

FROM ALL OVER THE MARITIME PROVINCES

NORTH HEAD

North Head, Sept. 25.—Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Cleveland, who have been spending the summer months in their cottage at North Head, left last week for Gagetown, where they will spend the winter.

Mrs. Nera Page, who has been visiting relatives and friends in North Head, returned to her home in Caribou (Me.) last week.

Mrs. Laura Leonard, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Boynton, of Castalia, returned to her home in Eastport last Wednesday.

Charles Dixon, collector of customs at North Head, left here last Wednesday for Boston, where he will visit relatives and friends.

Miss Lulu Fleet and her sister, Mrs. Otis Urquhart, returned to their homes in Castalia last week, after a visit of a few days in Lubec (Me.).

Arthur Wilson, who has been employed in Boston for the past three years, is visiting his home in Seal Cove.

Harry Waters left here last Friday morning, after a short visit to his home at North Head. Mr. Waters is employed on the steamer Governor Cobb.

Mrs. Albert Ellingwood and daughter, of St. John, left for their home last Friday after spending a week at North Head, guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Y. Daltiel.

Edward Johnston, who has been employed in Campbellville during the summer months, has returned to his home at North Head.

Miss Oza Naves left here last Wednesday for Lubec (Me.), where she has employment.

Miss Gracie Daltiel, of Campbellville, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Daltiel, at Seal Cove.

Owen Flagg, of Boston, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elisha Flagg, of Castalia.

Mrs. George E. Daltiel accompanied by her daughter, Tillie, and son, Lawrence, returned to their home on Saturday after spending a few days at Bay Side.

Mrs. Hannah Haines and grand-daughter, Lois, of Haverhill, arrived here last Thursday and will visit Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Middleton, of Castalia.

The sardine boat Tablanc, owned by parties in Eastport, is ashore near Broadford's Cove in the thick fog which prevailed last Monday night. The hull is a total loss. The engines were saved.

Mrs. Chas. Daltiel, of Lubec (Me.), is visiting relatives and friends at Castalia.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Robinson, who have been spending a few days in St. Stephen, returned to their home last Saturday.

The schooner Telephone, Captain Alfred Stanley, left here last week with a cargo of dried hake for Annapolis (N. S.).

The hake fishing season is now drawing to a close. Very few fishermen are engaged in this branch of fishing now as the quantity caught barely meets the expenses incurred. The hake for the season as a whole has been exceptionally good. The fishermen are now making preparations for lobster fishing during the winter months. Herring continue in abundance, with good prospects of a ready market when cured.

FREDERICTON

Fredericton, Sept. 28.—(Special).—David Campbell, of Gibson, received injuries, when his horse ran away on the Fredericton-St. Mary's highway bridge this afternoon, which resulted in his death about two hours later. He was taking part of an exhibit from the Fredericton exhibition on a sloven wagon. A chair fell from the load and struck the horse which started suddenly. No person saw exactly how the driver was injured. Campbell had three ribs broken and received fatal internal injuries. A widow survives.

The ladies committee on organization for recruiting met this afternoon at the home of the Countess of Ashburnham. The countess, Mrs. J. A. Ashburnham, continues as honorary president.

Michael McDade took the place of Major P. P. Day, who has joined his corps at Aldershot (N. S.), and offered some suggestions in regard to organizing a campaign in York county. Addresses were given by Mrs. Havelock Coy, the president; Mrs. W. C. Crockett; Mrs. John Black; Miss Beryl and Mrs. O. S. Crockett.

Mrs. H. F. McLeod intends to join her husband, Lieut.-Col. McLeod, in England next month and will address recruiting meetings at her earliest convenience.

Meetings for women only are to be held at Meductic and Pokoke this week and at Margerville, Stanley, Butter, Corner and Millville next week. The co-operation of the Women's Volunteer Reserve and of the clergymen of the county of York are requested to assist this recruiting campaign.

YARMOUTH

Yarmouth, N. S., Sept. 28.—The death occurred on Thursday morning at Kelley's Cove, of Edgar A. LeCain, aged 80 years. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. LeCain, and his daughter, Mrs. LeCain, who is married to Mr. LeCain. The funeral will be held tomorrow at 9 a.m.

Invitations have been issued for the marriage of Miss Jean Weldon Currier to Charles Warren Lathier. The ceremony will take place on Monday evening, September 27, at the Bay's Memorial Chapel, Salesville (R. L.). The bride-to-be has a large number of friends in Yarmouth who will wish her every happiness.

S. Brackets, formerly ticket agent of the H. & S. W. railway, at Bridgewater, has been transferred to Shelburne, taking the place of the late Mr. McLean.

Postmaster Stoneman has leased the residence of L. B. Wyman, corner Wilson, Windsor, Ont.

A WOMAN'S MESSAGE TO WOMEN.

If you are troubled with weak, tired feelings, headache, backache, bearing down sensations, bladder weakness, constipation, external conditions, pain in the sides regularly or irregularly, bloating or unnatural enlargements, sense of falling or misplacement of internal organs, nervousness, desire to cry, palpitation, hot flashes, dark rings under the eyes, or a loss of interest in life, I invite you to write and ask for my simple method of home treatment, with ten days' trial entirely free and postpaid, also references to Canadian ladies who gladly tell how they have regained health, strength, and happiness by this method. Write to-day.

Address: Mrs. M. Summers, Box 70, Windsor, Ont.

LOW AND ALMA STREETS

low and Alma streets, and will take possession in a few weeks.

W. Clive Crosby, an assemblyman in East Orange (N. J.), arrived here on Saturday morning last, with a handsome Cole roadster, and is the guest of his mother, Mrs. M. Hanks Crosby.

Mrs. R. W. E. Landry, children and maid have returned from Bedford, where they have been visiting Mrs. Landry's father, Frank Roman.

Miss Winnie Patten, Yarmouth, is spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Fulton.

Friends of Rev. Dr. W. E. McIntyre heard with regret of his serious illness at his home in St. John. Dr. McIntyre is well known throughout the province and news of his recovery will be anxiously looked for by all.

Miss Nellie Orchard left today for St. John, where she will visit relatives for a few weeks.

Frank Holly and party, of St. John, left by auto this week on a hunting trip several miles above Chipman.

About nineteen recruits left from here this week, a number from Minto and several from Chipman and vicinity.

Rev. Wm. Field, who attended the Baptist Association in Hillsboro, returned home on Saturday.

Mrs. Percy Graham and Miss Lou Smith were in Andover on Sunday, having motored up from Hartland.

Miss Jennie Watson returned on Saturday from Fredericton, where she was visiting friends during the past week.

Mrs. T. L. May and Miss May Malory are visiting Mrs. Malory's sister, Mrs. G. L. Brown, of Carleton Place.

Friends of David Watson will be glad to hear that he is improving after his recent critical operation at Woodstock hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Ponds, of New York, who spent part of last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Waite, left here on Thursday. Considerable excitement occurred when the local authorities received word to detain Mr. and Mrs. Ponds, who were suspected of being German spies. An investigation was held, which proved satisfactory to the officials and the couple were released.

Corporal Spurgeon Tompkins, who was visiting his parents in Perth, returned to Valcartier on Saturday.

Mr. Dexter Sadler, of Maple View, is visiting his daughter, Mrs. George O. Baird.

Mrs. B. B. Wiley, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Dismore, of Houlton, for the past three weeks, returned today.

James E. Porter, Jr., leaves today for Fredericton to resume his studies at the university.

Mrs. Charles Henderson, of St. Stephen, and Hubert Henderson are week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Alcorn.

Mrs. Henderson recently resigned his position as manager of the Royal Bank, Rawdon (Que.), and expects soon to go to Halifax for military training.

Mrs. Dickson and Miss Emily Dickson, of Chatham, who have been the guests of Dr. and Mrs. J. W. P. Dickson, are returning to their home in St. John today, accompanied by Mrs. Ward.

HOPEWELL HILL.

Hopewell Hill, Sept. 26.—Friends in this county learned with profound sorrow and regret of the death, as announced, of Mrs. M. B. Dixon, of Riverside, which took place recently at Dawson, Yukon, after an operation for appendicitis. The sad news reached Mrs. Dixon at St. John as she and Mr. Dixon were on their way home after a trip to St. John and Fredericton. The sympathy of all will be extended to the bereaved relatives, particularly to the deceased lady's mother, who is almost prostrated by the shock of her daughter's sudden demise. Miss Hilton-Green made her home at Riverside since Mr. and Mrs. Dixon took up their residence there several years ago, and her amiable disposition and gentle and earnest Christian character won friends everywhere throughout the community.

While a Riverside ship was en route to St. Alban's Anglican church and was always devoted to the interests of the church. A few years ago Miss Hilton-Green visited the old country, spending a year and a half with her father's and mother's relatives in England and Ireland. It was only a few months ago that she went to Dawson, Yukon, to make a lengthy visit to her uncle, John Black, formerly of Fredericton. On all sides are heard expressions of the deep and regretful sympathy over her early and sudden death.

Alex. Rogers returned last night from a trip to St. John, Fredericton and Woodstock.

Two valuable cows belonging to Miles E. Tingley died yesterday as a result, it is supposed, of over-feeding on rich after-growth. They were new milch cows and the two would be worth $100.

A valuable young horse owned by Theo. F. Dixon, of Lower Cape, died last week of colic. This is the second horse Mr. Dixon has lost within a few months.

Rev. W. B. Crowley, of Harvey, preached acceptably to the Baptist congregation on the Hopewell field today in the absence of the pastor, Rev. H. E. De Wolf. Mr. Crowley was back from his vacation by next Sunday.

Hon. A. R. McClean and Mrs. McClean returned on Saturday from a trip to St. John.

Hopewell Hill, Sept. 26.—Somewhat contrary to expectation, Albert county will see municipal contests at the coming elections next week, in some of the parishes at least. The time for receiving nominations expired last night. The parish of Hopewell has four men in the field, as follows: W. J. Garraway and C. Macleay, Presbyterians; and H. D. Cleveland, and H. J. Christopher, of Hopewell Cape, Conservatives. Two years ago the Liberal candidates, Messrs. Garraway and Pyle, were opposed by L. C. Prescott, one of the home-bred Conservatives of Albert, and Capt. Ronald V. Bennett, who was heralded by the Standard as a "man of wealth." Partisan ran high and the Conservative candidates, in spite of the influence of the local members, went down to defeat. They are doubtless remembered to this overthrow—at any rate they are not in the field this year, two other gentlemen allowing themselves to be offered up.

Miss Annie R. Peck went to St. John today to attend the Esley-Crisp wedding.

Mrs. Alfred Woodworth is visiting relatives at Allison, Westmorland county. There has been quite a general feeling throughout the county that, on account of recent conditions in the former councillors in each parish be allowed to go to the polls by acclamation, and in several parishes this idea was carried out. The council was evenly divided politically—

ANDOVER.

Andover, N. B., Sept. 27.—Mrs. J. Allen Perley, who was visiting friends in St. John and New Glasgow for several weeks, returned home on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Hanson and son, Paul, returned yesterday from a visit with friends in St. Stephen.

Mr. and Mrs. George Armstrong, accompanied by Mrs. Thomas Allen, motored to Nictau on Tuesday.

Mrs. Ferris, who has been the guest of Mrs. A. C. Bell, returned to her home in Queens today on Monday.

Mrs. John Bedford and daughter, Annie, went to Fredericton on Monday to attend the exhibition.

Miss Hattie Day, of St. John, is visiting her cousin, Mrs. A. Herbert Baird.

Mr. Stevenson left on Tuesday for a hunting trip on the headwaters of the Tobique.

George Bedell attended the Fredericton exhibition last week.

Garnet Birmingham, with a party of sportsmen, is in the Island, motored to Woodstock on Sunday.

Miss Willa Hunter, of St. John, is the guest of Miss Gertrude Kilburn.

Miss Sarah Watson spent the week-end at Port Fairfield, the guest of her sister, Mrs. Ellen Hopkins.

Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Hefferman, Mrs. Lane and Mr. Browning motored to Fredericton on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Edwards are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a son, Dr. King's first child, to his old home in Queens today on Monday.

Miss Grace Porter has been visiting friends at Aroostook Junction during the past week.

Rev. W. A. Ross, secretary of the N. B. Sunday School Association, held a meeting in the Methodist church on Thursday evening. While in Andover Mr. Ross was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Curry.

Rev. A. C. Bell and family motored

many friends during her short stay, all of whom will regret to hear of her departure.

George Orchard, of Fredericton, spent a few days of this week with friends in the village.

Roy Mitchell and P. A. Crawford, who were away with a party on a hunting trip, returned to their home in St. John today.

Frank Taylor, of Halifax, is in town for a few days, a guest at the Chipman House.

Miss Grace Hamilton, of Richibucto, is spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Fulton.

Friends of Rev. Dr. W. E. McIntyre heard with regret of his serious illness at his home in St. John. Dr. McIntyre is well known throughout the province and news of his recovery will be anxiously looked for by all.

Miss Nellie Orchard left today for St. John, where she will visit relatives for a few weeks.

Frank Holly and party, of St. John, left by auto this week on a hunting trip several miles above Chipman.

About nineteen recruits left from here this week, a number from Minto and several from Chipman and vicinity.

Rev. Wm. Field, who attended the Baptist Association in Hillsboro, returned home on Saturday.

Mrs. Percy Graham and Miss Lou Smith were in Andover on Sunday, having motored up from Hartland.

Miss Jennie Watson returned on Saturday from Fredericton, where she was visiting friends during the past week.

Mrs. T. L. May and Miss May Malory are visiting Mrs. Malory's sister, Mrs. G. L. Brown, of Carleton Place.

Friends of David Watson will be glad to hear that he is improving after his recent critical operation at Woodstock hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Ponds, of New York, who spent part of last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Waite, left here on Thursday. Considerable excitement occurred when the local authorities received word to detain Mr. and Mrs. Ponds, who were suspected of being German spies. An investigation was held, which proved satisfactory to the officials and the couple were released.

Corporal Spurgeon Tompkins, who was visiting his parents in Perth, returned to Valcartier on Saturday.

Mr. Dexter Sadler, of Maple View, is visiting his daughter, Mrs. George O. Baird.

Mrs. B. B. Wiley, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Dismore, of Houlton, for the past three weeks, returned today.

James E. Porter, Jr., leaves today for Fredericton to resume his studies at the university.

Mrs. Charles Henderson, of St. Stephen, and Hubert Henderson are week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Alcorn.

Mrs. Henderson recently resigned his position as manager of the Royal Bank, Rawdon (Que.), and expects soon to go to Halifax for military training.

Mrs. Dickson and Miss Emily Dickson, of Chatham, who have been the guests of Dr. and Mrs. J. W. P. Dickson, are returning to their home in St. John today, accompanied by Mrs. Ward.

HOPEWELL HILL.

Hopewell Hill, Sept. 26.—Friends in this county learned with profound sorrow and regret of the death, as announced, of Mrs. M. B. Dixon, of Riverside, which took place recently at Dawson, Yukon, after an operation for appendicitis. The sad news reached Mrs. Dixon at St. John as she and Mr. Dixon were on their way home after a trip to St. John and Fredericton. The sympathy of all will be extended to the bereaved relatives, particularly to the deceased lady's mother, who is almost prostrated by the shock of her daughter's sudden demise. Miss Hilton-Green made her home at Riverside since Mr. and Mrs. Dixon took up their residence there several years ago, and her amiable disposition and gentle and earnest Christian character won friends everywhere throughout the community.

While a Riverside ship was en route to St. Alban's Anglican church and was always devoted to the interests of the church. A few years ago Miss Hilton-Green visited the old country, spending a year and a half with her father's and mother's relatives in England and Ireland. It was only a few months ago that she went to Dawson, Yukon, to make a lengthy visit to her uncle, John Black, formerly of Fredericton. On all sides are heard expressions of the deep and regretful sympathy over her early and sudden death.

Alex. Rogers returned last night from a trip to St. John, Fredericton and Woodstock.

Two valuable cows belonging to Miles E. Tingley died yesterday as a result, it is supposed, of over-feeding on rich after-growth. They were new milch cows and the two would be worth $100.

A valuable young horse owned by Theo. F. Dixon, of Lower Cape, died last week of colic. This is the second horse Mr. Dixon has lost within a few months.

Rev. W. B. Crowley, of Harvey, preached acceptably to the Baptist congregation on the Hopewell field today in the absence of the pastor, Rev. H. E. De Wolf. Mr. Crowley was back from his vacation by next Sunday.

Hon. A. R. McClean and Mrs. McClean returned on Saturday from a trip to St. John.

HOPEWELL HILL.

Hopewell Hill, Sept. 26.—Somewhat contrary to expectation, Albert county will see municipal contests at the coming elections next week, in some of the parishes at least. The time for receiving nominations expired last night. The parish of Hopewell has four men in the field, as follows: W. J. Garraway and C. Macleay, Presbyterians; and H. D. Cleveland, and H. J. Christopher, of Hopewell Cape, Conservatives. Two years ago the Liberal candidates, Messrs. Garraway and Pyle, were opposed by L. C. Prescott, one of the home-bred Conservatives of Albert, and Capt. Ronald V. Bennett, who was heralded by the Standard as a "man of wealth." Partisan ran high and the Conservative candidates, in spite of the influence of the local members, went down to defeat. They are doubtless remembered to this overthrow—at any rate they are not in the field this year, two other gentlemen allowing themselves to be offered up.

Miss Annie R. Peck went to St. John today to attend the Esley-Crisp wedding.

Mrs. Alfred Woodworth is visiting relatives at Allison, Westmorland county. There has been quite a general feeling throughout the county that, on account of recent conditions in the former councillors in each parish be allowed to go to the polls by acclamation, and in several parishes this idea was carried out. The council was evenly divided politically—

ANDOVER.

Andover, N. B., Sept. 27.—Mrs. J. Allen Perley, who was visiting friends in St. John and New Glasgow for several weeks, returned home on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Hanson and son, Paul, returned yesterday from a visit with friends in St. Stephen.

Mr. and Mrs. George Armstrong, accompanied by Mrs. Thomas Allen, motored to Nictau on Tuesday.

Mrs. Ferris, who has been the guest of Mrs. A. C. Bell, returned to her home in Queens today on Monday.

Mrs. John Bedford and daughter, Annie, went to Fredericton on Monday to attend the exhibition.

Miss Hattie Day, of St. John, is visiting her cousin, Mrs. A. Herbert Baird.

Mr. Stevenson left on Tuesday for a hunting trip on the headwaters of the Tobique.

George Bedell attended the Fredericton exhibition last week.

Garnet Birmingham, with a party of sportsmen, is in the Island, motored to Woodstock on Sunday.

Miss Willa Hunter, of St. John, is the guest of Miss Gertrude Kilburn.

Miss Sarah Watson spent the week-end at Port Fairfield, the guest of her sister, Mrs. Ellen Hopkins.

Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Hefferman, Mrs. Lane and Mr. Browning motored to Fredericton on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Edwards are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a son, Dr. King's first child, to his old home in Queens today on Monday.

Miss Grace Porter has been visiting friends at Aroostook Junction during the past week.

Rev. W. A. Ross, secretary of the N. B. Sunday School Association, held a meeting in the Methodist church on Thursday evening. While in Andover Mr. Ross was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Curry.

Rev. A. C. Bell and family motored

many friends during her short stay, all of whom will regret to hear of her departure.

George Orchard, of Fredericton, spent a few days of this week with friends in the village.

Roy Mitchell and P. A. Crawford, who were away with a party on a hunting trip, returned to their home in St. John today.

Frank Taylor, of Halifax, is in town for a few days, a guest at the Chipman House.

Miss Grace Hamilton, of Richibucto, is spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Fulton.

Friends of Rev. Dr. W. E. McIntyre heard with regret of his serious illness at his home in St. John. Dr. McIntyre is well known throughout the province and news of his recovery will be anxiously looked for by all.

Miss Nellie Orchard left today for St. John, where she will visit relatives for a few weeks.

Frank Holly and party, of St. John, left by auto this week on a hunting trip several miles above Chipman.

About nineteen recruits left from here this week, a number from Minto and several from Chipman and vicinity.

Rev. Wm. Field, who attended the Baptist Association in Hillsboro, returned home on Saturday.

Mrs. Percy Graham and Miss Lou Smith were in Andover on Sunday, having motored up from Hartland.

Miss Jennie Watson returned on Saturday from Fredericton, where she was visiting friends during the past week.

Mrs. T. L. May and Miss May Malory are visiting Mrs. Malory's sister, Mrs. G. L. Brown, of Carleton Place.

Friends of David Watson will be glad to hear that he is improving after his recent critical operation at Woodstock hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Ponds, of New York, who spent part of last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Waite, left here on Thursday. Considerable excitement occurred when the local authorities received word to detain Mr. and Mrs. Ponds, who were suspected of being German spies. An investigation was held, which proved satisfactory to the officials and the couple were released.

Corporal Spurgeon Tompkins, who was visiting his parents in Perth, returned to Valcartier on Saturday.

Mr. Dexter Sadler, of Maple View, is visiting his daughter, Mrs. George O. Baird.

Mrs. B. B. Wiley, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Dismore, of Houlton, for the past three weeks, returned today.

James E. Porter, Jr., leaves today for Fredericton to resume his studies at the university.

Mrs. Charles Henderson, of St. Stephen, and Hubert Henderson are week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Alcorn.

Mrs. Henderson recently resigned his position as manager of the Royal Bank, Rawdon (Que.), and expects soon to go to Halifax for military training.

Mrs. Dickson and Miss Emily Dickson, of Chatham, who have been the guests of Dr. and Mrs. J. W. P. Dickson, are returning to their home in St. John today, accompanied by Mrs. Ward.

HOPEWELL HILL.

Hopewell Hill, Sept. 26.—Friends in this county learned with profound sorrow and regret of the death, as announced, of Mrs. M. B. Dixon, of Riverside, which took place recently at Dawson, Yukon, after an operation for appendicitis. The sad news reached Mrs. Dixon at St. John as she and Mr. Dixon were on their way home after a trip to St. John and Fredericton. The sympathy of all will be extended to the bereaved relatives, particularly to the deceased lady's mother, who is almost prostrated by the shock of her daughter's sudden demise. Miss Hilton-Green made her home at Riverside since Mr. and Mrs. Dixon took up their residence there several years ago, and her amiable disposition and gentle and earnest Christian character won friends everywhere throughout the community.

While a Riverside ship was en route to St. Alban's Anglican church and was always devoted to the interests of the church. A few years ago Miss Hilton-Green visited the old country, spending a year and a half with her father's and mother's relatives in England and Ireland. It was only a few months ago that she went to Dawson, Yukon, to make a lengthy visit to her uncle, John Black, formerly of Fredericton. On all sides are heard expressions of the deep and regretful sympathy over her early and sudden death.

Alex. Rogers returned last night from a trip to St. John, Fredericton and Woodstock.

Two valuable cows belonging to Miles E. Tingley died yesterday as a result, it is supposed, of over-feeding on rich after-growth. They were new milch cows and the two would be worth $100.

A valuable young horse owned by Theo. F. Dixon, of Lower Cape, died last week of colic. This is the second horse Mr. Dixon has lost within a few months.

Rev. W. B. Crowley, of Harvey, preached acceptably to the Baptist congregation on the Hopewell field today in the absence of the pastor, Rev. H. E. De Wolf. Mr. Crowley was back from his vacation by next Sunday.

Hon. A. R. McClean and Mrs. McClean returned on Saturday from a trip to St. John.

HOPEWELL HILL.

Hopewell Hill, Sept. 26.—Somewhat contrary to expectation, Albert county will see municipal contests at the coming elections next week, in some of the parishes at least. The time for receiving nominations expired last night. The parish of Hope