

document, and every proceeding in reference thereto, shall be as valid and effectual as if such endorsement had been made in the first instance.

5. The Fees specified in Schedule E, hereunto annexed, shall be the Fees to be lawfully demanded and taken by the Sheriff of Vancouver Island, and his Deputies, for executing and serving the various Writs, Warrants, and Process of the said Court, as are therein set forth.

6. The Table of Fees, or Costs, specified in Schedule B, and annexed hereto, shall be the general allowance for Plaintiffs and Defendants in Common Law Proceedings, as well between Attorney and Client, as between party and party. And the Fees mentioned in Schedule D, annexed hereto, shall be the Fees, or Costs, to be allowed between Solicitor and Client in Chancery proceedings, as well as between party and party. And the Fees set forth in Schedule F, annexed hereto, shall be the costs and charges to be lawfully demanded and paid to Attornies in Summary Suits, as well between party and party, as between Attorney and Client.

7. Where Judgment for default of a defence is signed in the manner mentioned in Rule (46) forty-six of the aforesaid Orders of the twelfth day of February, A. D. 1857, the sum fixed for costs by the Registrar shall be according to the scale in Schedule H, hereto annexed.

8. In order to diminish, as much as possible, the costs arising from the copying of documents to accompany the briefs of Counsel, the Registrar is to allow only the copying of such documents, or such parts of documents, as he may consider necessary for the instruction of Counsel, or for use at the trial.

9. The Registrar in all cases shall have discretion to allow, as between party and party, the Fees of Counsel for drawing pleadings, or other proceedings, whether special or otherwise, and advising.

10. When Judgment is signed on a Cognovit; or on the Judge's order authorizing the Plaintiff to sign Judgment: no declaration to ground Judgment shall be necessary, or allowed on the taxation of Costs.

11. The Costs of attendance by Counsel before the Judge at Chambers, shall in no case be allowed as between party and party, unless the Judge shall certify for such allowance.

12. And whereas permission was granted by the (6) sixth Rule of the aforesaid Orders of the twelfth day of February, A. D. 1857, to the Barristers of the Court to act as Solicitors, and the Solicitors of the Court to act as Barristers, so long only as there were not a sufficiency of Barristers and Solicitors competent and willing to act for the Suitors in these capacities. And whereas there is now a sufficiency of Barristers and Solicitors entered and enrolled, and willing to act in these capacities, for the Suitors therein: It is further ordered, That so much of the said (6) sixth Rule as permits Barristers to act as Solicitors, and Solicitors to act as Barristers, shall be revoked and annulled.

13. These Orders shall take effect and be in force from and after the third day of July, now next ensuing.

DAVID CAMERON, C. J.
