WAR OFFICE WILL ACCEPT

Canada's Offer of a Strong Cavalry Contingent for Service in South Africa.

Another Report Says the Imperial Authorities Need no More Canadian Volunteers.

London, Nov. 6.—The British War Office, it is understood, will accept Canada's offer of a strong cavalry contingent for service in South Africa. A DIFFERENT STORY.

London, Nov. 6.—The offer of the Royal Canadian Regiment stationed at Halifax, to go to South Africa, though it is highly appreciated, will be declined with many thanks. It is unlikely that any more Canadian volunteers will be accepted, as the Imperial government is impressed with the belief that the war will soon be over, and that if more soldiers are required to handle the Boers the home supply will be sufficient.

VICTIM OF A CONSPIRACY.

New York, Nov. 6.—General Buller, (says the London correspondent of the Tribune) considers himself the victim of a South African conspiracy, and threatens to unmask his assailants. Unlike Gen. Roberts, who rallied the political as well as the military forces in South Africa and did not make an enemy except when compelled to do so, General Buller lacked flexibility in dealing with men, and excited much opposition. At Westminter Buller's friends now assert that he will vindicate his reputation by exposing the machinations of the conspirators who have been traducing him, and by telling the secret history of the Jameson Raid and other operations.

The Hague, Nov. 6.—Boer advisers state that the Boer losses in the fight at Fort Italia, in Zululand, where Col. Murray was killed, were 9 killed and 10 wounded. Gen. Buller was in command of the Boers.

ANOTHER BOER REPORT.

The Hague, Nov. 6.—A report has reached here that the Boer commandant, Maritz, entered Bushman's Land, northeast of Cape Town, with 40 men. In a short time the commandant had increased to 350. He attacked and defeated 600 mixed English troops and Kaffirs under Major Gendwine, taking 120 prisoners. Commandant Maritz liberated all prisoners except the Kaffirs, who were found guilty of spying, and these were shot. He found documents at the headquarters of the English, ordering the seizure of farmers' horses. The Boer commandant says this has caused the revolt to spread.

COL. GORDON CONVALESCENT.

Ottawa, Nov. 6.—Miss Richards, one of the Canadian nursing sisters in South Africa, writing to a friend in this city, states that Lieut.-Col. Gordon, of Montreal, is convalescent.

WERE IN TEARS

Many Melted During the Argument of Admiral Schley's Eloquent Address.

Washington, Nov. 6.—The climax of the Schley court of inquiry came this afternoon, when Mr. Rayner, the chief counsel for Admiral Schley, concluded a brilliant argument of over three hours with a peroration so eloquent and impassioned that all within the sound of his voice were profoundly touched. This remarkable trial, he said, sought to condemn the man who brought a successful termination by sea to the war with Spain. In vivid colors he painted the picture of the heroic and gallant deeds of the fleet, fighting the entire Spanish fleet, until the Oregon appeared out of the smoke. The thunder of the Brooklyn, music for the ears of his countrymen, he said, aroused Admiral Schley's envious foes. He pictured the victorious sailor suffering a few hours after for three long years, while the fires of persecution leaped around him, and now awaiting the verdict of the court. "And when it comes," he concluded, "he can from the high and exalted position that he occupies, look down upon his traducers and maligners, and with excellent pride exclaim: 'I care not for the venomous gossip of clubs drawing-rooms and cliques, and the poisoned shafts of envy and of malice. I await under the guidance of Divine Providence, the verdict of posterity.'"

The scene in the court room as he finished with these words was thrilling. The attendance had been large all day and at the morning session a lady had fainted from excitement. As Mr. Rayner began his eulogy of Admiral Schley those in the audience, many of whom were ladies, leaned forward in their seats. The spell of his described the Admiral's gallant deeds and the long persecution to which he had been subjected, many of them broke down and wept. The members of the court, displayed evidence of emotion, and Admiral Schley himself was plainly moved. He sat, leaning back, with his hands behind his head. His chin twitched, and as his counsel said he could afford to await the verdict of posterity, two big tears rolled down his cheeks.

MR. ARNOLD INITIATED

Board Will Continue to Welcome New Members While Oyster Season Lasts.

Books From Scarlet Fever Homes to be Destroyed to Prevent Contagion.

"I have asked the health inspector to give a list of the houses where scarlet fever," said Dr. Charteris at the meeting of the Library Board last evening, "and have instructed the librarian not to give out or receive books from persons living in houses where there are such cases. The scale of scarlet fever will carry disease for fifty years. I hope the board will sanction what I have done."

"It would be a good idea to have the books in these houses returned and then burned by the librarian," said S. B. Arnold. "A book is a bad thing for carrying disease away, as a person is continually waiting his fingers so as to be able to turn the leaves, and a sick person, especially when convalescing, reads a good deal."

It was then moved and carried that Dr. Charteris' action be approved and that the librarian be instructed to have such books brought in and burned.

The chairman, Mr. Thomas Scullard, being unavoidably absent, Dr. Charteris was moved to the chair. Those present were, Dr. Charteris, S. Smith, S. B. Arnold, I. L. Davis, W. J. Twohey, A. Sheldrick.

The following accounts were ordered paid: W. E. Hamilton, proof reading, $2. Gas account, $4.98. Repairs, 85 cents. Gas lighter and handle, $1.25. Bazaar-New, $25.00. Book Supply Co., $28.13. Total, $62.21.

The purchase of some books on Mr. Kinley's life and the Story of the Boer war, offered for sale by Mr. Berube, was left with the Library committee. The librarians' report was read and adopted, as follows. It was as follows:—

Books given out, 1385. Fines, $3.81. Cards, $3.80. Catalogues, 45c. Papers, 35c. Total, $8.41.

It was moved and carried that a list of the papers and magazines be brought in for subscription at the next meeting.

A communication was read from T. C. Massey, secretary of the school board, to the effect that S. B. Arnold had been appointed by the school board to the Library Board in R. A. Hughes' place.

Somebody at this juncture inadvertently, or otherwise, remarked that the usual introduction into the board was to put up an oyster supper.

"Doc" took them at their word, and the crowd was seen about nine o'clock doing ample justice to some of Harry Hall's good things.

THEATRICAL

The graduating exercises of the Central School for to-morrow night at the Opera House, is now a grand success financially, as nearly all the plan of the reserve seat sale has been emptied, much to the credit of Principal Plewes.

The Passion Play for Saturday night is well worth remembering, and comes to Chatham cheerfully recommended as an entertainment of the most worthy presentation of the loftiest themes.

The Montreal Star says of the Fables:—

"The Fables captivated the audience before the first number of the program was finished. Of the program, too much cannot be said in praise. It was well chosen, admirably executed and thoroughly enjoyed. The clever conductor, Miss Nichols, was generous with encores, and the result was that the audience heard several numbers not on the program, and of a brilliant, popular nature that they did not expect. The volume of tone in the forte passages was truly remarkable, while in the softer passages the shading was as exquisite as only a woman's hand could make it."

The sale of seats opens Monday, Nov. 11, at the Grand West. 13.

The offering at the Grand for Saturday evening, Nov. 16th, will be "The House that Jack Built," a rollicking comedy, the latest of the Broadhurst stamp, and it will, from all reports, prove even better than "What Happened to Jones" and "Why Smith Left Home," although written upon entirely different lines.

The proceeds of the ten meetings of the First P. M. Presbyterian church amounted to $291.93. The ladies decided at their meeting yesterday to hold their rummage sale on the 19th November.

BOYS' Reefers and Overcoats

Tailoring for boys is an art by itself. It isn't just a pocket edition of men's tailoring.

An artist has to study anatomy before he can draw figure subjects acceptably; a tailor has to know much about boys before he can make clothes adapted to their needs. No more fashion plate overcoats find a place in this stock for growing fellows. We make them if anything stronger than their fathers' coats. It's really an exceptional father that slides down the balusters or climbs telegraph poles in his overcoat. But the style of grown up garments is worked in—the same upright boxy effects.

Frieze is a favorite reefer material for dozens of reasons—one being that its close tough texture keeps the wind out so well.

We have line of black frieze reefers with storm collars, in sizes 22 to 32, at according to size, $2.50, $2.75 and $3.00.

Gray cloth cloth reefers with wool lining and storm collar—a coat that looks and is warm, sizes 22 to 28, at according to size $3.50 and $4.00.

Boys' overcoats of very dark oxford gray cheviot, a fine close weave that will turn wind and rain. Made like the fashionable coat for men, with elegant trimmings all through. $4 to $5.50.

DISTRICT DOINGS, WALLACEBURG

A Harrison left this week to accept a position in Detroit. Carrier boys are not authorized to collect subscriptions. 5,000 MEN ON STRIKE

Seranton, Pa., Nov. 6.—President Nicolls, of District No. 1, United Mine Workers of America, this evening, issued an order putting on strike the 5,000 employees of the Temple Iron Company in their eight mines in the Lackawanna & Wyoming Valleys. This action is taken on the authority of the district executive board and arises over the refusal of the Temple Company to reinstate fifty workmen who had been discharged.

ALF. TO STAR

Received a Generous Offer From the Marks Bros.—His Capacious Appetite Makes Him Dubious.

Alfred Wrigley—he of the ruddy countenance and delicate burn hair—lays claim to being the "Only Original Irish, German or French Comedian in the West."

His fame is so far reaching, he says, that Tom Mix has offered him a position in the troop—provided Mr. Wrigley will pay his own travelling expenses and his own board.

"Alf" is considering the offer, so he tells, but he scarcely thinks that he will be in a position to accept. The only original has decided to devote himself to the stage and to art, but he has no immediate intention of starving in the act. He has ideas of his own regarding art, but he has no particular contemplation of dispensing with his food supply and leaving his father's roof for the sake of being a star upon the stage and receiving the cabbage bouquets and eggs of the howling thousands.

GOOD GAME

Considerable football talent was brought out yesterday afternoon in the game between the Business College and the city team, which resulted in favor of the latter by the score of 2-0. Backs—Cameron, Carter.
Half backs—McNaughton, Thatcher, Letell.

The city line-up was:

Backs—Courtney, Wilson.
Half backs—Bolton, Brundage, Angus.
