROBBED; "WELL, WELL!"

Ex-State Treasurer's Own Home Plundered and He Didn't Know It.

CHESTER, Pa., Jan. 6.—Former Treasurer William H. Berry, the man who uncovered the graft scandal at the State Capitol, appeared in city police court this morning to describe several hundred dollars' worth of silverware that had been stolen from his home, the alleged thief being Edna Henderson, a servant, who has been in the employ of his family just three weeks.

"Well, well, I didn't know the stuff had been stolen," declared the man who has been awarded the pain for detecting the work of big crooks. An inventory of the family plate showed that the silver chest had been looted. The woman admitted to Magistrate that she had conveyed to the home of her mother, in Ludlow street, Philadelphia. The mother denied this, and said the booty could be recovered if the police would arrest one Albert Gibson, and a warrant has been issued for him.

DAUGHTER'S FLIGHT.

On Sunday evening, Sept. 12, Alice asked if she might go to church, and witness said, "Yes, on condition that you come straight home." She did not return after the service, and witness went to hunt for her. She went to the doctor's home, and asked if he had seen anything of Alice, and the doctor replied, "Yes," adding that she had gone to her married daughter's. Witness said she deserved or would have a good hiding for going. He returned home.

In less than ten minutes Alice returned. Witness pushed her down on the sofa, and just then the doctor rushed in with a heavy cane, and cried, as he furnished it over witness's head, "Will you knock your brains out?" A blow from the stick did hit witness on the shoulder, and he then wrenched the stick from the doctor and closed with him. They wrestled for some time, and he threw the doctor on the floor. The doctor, believing himself with the heavy stick, with the result that he was black and blue for a fortnight. Witness punched the doctor's head as hard as he could.

As the doctor went out of the house witness's daughter ran after the doctor, and witness heard her say, "Come, Alice, come along with me," and the girl followed him. From then until now he had not seen her except in the police court, and on the day when witness called at the doctor's house he heard her call out, "Shut the door, they have the law," and the door was shut and locked.

Amie Bourne, a married daughter of Mr. Jones, said the doctor told her Alice had attracted him, that she was a nice girl, and that he would like to marry her. Witness was astonished. Next day she told him she thought Alice was too young, and that Alice would say whatever the doctor asked her to because she thought Alice was afraid of him.

In a later interview the doctor said he would leave the child alone, and that he felt himself a brute for bothering with the child. After that he said when asked to wait until the girl was twenty-one, that he could not afford to wait.

Mrs. Bourne said she once heard Alice say, "I promised last night to stick to the doctor, and I will." "OF COURSE HE MADE LOVE!" Sarah Marian Dickin, Whitechurch road, gave evidence that the doctor took her to her home, and that the doctor was very kind to her. She said she was not always happy at home.

The girl said her father forbade her speaking to the doctor, but she did go to his rooms.

Counsel—He was making love to you?—Of course he was.

The doctor, said Miss Jones, did not always keep her.

Alice Jones then entered the witness box. She was a young girl, dressed in brown, and looked an attractive girl of eighteen or twenty years.

Questioned by Dr. Weir, she denied that there had been any misconduct between them, and said that it was her father who had put about that report.

Her father had said that the doctor would have her for £20. She was not always happy at home.

The Judge—Very few of us are. The girl said her father forbade her speaking to the doctor, but she did go to his rooms.

Counsel—He was making love to you?—Of course he was.

The doctor, said Miss Jones, did not always keep her.

VILLAGE DOCTOR'S LOVE AFFAIRS

Man of Sixty Woods a Girl Not Yet Sixteen

"A Rascal," Says the Judge—When Father Protests He Is Thrashed by His Daughter.

(Lloyd's News.)

"There are no mitigating circumstances. I consider defendant in a racial, and he will have to go to prison for fifteen months."

So said Mr. Justice Jelf of Shrewsbury on Wednesday in sentencing Alexander McCook Weir, a doctor of Shrewsbury, for abducting Alice Jones, fifteen.

Henry Jones, the father, said his wife was dead, and he had three daughters, one married, one an invalid, and the other the girl Alice, taken by the doctor. In the summer of this year she was fifteen and a half years of age, and up to that time she was a very good girl and had assisted to keep house for him.

The doctor began calling at a house by attending his invalid daughter, and he first knew of the doctor's attention to his daughter in July from an anonymous letter, in which it was stated that the relations between the doctor and the girl were becoming a matter of talk in the district.

Later he asked the doctor to leave his daughter alone, as he did not believe in her going about with a man of his age. He also told Mr. Weir that he would ruin his home to take his daughter away, as he would only have the cripple left. The doctor then said he would leave the girl alone.

Following that, however, a letter was brought to his daughter from Dr. Weir, dated July 28, follows:

"Dear Alice—You have plunged me into unspeakable sorrow, and I was awake all night. May God avenge us on the writer of the accursed letter which brought all this misery about. I loved you with all my heart, and now it is broken. Even if you declined to marry me your attitude yesterday to my sister was to me unacceptable. Evidently you were well posted up, but I won't make you happy to know you have plunged me in agonizing pain—Your brother-hearted lover, the doctor, who came to his house, and witness's married daughter, who was there, asked the doctor why he did not leave Alice alone. The girl was crying, and the doctor said he wanted to marry her honorably. Witness replied, "Do you think I will let my marry a man old enough to be her grandfather?" and added that he could not marry her without his consent.

The doctor said something funny to his eldest daughter, and witness took her by the collar, turned him out, and forbade him the house. For some time he saw no more of the doctor, and kept his daughter indoors as much as he could.

On Sunday evening, Sept. 12, Alice asked if she might go to church, and witness said, "Yes, on condition that you come straight home." She did not return after the service, and witness went to hunt for her. She went to the doctor's home, and asked if he had seen anything of Alice, and the doctor replied, "Yes," adding that she had gone to her married daughter's. Witness said she deserved or would have a good hiding for going. He returned home.

In less than ten minutes Alice returned. Witness pushed her down on the sofa, and just then the doctor rushed in with a heavy cane, and cried, as he furnished it over witness's head, "Will you knock your brains out?" A blow from the stick did hit witness on the shoulder, and he then wrenched the stick from the doctor and closed with him. They wrestled for some time, and he threw the doctor on the floor. The doctor, believing himself with the heavy stick, with the result that he was black and blue for a fortnight. Witness punched the doctor's head as hard as he could.

As the doctor went out of the house witness's daughter ran after the doctor, and witness heard her say, "Come, Alice, come along with me," and the girl followed him. From then until now he had not seen her except in the police court, and on the day when witness called at the doctor's house he heard her call out, "Shut the door, they have the law," and the door was shut and locked.

Amie Bourne, a married daughter of Mr. Jones, said the doctor told her Alice had attracted him, that she was a nice girl, and that he would like to marry her. Witness was astonished. Next day she told him she thought Alice was too young, and that Alice would say whatever the doctor asked her to because she thought Alice was afraid of him.

In a later interview the doctor said he would leave the child alone, and that he felt himself a brute for bothering with the child. After that he said when asked to wait until the girl was twenty-one, that he could not afford to wait.

Mrs. Bourne said she once heard Alice say, "I promised last night to stick to the doctor, and I will." "OF COURSE HE MADE LOVE!" Sarah Marian Dickin, Whitechurch road, gave evidence that the doctor took her to her home, and that the doctor was very kind to her. She said she was not always happy at home.

The girl said her father forbade her speaking to the doctor, but she did go to his rooms.

Counsel—He was making love to you?—Of course he was.

The doctor, said Miss Jones, did not always keep her.

Alice Jones then entered the witness box. She was a young girl, dressed in brown, and looked an attractive girl of eighteen or twenty years.

Questioned by Dr. Weir, she denied that there had been any misconduct between them, and said that it was her father who had put about that report.

Her father had said that the doctor would have her for £20. She was not always happy at home.

The Judge—Very few of us are. The girl said her father forbade her speaking to the doctor, but she did go to his rooms.

Counsel—He was making love to you?—Of course he was.

The doctor, said Miss Jones, did not always keep her.

Alice Jones then entered the witness box. She was a young girl, dressed in brown, and looked an attractive girl of eighteen or twenty years.

Questioned by Dr. Weir, she denied that there had been any misconduct between them, and said that it was her father who had put about that report.

Her father had said that the doctor would have her for £20. She was not always happy at home.

The Judge—Very few of us are. The girl said her father forbade her speaking to the doctor, but she did go to his rooms.

Counsel—He was making love to you?—Of course he was.

The doctor, said Miss Jones, did not always keep her.

Alice Jones then entered the witness box. She was a young girl, dressed in brown, and looked an attractive girl of eighteen or twenty years.

Questioned by Dr. Weir, she denied that there had been any misconduct between them, and said that it was her father who had put about that report.

Her father had said that the doctor would have her for £20. She was not always happy at home.

The Judge—Very few of us are. The girl said her father forbade her speaking to the doctor, but she did go to his rooms.

Counsel—He was making love to you?—Of course he was.

The doctor, said Miss Jones, did not always keep her.

Alice Jones then entered the witness box. She was a young girl, dressed in brown, and looked an attractive girl of eighteen or twenty years.

Questioned by Dr. Weir, she denied that there had been any misconduct between them, and said that it was her father who had put about that report.

Her father had said that the doctor would have her for £20. She was not always happy at home.

The Judge—Very few of us are. The girl said her father forbade her speaking to the doctor, but she did go to his rooms.

Counsel—He was making love to you?—Of course he was.

The doctor, said Miss Jones, did not always keep her.

Alice Jones then entered the witness box. She was a young girl, dressed in brown, and looked an attractive girl of eighteen or twenty years.

Questioned by Dr. Weir, she denied that there had been any misconduct between them, and said that it was her father who had put about that report.

Her father had said that the doctor would have her for £20. She was not always happy at home.