Mrs. E. A. Smith, Carleton St., was hostess on Tuesday evening last at a social and literary function of more than ordinary interest. Her guests were the members of the executive of the Women's Canadian Club, numbering fully sixteen of our brightest and most representative women. They were invited by Mrs. Smith, who is the president of the club, to meet Miss Helen Leah Reed, the well known authoress. Miss Reed at the request of her hostess, spoke to the ladies in her easy cultured way of "The Boston Authors' Club" of which she is undoubtedly one of its most active members. Miss Reed stated that this club was limited to one hundred and fifty members and its object is to further literary purposes, and to promote social intercourse among the authors of Boston and vicinity. Miss Reed referred most touchingly to Julia Ward Howe, who until her death was president of the club, and she dwelt most interestingly on the personnel of the club and the works of such well known members as John Townsend Trowbridge, Joseph Peabody, William Lindsay, Ellen Douglas, Denis McCarthy, Basil King, Charlotte Porter and many others. It was very delightful to hear these well known authors spoken of in so familiar a way by one who goes in and out among them as intimately as Miss Reed. The literary atmosphere generated by the members of the Boston Authors' Club, was a very delightful and unique one as evidenced by the appreciation of the ladies who listened to Miss Reed with so much pleasure. At the request of Mrs. Smith and the ladies Miss Reed read some of her shorter poems, the "Victim" and "An Old Fashioned Grandma" giving much pleasure. Miss Reed's books are well known. "Miss Theodora," whose locale is in Boston, is a great favorite. The her "Dreadnaughts" for young people enjoy a steady popularity. At the close of so delightful a literary evening Mrs. John H. Thomson and Mrs. George F. Smith expressed their keen appreciation of the pleasure afforded them by Miss Reed's instructive and fascinating effort, and in conveying to Miss Reed the thanks of all present. Mrs. E. A. Smith also presented her with a bouquet of American beauty roses as a fragrant memory of the pleasure she had given her guests and herself. A delightful informal hour of social intercourse followed, during which a dainty supper was served. Mrs. George K. McLeod presided at the daintily appointed mahogany tea table bright with silver shaded candles and flowers.

Mr. Harold K. Clawson, accountant of the Canadian Permanent Mortgage Co., left for Regina on Friday. Mr. Clawson has many friends in the social as well as the sporting circles who regret his leaving St. John as he was a great favorite. Thursday night Mr. Clawson was tendered a dinner by a number of his friends at the Clifton House and presented with a costly travelling bag.

One of the prettiest at homes given for some time was Mrs. W. F. Roberts at her home Douglas avenue. Mr. Roberts was most tastefully decorated with spring flowers. Mrs. Roberts received her guests in a handsome gown of pale blue chiffon over blue silk, pearl trimmings. Mrs. T. B. Roberts (Portland, Oregon), received with her guests in a costume of Copenhagen blue chiffon over silk the same shade. The dining room was very artistically decorated, the table with its handsome appointments of silver and cut glass and from the chandelier red ribbons hung to the corners of the table forming a bell. The flowers were red. Mrs. William Christie and Mrs. Malvin poured tea and coffee. Mrs. Colby Smith served the sweets. Those assisting in the dining room were Mrs. F. E. Stowelling, Mrs. C. D. Malcolm, Mrs. H. D. Fritz, Mrs. Chester Brown, Mrs. Harold H. Unham, Mrs. A. H. Baskin, Mrs. Stanley Webb and Miss Nobles. A large number of guests were present.

The induction of Dr. MacVicar to St. Andrew's church of this city took place on the evening of Mar. 25th. After the induction a reception will be tendered the new pastor and his wife by the ladies of that church.

Mrs. J. B. Snowball and Miss Snowball, Chatham, have gone to New York and Atlantic City where they will remain for two months. Mrs. Snowball and her daughter have many friends in St. John.

Mrs. H. Fielding Rankine was hostess at a delightful afternoon tea on Friday. Mrs. Rankine received her guests in the drawing room which was beautifully decorated with spring flowers. In the dining room Mrs. Frank Peters and Mrs. George Fleming presided over the tea table which was artistically indeed, the centre piece was a silver candelabra, and cut glass vases containing red flowers. Directly over the centre of the table was hung a pretty fancy basket filled with daffodils. Mrs. Allen Rankine conducted the guests to the dining room. Mrs. Haycock served the ice. Mrs. Norman Sanction, Mrs. Stanley Elkin, Mrs. Gordon Sanction, Mrs. Hedleigh Sheridan, Mrs. Bert Cowan and Mrs. Roy Skinner assisted in the dining room. Among the guests were Mrs. Russell Sturges, Mrs. C. S. Hanington, Mrs. W. McL. Angus, Miss McLean, Mrs. W. H. Harrison, Mrs. W. A. Lockhart, Mrs. George Hilyard, Miss Frances Hazen, Miss Travers, Mrs. Walter Gilbert, Miss McInerney, Mrs. Robert Johnston, Mrs. Ernest Sewell, Mrs. Randall, Mrs. Arthur Bowman, Mrs. Harry Schofield, Miss Margaret McAvity, Miss Ethel McAvity, Mrs. R. lis, Misses Addy, Mrs. J. U. Thomas, Mrs. McIntyre, and others.

In the badminton tournament last Saturday, semi-finals, Mrs. Walter Harrison and Miss Nora Robinson defeated Mrs. Percy Thomson and Miss Frances Hazen. Tea was served by Mrs. William Vassie, Miss Nora Robinson and Miss Nettie Bridges. The finals will be played today between Mrs. Walter Harrison and Miss Nora Robinson against Mrs. George K. McLeod and Mrs. Roy Thomson.

Mrs. Theed will leave for her home in Summerland, B. C., on Saturday, March 23rd.

Mrs. Reginald Randall leaves for Toronto Sunday night where she will join her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Randall intend visiting Montreal for a few weeks before returning to their home, Fort George.

These two 5c. packages, FREE

(Offer closes on April 13th)

Mrs. Edwards (who is really a famous trademark) has just brought Edwards' desiccated Soup from Ireland. She's "Getting on fine." "Edwards' Soup," she says, "is a favourite with Canadian housewives already." And no wonder.

Here is a real "home-made" soup—made for you. Everything that is a trouble to do is done before you buy. You simply pop the soup into water, boil for half an hour, and it's ready to serve. Such a soup, too.

A soup that you're eager to begin and sorry to finish; a soup that warms you through and through; a soup that will give your husband such an appetite that it will make you hungry to see him eat.

Edwards' Soup is also an excellent addition to your own soups. It adds strength when they're weak, flavour when they're watery and colour when they're thin. Read below about the special sample offer.

5c. per packet.

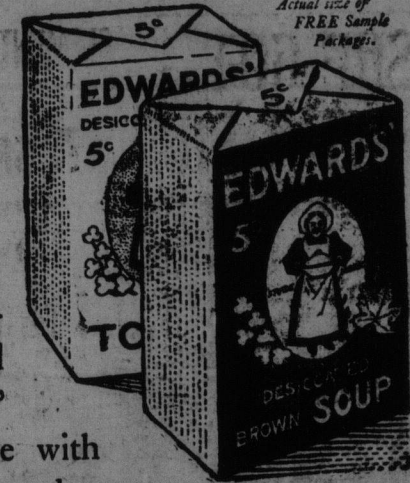

"Remember my face—'you'll see me again'!"
Made in three varieties, Brown, Tomato, White. The Brown variety is a thick, nourishing soup, prepared from the best beef and fresh vegetables. The other two are purely vegetable soups.

For a few days more Mrs. Edwards is keeping open her FREE introductory offer of two full-sized 5c. packages of Edwards' Soup—one each of the Brown and Tomato varieties. Each package will make a pint of thick, nourishing soup, sufficient for two people. Sign and send the coupon, together with 5 cents in stamps to cover postage and packing, and we will forward the sample packages by the earliest post.

Offer closes on April 13.
