UNITED BAPTISTS IN CONVENTION AT WOODSTOCK HEAR REPORTS FROM MISSION FIELDS

Resolution Presented for Amalgamation of the Work in Nova Scotia, P. E. I. and New Brunswick Under One Head—Great Interest in Forward Movement.

Woodstock, Oct. 18.—The report on obituary was presented by the Rev.
F. H. Beale, Lawrenceville, N. S., special reference was made to the large losses through the influenza epidemic.
Tender reference was made to Rev.
B. Kempton, D. D., Rev. Isaiah W.
Carpenter, Rev. J. W. Weeks, Rev. Joseph E. Wilson, Rev. H. Percy Everett, Rev. W. P. Porter, Rev. Fletcher D. Jordan, L. C. A. B. Morgan, Mrs. H.
M. N. Armstrong, Mrs. Maria Samuels, Mrs. A. L. Telford, and Mrs.
Augusta Keith.
The retiring president, Rev. C. R.
Freeman, delivered his address speaking of the opportunity of the churches to participate in the inter-church forward movement. He thought there should be a definition of the relation to the Y. M. C. A. Our pastorless churches should be better looked after.
This call for more men for the ministry even though salaries are small, he declared the greatest need of our day is a mighty revival of religion which takes hold of the whole man so that his religion will take hold of every ill in society today. The unchangeable principles grip men as firmly as ever it has. There are men who understand the sacrifice of Jesus as they did not before the war. We may not need organic church union but we do need a spiritual union. We must teach the great principles of our denomination. We have the broadest basal principles of any church in existence. We must train our people into loyalty to these principles.

Home Missions.

The first matter before the United Baptist Convention this evening was a statement made by Dr. David Hutchinson regarding the loss of the Oromocto church by fire. He stated that the Home Mission Board would stand by Rev. R. S. Gregg in his work in Oromocto. The board also recommended the churches to take an offering on the second Sunday in November to aid the Oromocto church in rebuilding.
The Rev. M. A. McNeil spoke on the home missions in New Brunswick, stating that the N. B. Board was supporting over 97 churches with 167 preaching places to the care of the H. M. Board of the convention. He also stated that there are many other places to be entered. He pleaded for good parsonages in which mission pastors may live. The H. M. churches are the places where the most of our pastors start their work. It is from these churches that many of our most effective workers come. The large returns from some home mission fields shows the importance of maintaining this work. The work to which we invite men is the most inspiring work in all the world. The greatest task on earth is going out to win men to Jesus Christ. Our home mission superintendent offers men of means a big opportunity for investment, and many have grasped it in their offerings.
Rev. E. L. Huddleston, of Halifax, continued speaking of the home mission life. It is found in the little groups who meet in worship in Budapest. There is also the problem of penitentiaries among some of them.
Sometimes there is the problem of the misfit minister, and very often the problem of the underpaid minister.
Mr. Huddleston also paid a tribute to the worth of the men who have worked with him on the Home Mission Board and to the worth and service of the superintendent, Rev. E. S.
Mason. There are 30 pastorless fields in the Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island constituency, hence the great need for consecrated men. We must not seek these men by lowering the standard for ordination. We must have trained men and stand behind them financially. We must stand by these men in sympathy. The H. M. pastors should be brought together once a year to compare notes and to get instruction for their work.

The gifts, exclusive of legacy and large gifts, was $102,000, grand total $117,399.89. The goal for educational effort seems within reach.
The work of social service is developing in our churches and now needs a definite programme.
The committee recommended co-operation with other communities in the inter church Forward Movement.
Sunday's Programme.

October 19, Sunday, was a high day at the United Baptist convention meeting in this town. Multitudes thronged the church at all the services. At 10 o'clock Rev. David Hutchinson, D.D., conducted a devotional hour, speaking of Christ and Peace. This service was followed by public worship with the preaching of the convention sermon by the Rev. L. H. Crandall, of Hantsport, N. S. This service was conducted by the President, Rev. W. Camp, assisted by the vice-presidents, Rev.
A. T. Dykeman and I. A. Corbett and by the Rev. J. W. Manning. The music, led by the choir of the entertaining church. Before the sermon Rev. A. Colborn, D.D., spoke touchingly of Rev. Joseph Webb, word of whose death had just reached the convention. Mr. Webb died in Halifax following a surgical operation. He had worked wholly in rural districts and had been unusually successful as a soul winner.
The Rev. L. H. Crandall spoke as his text Rom. 1, 16. He spoke of the Bible as a book of limitless horizon.
Jesus had a world purpose. He said unrest is rife among the most of Christian nations of today. This constitutes the churches' call to conquest and opportunity. There is the call for the preaching of the Gospel of reconciliation. This alone will lay the foundation for the needed reconstruction. The call comes to us to apply the Gospel to all the relations of life. We stand related to other individuals. This relation must all be made Christian. The Gospel is an individual matter, but it radiates the love of God in Jesus Christ.
The church needs to be Christianized in order to radiate Christ. The time has come when we need a closer Christ and to lives of devoted service.

The teacher must know the pupil he teaches. He must know the needs of the child at every stage of his unfolding life. He must know the true methods of teaching. He should know the tremendous evangelistic opportunity that confronts him fifty-two Sundays of the year.

Rev. Frank G. Erb, Ph. D., editor of the Young People's Publications of the American Baptist Publication Society, was the next speaker. Dr. Erb expressed his delight in being in a Canadian assembly, and his pride in being a Canadian. He spoke of young people's work. He said we get out of this work what we put in. We must put into it a plan. Have a programme for a year. This should include worship study, service and recreation. Have short courses of study in the Bible in missions, in community service let this study issue in definite service. The passion for fun must be reckoned with, therefore we must meet this with healthy recreation. We must not expect people to want to come into a spiritual refrigerator. The summer should be the best time of the year for extension effort.

Rev. W. C. Macpherson, field secretary for religious education, then spoke briefly asking co-operation in his work.

City and Farm Equally Benefit

The man in the city and the man on the farm is each concerned with the other's prosperity, and each has equally strong personal reasons for supporting the Victory Loan 1919.

Last year Canada shipped to Great Britain and our European Allies $496,932,191 worth of the products of our farms.

The future of Canadian Agriculture depends upon holding and extending its export trade in farm products, and the future of city and town prosperity is interwoven with agricultural prosperity.

Great Britain and our European Allies provide a ready market. But as a result of the strain of war, they are short of cash. They must buy on credit for a time.

The British market particularly, we must not—dare not—lose, because we have spent many long years in cultivating it, and establishing a prestige there for Canadian products.

Great Britain asks for a credit to buy our surplus food stuffs, and Britain always pays her debts. Our ability to extend this credit depends upon the success of the Victory Loan 1919.

Just think what it means to all of us to keep Canadian agriculture prosperous.

Canadian farmers form a large porportion of the buyers of Canada's manufactured products, resulting in trade for the manufacturer and retailer, and employment for the man in city and town.

With the money from the sale of his products the farmer buys agricultural implements, gasoline engines, tractors, wagons, seed, wire fences, fertilizers, milk cans, building material, roofing, furniture, carpets, furnishings, stoves, clothing, boots and shoes, groceries, drugs, pianos, talking machines, automobiles, papers, and scores of other things.

The city and town man makes these goods, and his wages are spent in his local stores, so that starting with the farmer the chain of trade travels through every class of the community.

The city again furnishes a home market for the farmers. Our cities have been built by our farmers—by those farm boys who have developed genius in organization, business and finance, and who do not have to leave Canada to find a field for their activities. The farm and city are interdependent the one upon the other. Canada requires both, and both prosperous.

Then upon both the man in the city and the man on the farm there rests a direct responsibility. Both must shoulder it and unite in making an overwhelming success of the of the Dominion of Canada.
