Careful people save time and trouble by jotting down little items likely to be useful in the future, and to present to them a complete and convenient book for this purpose has been our endeavor.

We are at the same time pleased to be able to furnish reliable information as to the cause, symptoms and cure of the diseases generally met with in this country. In addition to this we also give a useful calendar for the ensuing year. In conclusion we extend our best wishes to our many friends and patrons throughout the Dominion of Canada.
