

to each person who, as an interested purchaser, may apply for them, and to give the plates the widest publicity, by placing them where they will be readily seen by the public.

Your obedient Servant,

John A. G. Jones

Deputy of the Superintendent of Indian Affairs.