

PROF. WARREN, President Boston University, said: "I should be glad to see it placed in the library of every young person in the United States, and even in the English-speaking world. In families where there are bright children it will render excellent service to the cause of popular intelligence."

THE Publishers Failure IS Your Opportunity

PROF. BARTLETT, President Dartmouth College, said: "It is a popular history of wide range, and brought down from the most ancient to the most modern times. The style is clear, the narrative well balanced, and the statements reliable. The worth of such a work to every young man or woman, or in a family of children, is beyond calculation."

At LESS than even DAMAGED SETS were ever sold

Here is your opportunity to secure Ridpath's History of the World at the lowest price ever offered—and on easy terms. It will cost you nothing to inspect the beautiful specimen pages and let us give you full particulars of our offer. Dr. Ridpath is dead, his work is done, but his family derive their income from his History, and to print our price broadcast for the sake of more quickly selling these few sets would cause great injury to future sales. We will name our price only in direct letters to those sending the coupon below. Tear off the coupon, write name and address plainly and mail now before you forget. DON'T DELAY, AS THERE ARE BUT A FEW SETS REMAINING.

9 massive royal octave volumes. Encyclopaedia size, 11 in. tall, 8 in. wide, 2 in. thick. Weight 50 lbs. 4,000 double-column pages. 2,000 superb illustrations.

RIDPATH'S enviable position as an historian is due to his wonderfully beautiful style, a style no other historian has ever equaled. He pictures the great historical events as though they were happening before your eyes; he carries you with him to see the battles of old; to meet kings and queens and warriors; to sit in the Roman Senate; to march against Saladin and his dark-skinned followers; to sail the southern seas with Drake, to circumnavigate the globe with Magellan, to watch that thin line of Greek spearmen work havoc with the Persian hordes on the field of Marathon, to know Napoleon as you know King Edward.

RIDPATH in your home means you need never spend a lonely evening. You can associate with the world's heroes; you can cross the Rubicon with Caesar, after which Rome was free no more. You can sit at the feet of Socrates, the loftiest genius of the ancient world. You can kneel at the shrine of Queen Victoria, the noblest and greatest woman of her time. It is ennobling to commune with these children of destiny. To be associated with great men and events is to be great one's self, and you will add to your store of knowledge which is power, and to the richness of your life.

RIDPATH takes you back to the dawn of history, long before the pyramids of Egypt were built; down through the romantic troubled times of Chaldea's grandeur and Assyria's magnificence; of Babylonia's wealth and luxury; of Grecian and Roman splendor; of Mohammedan culture and refinement; of French elegance and British power; of American patriotism and religious freedom, to the dawn of yesterday. He covers every race, every nation, every time, and holds you spellbound by his wonderful eloquence. Nothing more interesting, absorbing and inspiring was ever written by man.

RIDPATH throws the mantle of personality over the old heroes of history. Alexander is there; patriot, warrior, statesman, diplomat, crowning the glory of Grecian history. Xerxes from his mountain platform sees Themistocles with three hundred and fifty Greek ships smash his Persian fleet of over a thousand sail, and help to mould the language in which this paragraph is written. Rome perches Nero upon the greatest throne on earth, and so sets up a poor madman's name to stand for countless centuries as the synonym of savage cruelty; Napoleon fights Waterloo again under your very eyes, and reels before the iron fact that at last the end of his gilded dream has come. King Arthur, Shakespeare, Cromwell, Nelson, Gladstone, Salisbury, Jacques Cartier, Champlain, Brock, Macdonald, Laurier, Strathcona, King Edward, march in solemn procession before you, together with an almost endless galaxy of illustrious men, who have used their brain and brawn to carry the Union Jack and British Civilization to the uttermost parts of the earth. The history of Canada, the whole British Empire, and all the nations and peoples of the earth, from the very dawn of civilization down to the present day, is interestingly and fascinatingly told in Ridpath's History of the World.
