When Mr. L. J. Tarte had completed his labors last evening in swearing in the recruits for the Royal Candidase exactly nine hundred men had been enrolled and seven hundred odd had been finally accepted, and it is quite filtery that most of the others will stand the final test, although the medical and other examinations are very severe. As the men from the country only began to come in yesterday, and as 125 men have been recruited in quebec and have passed the eximination, while such centres as joitefte. Three Rivers, Sherbrooke, and Valleyfield, where recruiting has been going on during the past few days, have yet to be heard from, it can now be stated that the French-Canadian Regiment is an accomplished fact.
