

- Multiple transmission, musical, 120.
- Musical message receivers, 125, 139.
- Musical tones transmitted, 91, 92, 120, 136.
- Muschenbroeck, Prof., and the Leyden jar, 8.
- Newton, Sir Isaac, electrician, 8.
- Niagara Falls Power, Chs. XXII to XXVIII, 186 to 233.
 - Introduction—rock, water, power, 186.
 - Appliances:
 - tunnel, power-house, 190.
 - shaft, dynamos, 192.
 - current, 193.
 - governor, 194.
 - water-head, 195.
 - crane, 196.
 - circuit-breaker, 199.
 - transformer, 200.
 - electromotive force, 204.
 - Electrical Products—Carborundum, 209.
 - materials, 210.
 - furnaces, 211.
 - electric current, 213.
 - horse-power, 214.
 - method of work, 215.
 - Bleaching-powder, 218.
 - chlorine and sodium, 219.
 - method of work, 220.
 - caustic soda, 221.
 - Aluminum, 223.
 - crucibles and methods, 224.
 - magnetic effects, 226.
 - Calcium carbide, 228.
 - process, 229.
 - acetylene gas, 230.
 - Other products, 232.