Maggie Hammond. THE LACKOSSE MATCH

between the Junior Shamrocks and Crescents for 13 gold medals offered by the committee and the Labor Day Championship proved a very great attraction. The teams lined up as follows :-

Crescents-M. Breslin, W. Houston, J. Wallace, T. Blakely, A. Clapperton, W. Hinton, A. Hinton, W. Skelley, A. Fairbairn, W. Fairbairn, J. McAnulty and F. Moore. Thos. Fisher, Captain.

Junior Shamrocks-F. McKenna, J. Price, P. O'Brien, E. Johnson, C. Gaffney, E. Morninge, A. Lavery, J. White, J. O'Connor, J. O'Meara, C. Sturgord and O. O'Reilly. F. Maguire, Captain.

The umpires were Messrs, McKeown and Fred. Ulley, and the referee Mr. Wm. Snow.

The match from first to last was much in favor of the Crescents who played a magnificent game all through and ultimately succeeded in capturing the match by three goals to one.

By the time the match was over darkness had almost set in and the large crowd was gradually melting away. However a great many still hung around the dancing platforms and it was after eight o'clock before they had all dispersed and Labor Day was of the past.

Considering the number of holiday makers on the Exhibition grounds and the mixed national element of which the crowd was composed it was a remarkably orderly one, and scarcely anything occurred calling for the intervention of the police.

In the course of the afternoon a number of Japanese fire baloons were sent up from the grounds, greatly to the delight of the youngsters.

The following are the names of the Committee of Arrangements on whom devolved ourteous Secretary, Mr. P. J. Ryan, had ledges that he was knocked all to pieces

Although the committee had a counter attraction to contend against, in the shape of the Stonecutters' picnic, the receipts were large, and it is calculated the funds of the Central Trades and Labor Council will benefit considerably by the demonstration.

Man's Relation to his Country.

Not recognizing the fundamental distinction between a society which, having fighting for its chief business, makes sustentation subordinate, and a society which, having sustentation for its chief business, makes fighting subordinate, there are many who assume that a disciplinary policy appropriate to the first is appropriate to the last also. But the relations of the individual to the state are in two cases entirely different. was owned by his city, the Englishman is not in any appreciable degree owned by his L Lemay; 2, Miss Katie Fraser; 3, Miss nation, but in a very positive way owns great emergency be taken possession of and Quarter mile race—1, George Paris; 2, 8 made to help in defending his country, yet this contingency qualifies to but small ex-One hundred yards, presidents of labor tent the private possession of his body and organizations-1, M Martin; 2, P Duros the self directing of his actions.-Herbert Spencer, in Popular Science Monthly.
