

and provided also, that every Councillor who shall so go out of office shall, if not otherwise disqualified, be capable of being immediately re-elected.

How to determine what Councillors are to vacate their seats.

XIX. And be it further Ordained and Enacted, that in order to determine, in each of the said Councils, what Councillors are to vacate their seats as aforesaid, in the first and second years after the first election under this Ordinance, the Clerk to be appointed as hereinafter provided, in each of the said Districts, or other officer to be appointed for that purpose by the Council, shall, at the last quarterly meeting of such Council, to be held in the year in which such first election as aforesaid shall be had, write the name of each of the Councillors on a piece of paper, and place the same folded up in a glass or box, from which the names shall be drawn by some person appointed by the Council for that purpose; and the third of the said Councillors, or the number of Councillors to go out in pursuance of such by-law as aforesaid, who shall vacate their seats in the year then next following, shall be those whose names shall be first drawn, and the third of the said Councillors, or the number to go out of office in pursuance of such by-law as aforesaid, who shall vacate their seats in the next succeeding year, shall be those whose names shall be next drawn.

The Warden of the District to preside in each Council, and in his absence, a Chairman to be chosen.

XX. And be it further Ordained and Enacted, that at all meetings of every such Council, the Warden of the District shall preside; and, in case of his absence, death or incapacity to act, or of any accidental vacancy in the office of Warden, the members shall choose, from the Councillors present, one of their number to be temporary Chairman in the place of such Warden, during his absence, or during such accidental vacancy in the office of Warden.

Every District Council to have four quarterly meetings in each year.

XXI. And be it further Ordained and Enacted, that there shall be in each year, four quarterly meetings of every District Council in this Province, which meetings shall be held on the first Tuesday in the months of March, June, September, and December respectively; and the said meetings shall not at any time be held for a longer period than five successive days; and at no meeting of any such Council, shall any matter be deliberated or determined on, except such matters as fall within the scope of the powers and jurisdiction of such Council.

Extraordinary meetings may be held under authority of the Governor.

XXII. Provided always, and be it further Ordained and Enacted, that extraordinary meetings of any such Councils may be held, by and under the authority of the Governor of this Province, signified in writing to the Warden of the District, who shall give due notice thereof to the Councillors of the District; and such extraordinary
