LXXXI. Whereas the sum of twenty pounds, Aug. 1, 1841. required by the rules of practice in England to be deposited on petitions of re-hearing, is unsuitable to the circumstances of this province, and it is expedient to .reduce the same; It is therefore ordered, that henceforth it shall be sufficient to deposit with the registrar of this court, on every petition of re-hearing, the sum of ten pounds Halifax currency.

Deposit on petition of re-hearing.

LXXXV. That all writs, notices, orders, warrants, Jan. 1, 1842. rules, and other documents, proceedings and written communications which do not require personal service upon the party to be affected thereby, shall be deemed sufficiently served, if such document, or a copy thereof, as the case may be, shall be served on the solicitor or his agent, to be specified, in the manner mentioned in the first order, by the solicitor of the party serving the same or his agent; and if any solicitor shall neglect to cause such entry to be made as is required by the said first order, then the leaving a copy of any such writ, notice, order, warrant, rule or other document, proceeding or written communication for the solicitor so neglecting as aforesaid in the Registrar's office, shall be deemed sufficient service on him, unless the court shall under special circumstances think fit to direct otherwise.

Service on solicitor or agent.

LXXXVIII. That no writ of execution, nor any writ of attachment, shall hereafter be issued for the purpose of requiring or compelling obedience to any order or decree of this court, but that the party required by any such order to do any act shall, upon being duly served with such order, be held bound to do such act in obedience to the order.

Service of order to have the effect of writ of execution.

LXXXIX. That, if any party who is by an order or decree ordered to pay money, or do any other act in a limited time, shall, after due service of such order, refuse or neglect to obey the same according to
