Majority for A O H, 111. The McDonald All-star Minstrels are billed to play here on Monday, 30th, in Graham's Opera House. The company come here from Fredricton, and are well recommended.

ST. STEPHEN. ST. STEPHEN, Jan 26—The Caisla Advertiser, one of the oldest weekly papers in the east, has changed hands, after having been owned by the late John Jackson and since his lamented death ably managed by his daughter. Fifty-seven years ago the late Mr. Jackson acquired the ownership of this paper and we believe in that long period the Advertiser never missed an issue. The present editor, Mr. A C V Smythe has been working on the paper for the past five years and is a practical as well as a first class newspaper man. Mr. Smythe is a native of Chatham, N B, where his relations now reside. We wish him success in his new venture.

BRISTOL. BRISTOL, Jan 28—Mrs G A Brittain returned home yesterday from Iowa, where she had been for about a year. Rev A H Hayward and J W S Young have been holding special meetings in the hall for about a fortnight, with good success. On Thursday Mr Young was called to Benton to preach a funeral sermon.

HARTLAND. HARTLAND, Jan 27—The Hartland Bridge Company has at last been formed, and will apply to the next session of the legislature for incorporation. They expect to begin work at an early date, after the act passes the house.

MILLTOWN. MILLTOWN, N B, Jan 26—Splendid roads hereabouts. Great activity in hauling lumber, cordwood, etc. Lumbermen report an excellent winter for their work.

are meeting their friends in their vestry tonight with a supper. The influenza epidemic has been, and is, here. Many have been seriously ill on account of it. Mr Casey, postmaster, has been absent from his office for some days, but is recovering slowly.

QUEENS CO. BELVEA'S COVE. BELVEA'S COVE, Jan 25—The school here commenced again on the 19th, having been fortunate enough to secure the services of Miss Sate Giehrst for another term. She has been teaching here nearly three years, and there has been a marked advancement in the progress of the school since it has been under her care.

YORK CO. FREDERICTON. FREDERICTON, Jan 27—The government finished its meeting today and several members went to St. John. Evangelist Martin, who has been addressing successful revival meetings at St. John, will open an engagement here next Monday evening. Meetings will also be held by Mr Martin each afternoon and evening next week, the hour and place of meeting to be announced later.

MCDONALD'S POINT. MCDONALD'S POINT, Jan 23—The councillor of the parish of Wickham attended the session at Gagetown. They returned home today. Miss Matilda Oils left yesterday for the city to visit her sister, who is very low.

ST. ANDREWS. ST. ANDREWS, Jan 30—Rev A W Mahon is quite ill, suffering from a cold, and was unable to conduct the services in Greenwood church yesterday.

KINGS CO. SUSSEX. SUSSEX, Jan. 27—Andrew Miller of our district opened on the 9th inst with A J Jensen as teacher.

VICTORIA CO. SALMONHURST. SALMONHURST, Jan 26—The school in our district opened on the 9th inst with A J Jensen as teacher.

WESTMORLAND. MONTON. MONTON, Jan 30—The Merchants' Bank of Halifax staff in this city occupied their new quarters for the first time this morning. The new building ranks with the most handsome buildings in the city, and for modern finish is probably superior to any. The bank's new quarters on the first floor are elaborate indeed, and are not excelled by any bank perhaps in the province.

few brought. The prosecutor appears to have the restriction of illegal whiskey selling well in hand. Some slight stir has been caused in civic circles on account of the payment of a $50 Scott act fine recently by D Hogan under protest. Mr Hogan takes as the ground for his protest that the warrant of commitment which was served upon him, was signed by the police court clerk and not by the magistrate himself. In other words the clerk simply signs the magistrate's name to the papers. The police clerk, W A McDougall, has denied this allegation and charges the Scott Act prosecutor, Alfred De Vries, with starting the report. The question is now whether there is any ground for Mr Hogan's protest. It has been shown that the warrant was signed by the clerk instead of the magistrate's ruling, the city has a legal complication at once. In the meantime the matter is in abeyance.

SACKVILLE. SACKVILLE, Jan 27—The De Verne Sisters gave an entertainment in Beethoven Hall last night, to a good audience. They acquitted themselves admirably and were encored repeatedly.

season will be held at the Alhambra rink on Tuesday evening next, the 31st inst. This has been a remarkable winter here for deaths of old and respected citizens in a very short time the high sheriff, postmaster and judge of probates have passed away, and also several other prominent citizens. This morning three more funerals took place of persons whose late residence was quite handy to the town proper, viz, Robert Gripps, of Valley road, aged 70 years; Lake Burke of McCain Settlement, aged 80 years, and Mrs. Julia Torney, of Millstream, aged 84 years.

We do not advertise every bargain we have—that's the reason we are continually asking you to take time to look.

If you come here in a hurry and rush away because the first garment we show you doesn't suit, you are wasting time in coming here at all.

We have what you want and it only requires a little patience on your part to reap the reward of careful consideration.

But we are speaking of the rare cases—most everybody does take time to look, and does go away satisfied.

MEN'S ULSTERS—We still have plenty at all four prices $4.00, $4.50, $5.00 and $6.00. The $4.00 Ulster is as good as $6.00 will buy in any other store, and the higher priced ones are at least two or three dollars cheaper than you possibly buy the same quality for elsewhere.

MEN'S OVERCOATS—$5.00, $6.00, $8.00—three handy prices, three good garments. The writer can remember when $5 would not buy much of an overcoat. But now $5 does they duty of $8 at least and some times $10 here.

BOYS' SUITS for boys 10 to 15 years—coat, vest and short trousers. A table full two weeks ago is only half a table now, but we have all sizes still and no one need go away disappointed—$4 and $5 suits for $3.

OPPOSITION MEETING. Hazen and Hetherington at Chipman.

CHIPMAN, June 30—According to public announcement J D Hazen, accompanied by H B Hetherington of Johnston, arrived in the village last Tuesday to address the electors of Chipman on the burning questions of local politics.

They proceeded to the hall at Salmos Creek, where a very small house greeted the orators, who found it difficult to address so small an audience, consisting of some twenty voters on both sides of politics and a dozen small boys, besides a young lady, making it rather awkward for the speakers to use the ordinary introduction of "Ladies and gentlemen" as a preface to their remarks. Mr Hazen monopolized most of the evening in abusing the government, and Mr Hetherington tried to play the audience with funny anecdotes, which failed even to amuse or edify the more intelligent of his hearers.

I wash my child's head every week with warm water and CUTICURA SOAP, and rub in a little CUTICURA Ointment. Her hair is fine, thick, and very long, reaching below her waist when standing erect. Mrs. C. GRAHAM, 1027 No. California Ave., Chicago, Ill.
