PILES.

A Most Annoying and Distressing Ailment for Which There is Only One Guaranteed Cure.

Dr. Chase's Ointment.

Two Remarkable Cases.

If possible we should like every reader of this paper to look over the evidence—in grateful letters—which has collected in these offices for Dr. Chase's Ointment. Many of these letters described the most cruel and tormenting cases of piles imaginable. They tell of many treatments used in vain, and of the universal success of Dr. Chase's Ointment. No one could be skeptical after a perusal of these letters.

Since you cannot call and read the evidence we publish the testimonials of those whom you are most likely to know. Ask these men if what we claim for Dr. Chase's Ointment is not true, and do you suppose Dr. Chase's Ointment would be guaranteed to cure any case of piles if there was any chance of failure.

Mr. David Lockhart, a well known tanner of Hawshaw, N. B., states:—"I was a terrible sufferer with piles for over two years and was frequently compelled to give up work. Two boxes of Dr. Chase's Ointment made a perfect cure."

Mr. E. G. Langley, proprietor Central Hotel, Bridgetown, N. S., states:—"I was troubled with piles for two years. Had frequently to quit work as the itching tortured me so. Mine was a severe case but six boxes of Dr. Chase's Ointment made a perfect cure."

By its soothing, healing qualities, Dr. Chase's Ointment gives immediate relief to the terrible itching, and permanent cures blind, itching, bleeding or protruding piles. 60 cts. a box, at all dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

Another's favorite remedy for croup, bronchitis, cough or cold is Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine. Dr. Chase's Catarrh Cure radically cures Catarrh. Each 25 cents, at all dealers.

Even, owing to injuries received in a runaway, returned to Hillsboro yesterday fully recovered.

FREDERICTON.

[Fragments for sale in Fredericton by W. T. H. Pender and J. H. Barthelemy.]

Nov. 22.—The Hospital Aid entertainment in the city hall this evening was an unbounded success, every available seat being secured at an early date. The comic farce, "The Snowball" was well put on; Mr. Norton Taylor in his role as "Uncle John" was admirable and acted his part to perfection. Mr. W. H. Harrison, as Mr. Featherstone, did well and in his horror of the situation which he had unwittingly involved himself was especially good. Mr. Ralph Clark's make up as "Sanders" the butler, was well done. Mr. Chas. Allen as Mr. Pendergast and the lover of Miss Granger showed no want of practice in the role. Miss Frankie Tibbits took the part of Mrs. Featherstone, which she did her completely, her acting being much above the average, coupled with her magnificent costume and fine stage presence scored for her a complete success. Miss Carrie Winslow made a very sweet and pretty Edith Granger, and her change of costume was very pretty and effective. Miss Daisy Winslow as "Penelope" the housemaid, got everybody into trouble. Miss Tibbits and the Misses Winslow were all the recipients of beautiful bouquets of flowers which were handed over the footlights.

Too much praise cannot be given to the ladies and gentlemen who have been so indefatigable in their efforts to make the entertainment a success and the great pleasure it has given to all who attended, aside from the noble cause which the aid supports.

An especially fine programme of music was enjoyed, the selected orchestra gratuitously giving their services.

Drink Only Good Tea.

There's a reason for it. Cheap teas are not only favorites, and require more tea to the cup to produce any taste, but moreover, they are artificially flavored, and are sometimes most dangerous. A branded tea like Isley's Elephant Brand is safe, as its packers' business reputation is staked on its purity.

The Choristers.

There's a little band of singers Every evening comes and lingers Neath the window of my cottage in the trees, And with their voices make the air so sweet.

While the gathering night rejoices, And the leaves fall in the chorus with the breeze.

Then the twinkling stars come out To enjoy the merry sport, And the skylarks range themselves upon a log, And the fireflies furnish light.

And they sing their little songs— The Katydid, the cricket and the frog.

All the night I hear them singing, Through my head their tunes are ringing— Strains of music straight from Mother Nature's heart!

Now the katydid and cricket, From the cedar of yonder thicket, Then the croaking frog of yonder ditches part.

By and by the moon appears, As the midnight hour nears, And her smiles dispel the low'ring mist and fog: Then the mirth is at its height, And they sing the night— The Katydid, the cricket and the frog.

THINGS OF VALUE.

"Do you think she will marry him?" "Do you think he will ask her?"

We have no hesitation in saying that Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial is without doubt the best medicine ever introduced for dysentery, diarrhoea, cholera and all summer complaints, as they can use it promptly gives relief and never fails to effect a positive cure. Mothers should never be without a bottle when their children are teething.

"Space writes more mean things about women than ever at or he got married."

"It pleases his wife, he says. She is very jealous."

Pleasant as syrup; nothing equals it as a worm medicine; the name is Mother's Friend's Worm Exterminator. The greatest worm destroyer of the age.

"Some doctors say that incurable patients should be helped to die."

"But this would be all right if the doctors drew the line at the incurable ones only."

Give Holloway's Corn Cure a trial. It removed ten corns from one pair of feet without any pain. What it has done once it will do again.

"There is more kinship between poetry and science than one would think."

"That's a fact. Both of them seem to consist mainly in piling up a lot of phrases nobody can understand."

Skepticism.—This is unhappily an age of skepticism, but there is one point upon which persons acquainted with the subject agree, namely that Dr. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial is a medicine which can be relied upon to cure a cough, remove pain, heal sores of various kinds, and benefit any inflamed portion of the body to which it is applied.

Marie—I have just finished reading a long article by Mark Twain.

Mildred—Did you like it?

Marie—I enjoyed it greatly, and find that Twain is not far from the mark.

Suffer no More.—There are thousands who live miserable lives because dyspepsia dulls the facilities of the stomach, and the result is a state of depression. One way to dispel the vapors that beset the victims of this disorder is to order them a course of Farnell's Vegetable Pills, which are among the best vegetable pills known, being easy to take and are most efficacious in their action. A trial of them will prove this.

"Yes, I've heard him speak of sometimes, but I didn't know he was the richest man in the ward."

"I didn't say he was the richest. I said he was the happiest."

Recognized Regulator.—To bring the digestive organs into symmetrical working is the aim of physicians when they find a patient suffering from stomach irregularities, and for this purpose they can prescribe nothing better than Farnell's Vegetable Pills, which will be found pleasant medicine of surprising virtue in bringing the retroverted action into subjection and restoring them to normal action, in which condition they can perform their duties properly.

New York Millionaires.

Only a few people reading advertisements of bankers and brokers, saying that money could be made through speculation, realize that the richest men in America have commenced life in a humble way and have made their fortune through stock exchange speculations.

Men like Jay Gould who worked as a dry goods clerk in a small town at $10.00 a week up to his twentieth year, and commenced to operate with his small savings of $200.00 in Wall Street left at his death 10 millions of dollars; Russell Sage who worked at a grocery boy at $4.00 per week and whose present wealth is estimated at 100 millions of dollars is still operating the market, although 50 years of age, and so are thousands of others who are enjoying all the luxuries life can offer, which is due to their success in speculations.

To the shrewd speculator the same opportunities are open to-day as to others in the past. The small lot which can be bought and sold in 10 shares on 5% margin, making $50 dollars.

Anybody interested as to how speculations are conducted can get information and market letter free of charge upon application by letter to,
