LIVE STOCK MARKETS

Cattle for the Easter trade made their appearance this morning and met with a strong active trade. From point of view of numbers the offering was moderate for a Monday, but the general quality was the best seen at the wards for many weeks. The improvement in the offering helped to give a snap to the trade. A number of baby beeves sold from 13 to 14c, and several loads of extra choice heavy steers met values between $12.35 and $12.75. One straight load cashed in These were exceptionally choice butcher cattle and were among the first sent over the scales. The trade was equally keen for good to choice butchers at price 5 10 to 15c stronger than last week's close for the same grades, and in a few cases the advance was nearer 25c. Loads of choice butchers sold from $11.60 to $12.00 and good grade killers from $11.25 to $11.50. Commor to medium butchers met a steady and active trade. Best bulls and cows were firmer, but values for the other grades were unchanged.

With the demand for butcher cattle so keen there was little left for the stocker trade, but the loads slipped out showed the market firm at last week's quotations.

Lambs and calves met a 15 to 25c stronger trade, one lot of choice blackfaced lambs selling at $20.50. Sheep were firm with the offering light. Very few hogs among the 2,500 head unleaded during the week-end were on the open market this morning, but for such as were loose the trade was firm to strong. The bulk sold at $20.25 fed and watered, which was last week's closing price, but as high as $20.40 was paid this morning for small lots.

Hard Smiling

It's hard to smile when you have the when you cough all day and all night you yip, when your lungs are sprained and your throat is pealed, and your head feels like a football field. Oh its hard to smile, but it can be done; I have tried the scheme and the effort won. And the doctor said, as he gave me pills, and some castor oil, and a quart of quills. "I wish my patients were all like you, but they mostly roar when the doctor is due and all that minister unto me when I am as sick as a man can be, behold the radience of my smile, and say it's something that's well worth while, and they fondly hope that I may get worse, its such a pleasure my nibs to nurse. When sickness comes to a man's abode, the women carry a griev. ous load. They fret and worry and work and weep, they miss their meals and lose their sleep.
