SALISBURY ENDS THE DEBATE

ond Reading Defeated by 419 to 41.

LONDON, Sept. 9.—Although it was generally understood that the House of Lords-would reject the Home Rule bill last night the House did not fill up "until after the dinner hour, popular interest centering in the speech of the Marquis" of Salisbury, who was not expected to rise until towards Striking Miners Come into Collision with Soldiers-Twe Killed.

London, Sept. 9.—During the ricting at Pontefract, Tortshire, the mob showered stones and other missiles upon a company of firemen who were trying to put out a firs. A detachment of soldiers was sent to the scene and fired into the mob. One miner was killed and another mortally wounded. The ricters were out all night destroying property and fighting the military and police.

The magistrates throughout the district have called for more troops.

At Hartley a magistrate was stoned and badly bruised while reading the Rict Act. Troops were called for yesterday by the authorities as ricters had gathered near the town and the police were to weak to disperse them.

Shortly after noon a mob of strikers began to pilinge shops and taverns in the suburbit. The troops had not arrived, and the police were scattered by the ricters. The whole district around the town is now in the hands of the miners. Another Dead.

LORDON, Sept. 9. Hater.—Another of the strikers has died of wounds received in the fight at Pontefract last night. The strikers throughout Pontefract are in a sullen and dangerous mood. Ugly moba have been gathering at several points despite the efforts of police and troops to disperse them.

In the meantime Baron Halsbury, Baron Herschel, Baron Monkawell and the Bishop of Ripon had spoken to half empty benches, After 9 o'clock the scene outside the House had livened up as members and visitors began streaming in.

The peercesee, strangers and diplomatic galleries showed few vacant seats. Considered the same of the House were 29 bishops attired in their capacious robes with lawn sleeves. The debate in the House reached the same of duliness in the Earl of Morley's manndering against the bill. A number of other peers were on the roll to speak, but a sense of weariness affected them as well as the House generally, so Lord Salisbury, seizing a chance during a momentary pause, rose at 16.30 o'clock amid rapturous cheers and began his speech.

He said he felt that there was some satisfaction in occupying the position he occupied—that of the last person to speak against Home Rule in the course of the present session. But although it was a position of much distinction it had many inconveniences. In particular, the ground of debate had been so fully occupied that there was little new left for him to say. Throughout the debate one question constantly present in his mind was, why had the Government introduced such a bill? On this point the House had received no sufficient enlightenment. Some peers who had defended the bill had made able speeches without much reference to the real nature of the bill. The Lord Chancellor, Lord ilerschel, had virtually told them that he did not quite believe with the Government on one subject. In dealing with the retention of Irish members at Westmister, which was an outrage on England so enormous and grotesque that it was a surprise that it ever found a place in a proposal emanating from a responsible Government. The Lord Chancellor had dealired that have had brought it on themselves, Finally the Lord Chancellor had finished his own account of his own intellectual position by protesting with a vigor thoroughly sincere, against anybody desiring to know the real opinion of any Cabi An Imperial Fede An Imperial Federationist.

LONDON, Sept. 9.—Col. Howard Vincent,
M.P. for Sheffield, chief promoter of the United Empire Trade League, who intended to pay Canada a visit this antum and who had actually planned to asil by the programme. Col. and Mrs. Howard Vincent will leave on the 21st instant for Brazil

The Reward of Loyalty.

METZ, Sept. 9.—Emperor William has ordered that in view of the loyalty manifested by the people of "Alsace and Lorraine during his visit all the exceptional laws enforced in the two provinces since the war shall be abolished. After the announcement of the order Chancellor Von Caprivi and Prince Von Hohenlohe, Governor of Alsace and Lorraine, held a long conference, presumably as to the details of its execution. The Pasha's Death Certain.

London, Sept. 9.—Letters just received in England from an officer of Emin Pasha's expedition confirms the report of the murder of Emin, and announce the finding of a box of Emin's despatches written just before he was murdered. This box is now on the way to England. The letters described the capture of Nyanque, which was stormed on March 4. The Arabs lost 800 men, while only two Europeans were killed.

He's Not a Partisan.

LONDON, Sept. 9.—At the reception tendered Lord Aberdeen by the Mayor of Liverpool, the new Governor-General of Canada said his office was one that implied, as representing the Queen, recognition of the divergence of common feeling, and whatever might be his political feelings he was for the time free from all partisanship and was actuated by the sole desire to serve Queen and country.

Navahoe Gives Up.

Ryde, Isle of Wight, Sept. 9.—The third race between the Britannia and the Navahoe, for the international gold cup was to be sailed yesterday over a fitty mile course out from Ryde. The weather was squally from early morning. The Navahoe got into difficulty while reefing her mainsail, and gave up the race, and eventually the contest was abandoned.

unred at the Peacock Hotel, in which william Onthwaits, a plasterer, of Shelburne, Ont, lost his life. The unfortunate man, together with Robert Carr, a farmer of the same place, came to Toronto to attend the Eighthitton.

About nine o'clock they visited the Peacock House and engaged a room. The propristor showed them how the gas was turned on and off. They stated that they knew all about it:

Yesterday when they did not appear for breakfast the propristor surmised that something was wrong and went to investigate, accompanied by Joseph Smith. At first they knocked at the bedroom door, and receiving no answer they forced it open only to find William Outhwaite, who is about 88 years old, dead, and his comrade, Carr, in an unconscious condition. Medical aid was immediately summoned, but only succeeded in bringing Carraround. Their efforts to resudiate Outhwaite being unavailing.

Upon investigation it was found that the burner was open and had it not been that the window was open a couple of inches both undoubtedly would have been sufficated.

It is thought that the men blew ont the gas upon retiring.

News of the Capital,

Farmers are much alarmed, at the continual rains and cold weather. All grains are badly injured and root crops are commencing to rot. Dry weather is badly needed.

An interview is published by the Journal with Louis Joseph Papineau at Montebello, in which that son of the great French-Canadian Liberal, while refusing to give the details of the causes which have led him to join the Patestant Church, says that they are not of fecent origin, and that it was not merely on account of a heavy assessment for the proposed new Catholic church at Montebello. He said:

"I have my reasons for leaving the church, and in due time I will make them public. As far as the question of money is concerned I do not consider myself in any ways a debtor of the church, rather the opposite. My family built the church they are now seeking to rebuild, and we have given our money freely to repair it. But the church question had nothing to do with my change of religion as I had made up my mind to a change before the rebuilding of the church was spoken of. I will publish a letter soon giving my reasons."

Ottawa, Sept. 9 — Arch deacon Lauder and Rev. J. J. Bogert go to Toronto on Monday to take part in a big meeting called for Wednesday for the purpose of taking steps to consolidate the Church of England in Canada. Bishops, representative clergy and laity from the Atlantic to the Pacific will be present. This movement has been before the Church for the last six years and has at last culminated in the calling together of the first General Synod. It is said that it will be the most important meeting that has ever been held in Canada in the interest of the Church of England, and must eventually strengthen her by the unity which it will create in her general working in this country.
