Peculiar Actions of Strange Guest At Hotel
Rankin

Threw Water On People
On Street Below His Room

Brooding over supposed misfortunes, it is alleged that an eccentric individual, who registered as F.
W. West, of Ireland, tried to commit suicide at the Rankin Hotel this morning.

According to all the information which could be gathered, the man West had been acting rather peculiar ever since he struck the city.
He appeared to be despondent about some trouble of his own. He gave his address as "Ireland," on the hotel register, but it is thought that he hails from Detroit. He was in hard luck, and it seems that his finances were at low ebb.

This morning a rope was noticed dangling from the room he occupied on one of the upper floors of the hotel, and the report got around town that he had tried to commit suicide. During the early morning hours he amused himself with very strange antics. He started in by throwing water out of his window.
Finally, when his water pitcher was about empty he fired pitcher and all out of the window. A Mr. Neilly, who happened to be passing at the time, got the benefit of a cold shower bath from West's pitcher.
West finally left the hotel without giving any reason for his strange actions. He left behind him an unreceipted board bill.

"There is absolutely no truth in the report that the man tried to kill himself," said Mr. Reg. Pleasance, who was seen to-day. "The report got around town merely through the fact that there was a fire escape rope hanging out of West's window. The man acted rather peculiar, but we know very little about him. He left this morning and he hasn't shown up since."

GOOD TIME EXPECTED

There is every prospect of a grand celebration here on the anniversary of the Battle of the Boyne. Hugh Gallagher, secretary of the General Committee of the 10th St. July celebration in this city, has received from Detroit, Orangeburg, and coming in full force with band.
Port Huron and two other Michigan lodges will also be here. Petrolia, Sarnia and other places in Lambton will be in attendance. Essex County will be here in a body. Beecher, Lambton Co., will be here with at least 30 men, making in all 80 or 90 from that burg. Petrolia comes via Grand Trunk and will bring a large contingent, as well as numbers from intermediate stations. Ten or twelve lodges of ladies from Canada, as well as two or three from the United States, will grace the day by their presence. The railway rates will be single fare and tickets will be good to return on the following day.

Mr. Gallagher gives as a conservative estimate 5,000 or 6,000 Orangemen and friends who will spend the glorious Twelfth in the Maple City. The hotels and business people have subscribed liberally to the celebration fund, and all that a new wanted is fine weather to make the event the best in the history of the Order in Chatham.

The different lodges are bringing brass bands with them in addition to the time-honored fife and drum corps, and everything points to a real good time.

The General Committee is meeting this afternoon to make final arrangements in the way of appointing sub-committees, etc.

name is given as A. W. McLeod, from Texas, staying at the Royal Hotel since last Saturday, narrowly escaped being asphyxiated by gas Thursday night.

the other was partially turned on.

STOLYPIN'S BOLD STEP

Demands Exclusion Of Fifty-five Social Democrat Leaders

He Threatens Dissolution if
The House Refuses
Demand

St. Petersburg, June 15.—Premier Stolypin yesterday demanded that the lower House of Parliament exclude from the House all the members of the Social Democratic faction, numbering fifty-five, and sanction the arrest of sixteen of their leaders, including M. Alexinsky, Tsereteli, Dze-paridze and Ozel, on the charge of entering into a conspiracy to overthrow the Government and establish a communist republic. Continuing, the Premier announced that unless the House immediately yielded Parliament would be dissolved.

The press and public galleries were cleared, the police and troops took possession of the entrances to the Parliament building and the House went into secret session, and debated the question raised by the Premier.
It is considered almost certain that his demands will be rejected.

With only 130 opposing votes, the Lower House later rejected Premier Stolypin's ultimatum for the immediate suspension of 55 deputies for membership in the Social Democratic party, and referred the subject to a committee. Although the committee has been instructed to report to-day, it is known in advance that the decision on the main question will be adverse, and that the Duma will accept the recommendation.

In order to keep strictly within the legal limits, the committee may recommend the suspension of sixteen leaders on condition that the Government disclose the evidence against them, but there is not the slightest expectation on either side that this will save the situation.

COL. KOTLAROFF MURDERED.

Sentenced to Death By Terrorists—Assassin Was Captured.

St. Petersburg, June 15.—Col. Kot-laroff, deputy commandant of the Port of St. Petersburg, was murdered yesterday morning by a woman in the Admiralty section of the city. The colonel was recently sentenced to death by the revolutionary fighting organization because he recommended a reduction of the working force at the Admiralty works. The assassin was captured, but he is believed to have had accomplices, who escaped.

WAR WITH SALVADOR

Practical Declaration in Nicaraguan President's Statement.

Washington, June 15.—What amounts to an actual declaration of war between Nicaragua and Salvador was contained in the reply of President Zelaya to an enquiry from Washington as to his connection with the recent attack and capture of Acapulco.
The answer came to the State Department yesterday in the shape of the following cablegram from American Consul-General Olivares at Managua, the Nicaraguan capital:

"I am officially informed that in accordance with the Central American Union plan, President Zelaya has despatched munitions of war and troops in aid of General Alfara, who is the popular Unionist candidate for the Presidency of Salvador. (President) Figueroa opposes the union idea."

BAD CROOKS IN COBALT.

One Man Gets a Year for Passing Forged Cheques.

Cobalt, Ont., June 15.—Robert Leporte, dissipated prospector, was sentenced yesterday by Magistrate Brown to one year in Central Prison for passing worthless cheques and forgery. He scattered cheques Thursday among Frenchmen in the north end of the town. When arrested he had several signatures to them, some payable to himself and others to fictional personages, whose names he endorsed on the backs.

To-day Lott Cameron, a notorious man crook, will be tried before St-pendary Magistrate Hartman for passing worthless cheques.

Eleven Victims Found.

Washington, June 15.—Official advices reached here last night from Hampton Roads, announcing the recovery of the bodies of the eleven victims of the accident to the United States battleship Minnesota's steam launch.

The battleship Minnesota's lost launch was found in eight fathoms of water off the Riprap, near Fort Monroe.

Two Killed by Train.

Albany, June 15.—The bodies of two well-dressed young men, supposed to be Edward A. Tighe of 108 Johnson street, Newark, N. J., and James Murtaugh of 170 Temple street, Boston, were found yesterday laying in a ditch alongside the New York Central tracks, just west of here. It is believed that both were struck by a passing train.

THERE MAY BE A SEQUEL

Echoes Of The Twigg—Johnson Language
Case

Police Informed That Horse Was Stolen
This A. M.

Two dollars and the costs, $4.50 in all, was the price Wm. Reid paid into the city coffers this morning for the privilege of carrying a joyful jag yesterday.

"You are a man of too many good qualities to be killing yourself with liquor," said Judge Houston when Reid came up before him to-day.

"That's a fact, Judge," was the cool reply. Later, Reid told the Chief of Police that he was going to turn over a new leaf.

"What's the use of doing that?" quizzed the Chief. "Why all the pages in your book are the same.
The best thing you can do, is throw the old book away."

Reid walked away in deep thought.
Possibly he was pondering over the sage advice handed out to him by the police officials.

Complaint was laid with the police this morning that a horse belonging to a Mr. Nelson had been taken from the stables on the Catholic church property. It is thought that the horse was taken between 12.30 last night and 5.30 this morning.

Up till noon to-day, no trace had been found of the missing animal.

There is a possibility that an echo of the Twigg-Johnson insulting language case may come up Monday morning in Police Court. It is understood that some of the young women whom Reginald Lamperd referred to as "sporty" are going to ask him to prove the charge. Some of the parties implicated may also come up on a charge of disturbing the peace.

Mr. Twigg some time ago protested against the statement credited to Lamperd, referring to the girls in the King street house. He said that this could not have been his house.
It was difficult to make out which house Lamperd meant when he gave his evidence at Police Court, but he says now that he did not mean the Twigg house, and that his reference was to Mrs. Bowyer's house on Wellington street. Mr. Twigg is a hard-working, respectable man who is considered a good citizen in every respect, and his explanation, coupled with Lamperd's denial that he meant the Twigg house is entitled to consideration, and this journal is very anxious not to misrepresent anyone, whatever their station in life may be.

PURSE OF GOLD FOR LITTLE BABY GIRL

Goderich, June 14.—A unique presentation was made the other evening to Baby Margaret Victoria, youngest daughter of Rev. and Mrs. W.
H. Graham. The occasion was a t.a. at the home of one of the members of the congregation of Victoria St.
Methodist Church, of which Mr.
Graham is the pastor, and after tea the child was presented with a purse of gold, to be deposited in trust as a subscription towards a life membership in the Woman's Missionary Society when the young lady is old enough.

This makes the third generation in the family who have been made life members in the W. M. S. by friends in the Goderich Methodist churches.
Over twenty years ago Mrs. (Rev.) T. M. Campbell was made a life member of the W. M. S. by the ladies of North St. Methodist Church.
About a year ago her daughter, Mrs.
Graham, was made a life member by the ladies of Victoria St. Church, and now similar provision is made for her youngest daughter, Rev. W.
H. Graham severs his connection with Victoria St. Church, Goderich, to take charge of Victoria Avenue Church, Chatham. His child was named Victoria, after the church.

WRIGHTMAN IS INSANE

Windsor, June 15.—Arthur Wright-man, charged with shooting at and wounding his brother-in-law, George Pierce, of Windsor, was yesterday adjudged insane at the County Court sessions, Sandwich, and will be sentenced next Wednesday. Several physicians were called to give evidence, and all agreed that the prisoner is insane and was not of sound mind when he committed the crime.
It is expected that he will be committed to the insane asylum at London. Some years ago he was sent to the same institution, and was finally released owing to the improvement shown in his condition.

NO VERDICT TILL AUGUST

Frisco Dairyman Takes the Stand In Haywood
Case

Describes Crimes Committed—Kept Shop Frequented By Orchard

Boise, Idaho, June 15.—The trial of Wm. D. Haywood for the murder of former Governor Steunenberg was resumed at 9.30 a. m. yesterday, with L. B. Guibbini, dairyman, of San Francisco, on the stand.

Guibbini introduced Harry Orchard, known as "Barry," to the servants in the Bradley household. He said that Orchard came to his store and hung around and spent considerable money. Orchard asked questions about the Bradley household, asked to be introduced to the servants, and asked Guibbini to get him a room in the neighborhood.

Saw Poisoned Milk.

Guibbini saw Orchard moving his luggage the night before the Bradley house was dynamited. He also saw the poisoned milk. Guibbini described the result of the bomb Orchard placed at the front door leading to the Bradley apartments in Washington.

The whole front of the house was blown out.

Guibbini said he saw Orchard at his store the day the explosion occurred.

The defence moved to strike out the testimony of the witness, as not connecting Haywood with the offence charged, but was overruled.

Attorney Darrow, on cross-examination, devoted himself to learning the conditions under which the witness was brought to Boise to testify.

Guibbini said the detectives told him he had to come to Boise, and there was no use "trying to dodge it."

To Kidnap Witness.

"So they were going to kidnap you?" commented Darrow.

"No, sir," said the witness. "They just told me I had to come."

Guibbini got $200 for expenses.
Guibbini said Orchard told him he lived by gambling at night. He slept during the daytime.

The prosecution then called Hall McClaghry, assistant postmaster at San Francisco, who was interrogated as to the registered letter Orchard said he received from Pettibone while in San Francisco. Orchard said he was going by the name of "John Dumpey" at the time, and Pettibone used the name of "J. Wolf" in transmitting the letter, which contained $100.

What Detective Says.

Capt. James McPartland, the famous detective, who has figured so largely in the testimony, and who has been attacked by the counsel for the defence, prefers not to be interviewed at length on the subject of the Orchard confession.

"It would be superfluous for me to reiterate," he said Thursday, "Orchard has told the literal truth about the confession and the way it was given to me. I made him no promises I never made a promise to a criminal in my life. Orchard first confessed to me, but said he was not quite ready to give it to me finally.

"I promised to hold it for some time, and I did so. He told me that when he was ready to tell the whole story he would let me know, and some time later he again told me the incidents of his life, leaving out nothing. Every word that he has said on the stand as to the confession is the truth, and there is nothing to add."

No Verdict Till August.

The state expects to close its case in ten days or two weeks. Clarence Darrow, for the defence, says their case will take about four weeks, though it is possible that it may be concluded in less. It is generally conceded, however, that the verdict will not be reached before August 1.

POSTOFFICE ROBBED.

Burglars Dynamited the Safe But Only Got $25.

Brantford, Ont., June 15.—The postoffice at Brantford village, in Brant County, was entered by burglars early yesterday morning. They effected entrance by a skeleton key, dynamited the safe, and stole money, stamps and private papers. The money loss was small, probably $25.

The perpetrators got away, locking the doors behind them.

Kaiser Degrades Cousin.

London, June 15.—The Paris correspondent of The Express says:

"I am informed by a personage closely connected with the German court that the Kaiser has personally degraded his cousin, Prince Frederick Henry of Prussia, bored his ears, excluded him from the court army, and banished him from Germany. The Kaiser dictated this severe punishment on receiving substantial information that the prince was addicted to riotous living.

Wm. Somerville returned Thursday night from Montreal, after attending the meeting of the general assembly of the Presbyterian church.
