

We guarantee:
Not a bored one in the class

How to alleviate boredom, how to make them want to learn: these are the big problems you as an educator face day after day.

You can stop worrying about it. American Empire Education Markets Division can create a curriculum to fill your special needs.

Whether it's politics, or economics, or sociology, or psychology, or history, or the sciences, we have the textbooks and the teachers for you.

Take the case of York University (Canada) Ltd. In the early 1960's, when large scale expansion was planned for this important Toronto university, York's top administrators and academics faced a difficult task.

With only limited experience, they had to build, practically overnight, a large Canadian multiversity; a tough nut to crack and not much time to do it.

So, they brought their file to American Empire.

Our first job was to persuade them (without becoming offensive) that their approach was parochial — that in this modern, technological, fast-living world of ours, they should be building a large NORTH AMERICAN university.

When we had straightened out this small, but important, point, we offered them our special package deal — teachers and textbooks for one small price — a controlling interest in their firm.

York (Canada) Ltd. has grown over the past few years into one of North America's really big success stories, with strong continentally-oriented programs in nearly every academic division.

So, next time you are thinking of starting a North American university in Canada, take a page out of York's calendar and come and see us.

We're the Empire people.
