LAURIER'S MANIFESTO

Sir Wilfrid Laurier has issued a manifesto to the Canadian people, outlining his policy. Regarding the war, Sir Wilfrid claims that "the fundamental objection to the government's policy of conscription is that it conscripts human life only and that it does not attempt to conscript wealth, resources, or the services of any persons other than those who come within the age limit prescribed by the Military Service Act." He advocates the conscription of men, money and resources, and states that his policy regarding the Military Service Act would be not to proceed further with its provisions until the people have an opportunity to pronounce upon it by way of a referendum. He promises tariff reform, control of food supplies, and price, and a stop to profiteering. The seven-and-a-half per cent. on all commodities coming into Canada, and the five per cent. duty on goods coming from Great Britain, increases in the tariff since the war began, he would remove. He also would immediately remove the duties on agricultural implements, and other utensils, as demanded by the western farmers. To reduce the high cost of living he would take drastic steps to bring under government control all food producing factories, so that food may be sold at a fixed price. He condemns the War Times Election Act, and holds the view that the C.N.R. purchase should be adjudicated upon by the new parliament. A strong and progressive policy of immigration is promised. In order to stop profiteering, he holds it is necessary to take control of the factories that are engaged in the supply of war materials, as has been done in Great Britain, and run them on the principle of reasonable return on investment for the owners and reasonable legitimate profit. He further states that should he be called upon to form a government he would hope to include in it representatives of business, of labor, and of agriculture, men whose sole object in dealing with the affairs of the country would be to devote the whole resources, wealth, and energy of the country to the winning of the war.

Dr. Carman, the first general superintendent of the United Methodist church in Canada and long recognized as a leading Methodist preacher and educationalist, is dead at Toronto at the age of 84.

Sir Edward Geddes, first lord of the admiralty, declares that between 40 and 50 per cent. of the German submarines operating in the North Sea, the Atlantic and the Arctic Ocean, have been sunk.

Men who are within the provisions of Class 1 of the Military Service Act will not be admitted to the law society of Manitoba, nor will they be allowed to sit for any examination. This is one of the steps taken by the law society to assist the government.

That Russia entered the war early, and that she is now worn out by the strain, was the declaration of Premier Kerensky recently. He said that Russia claims as her right that the other allies should now shoulder the burden of war. It is understood that further financial assistance will be forthcoming from the Allies to assist Russia in maintaining her armies in the field.
