

MARRIED.

On Nov. 16th, at St. Peter's Cathedral, by Rev. M. J. Tierney, John Totty, Esq., Mayor of Bothwell, to Margaret Hennessy, eldest daughter of the late Andrew O'Mara, Esq., London.

IRELAND.

CONTINUANCE OF THE AGITATION.

THE BOYCOTT RELIEF PARTY.

Rome, November 10.—The organ of the Vatican says: In consequence of the unpardonable state of the Irish peasantry, the people must shake off their oppression. The crimes committed in Ireland are not attributable to the Land League. Radical reform is indispensable, otherwise Ireland will be compelled to choose between anarchy and starvation.

Dublin Nov. 10.—The authorities have consented to allow fifty unarmed men to go to Loughmuck to cut Boycott's crops, and will send them full protection, and give them a cavalry escort. The date of their departure is kept secret. At a meeting of the Land League yesterday Justin McCarthy was elected a member.

It is stated that the Cabinet has agreed to send a large force of troops into Ireland without delay.

London, Nov. 11.—A correspondent at Ballinrobe telegraphs that Boycott has no place in which to lodge the Orangemen except a barn. The Liberals of this district denounce the relief movement as a Tory trick to force the hand of the Government and provoke coercion by promoting civil war. The relief expedition numbers fifty-eight men, and is provided with tents.

London, Nov. 11.—The escort for the Orangemen going to the relief of Boycott will consist of two squadrons of hussars, a squadron of light infantry, and 150 constabulary, with two cannons and 150 constabulary. The troops have been strictly ordered not to fire on the people.

London, Nov. 11.—The Times believes that the Irish Executive are in possession of indisputable proof of organized forces, and systematic methods of lawlessness are spreading from county to county.

Dublin, Nov. 11.—The first public step in the state prosecutions was taken this morning in the Queen's Bench division, on behalf of Parnell and thirteen others. It was a motion that within ten days the prosecution should deliver to the defendants full particulars of the charges against them. The Court ordered that the particulars in writing be furnished to the defendants. The Court crowded.

London, Nov. 11.—The Boycott relief expedition has not yet started. It will consist of twenty-three laborers and twenty-seven gentlemen volunteers. Thirteen of the latter, armed by permission with revolvers, have left Dublin to make arrangements for provisioning the party.

Baltimore, November 11.—Considerable excitement arose on the night. Two hundred more troops have arrived. The relief expedition starts for the Boycott Farm at noon, guarded by 250 infantry and two squadrons of hussars. One hundred infantry and a squadron of cavalry were encamped during the night near Boycott's. Boycott announcing his intention of quitting Ireland.

Dublin, Nov. 12.—When the Orangemen arrived at Loughmuck, Boycott was seen standing near his house with a rifle in his hands. Within two hours after their arrival a number of men commenced work on the farm. It is estimated that a week or ten days will be required to do the work. If machines are brought from Dublin in a reasonable time, the Orangemen will throw the corn, and bring it to market. The hussars who acted to escort for the Orangemen have returned to Ballinrobe. The other troops remain. The baggage and implements of the Orangemen arrived in the evening and were not interfered with.

It is reported that great preparations are to be made for the departure of the Orangemen from Loughmuck, when their task is completed.

The Roman Catholic Archbishop of Cashel has written from Rome to Mr. Gray, Mayor of Dublin, stating that the Irish Bishops at Rome desire to subscribe to the fund for Parnell's defence.

New York, Nov. 14.—The Herald's Dublin cable says: Boycott exacts the last farthing for everything eaten by the relief force. The relief force is a party whose men have been guarding Boycott for some months; the latter charged them three half-pence for a cup of butter-milk and fourpence per stone for potatoes, which they had to dig themselves. The laborers of the expedition are cheerful, but are surprised that from the time of their coming Boycott has not spoken to them, nor recognized them in any way, while the leader, though they would not admit it, have evidently not received the cordial reception that might have been expected.

A correspondent of the Freeman states that Boycott is brave to a fault, but that he makes eccentric rules in his dealings with his laborers. He is punctilious to a harsh and quixotic degree. His laborers state that instead of summing them he used to fine them himself one penny a bowl for every hen that trespassed on his grass or farm, that a man was fined if he left a spade or shovel in the wrong place, fined if he left the gate open, fined if he were two minutes behind the ring of the bell. The result was that a man employed at nine shillings a week sometimes found himself only entitled to seven shillings after his week's labor.

Domineering tone with people appears to have been another great cause of the enmity against him. He treated his cattle better than his laborers, and one tenant says he never had anything but cause for them. Lord Howe has an excellent reputation as a landlord. Except in years of grievous pressure, nobody grumbled about paying rents. But since the old earl has, as they conceive, given up the control to his son, Lord Crichton, and to his agent, they state that they have been subjected to a series of petty privations and humiliations, and this appears to have engaged them without enriching the landlord.

London, Nov. 15.—The Cabinet will meet again to-morrow, and the Irish question will again come up for discussion. The good sense and wise foresight shown by the leaders of the Land League in preventing any attack on the force of the volunteer Orangemen who went to the relief of Mr. Boycott, near Loughmuck, have clearly banished every necessity of the Habeas Corpus Act, and opened the eyes of the public to the fact that the Cabinet not only has to deal with a very knotty question, but to contend against men who are clearly united, with an immense following, and who, while they have both the power and will, to do anything to gain their ends, are yet skillful enough to keep within the limits of the law. The result of to-morrow's session and the conclusion therein arrived at will not perhaps be definitely known till Parliament assembles on the 28th Jan. next.

THE KID GLOVE HOUSE BATHS.

ELECTROPATHIC INSTITUTE, 211 Queen's Avenue, London, Ont.

MOLIERE ELECTRIC VAPOR BATHS.

The first physiological effect of the Molier Electric Vapor Baths is to perfect the respiratory functions of the skin, to give a living and healthy cuticle, instead of the weak, diseased covering which the majority of people possess. The skin is thus fitted for imbuing the oxygen of the atmosphere, and giving off the carbon from the blood—two most important processes.

To a person liable to take cold from exposure to slight drafts, the feeling of defiance to cold imparted by the Electric Vapor Bath is one of the most striking results. In no distant future the electric vapor bath in Rheumatism and most of the northern climates the functions of the skin are to a great extent dormant, and its purpose as an outlet for refuse matters of the system almost nullified by inaction.

The use of these Baths remedies this state of things, giving, at the same time, beauty to the skin and health to the body. Its utility in the composition of the liver and spleen, and in constipation associated with chronic indigestion, gout, inveterate depression of spirits, catarrhs of the bladder, and other diseases, is common to associate perspiration with ability, and to imagine it to be weakening to the system. This is a mistake, passive means cannot weaken. Travelers in the East resort to bathing establishments for refreshment and invigoration. Electric Vapor Baths are highly tonic, and the rate is to put weak people in office, as it is conducive to flesh and strength. Perspiration drains away no living tissue, as it merely effects matter which evaporates instead of strengthening. If you perspire well you come out of the Bath stronger than when you went in. This can be tested in three ways: its effect upon those debilitated by disease, on those exhausted by fatigue, and on those long exposed to it. After long and severe fatigue, the bath affords the most astonishing relief, whether it be the fatigue of mental work or of long continued physical labor.
