CLOSE OF THE SESSION

To thoughtful men who have been watching the proceedings of the Legislature grave are the conclusons which they are forced to gather. The House was called together by a subterfuge, bn the plea of urgent business, but 'readly to head off the lection bourts and to secure to the Government the support of men who had no legal or moral night to sit in the Legislature. This was the beinning. What has been the ending In the last days of the session the Government has had to retain power the most shameless deal which has ever been perpetrated by any administration.

It is idle for the Government supin favor of the Soo deal. They have the opportunity of studying the opinthe people as expressed in the press, and an unbiased view of the whole situation must undoubtedly be that the country is against it Put to one side the party press, and it is found that the independent newspapers are strongly, nay, vehemently opposed to it. Even amongst the Government's own organs there is a feeling of disgust and a desire for purer methods. Here then we have the sight of men, chosen 'to 'represent 'the people's will flagrantly and in the most cowardly manner, acting in direct onposition to it, in order to keep their party to power for a short time longer. Lord John Russell said: "It is of the atmost importance that a nation should have a standard by which to weigh the character of its What standard has the Ross Government set up for us to go by? The true greatness of inations is in the qualities which constitute the greatness of the individual and hot one of the Premier's followers had the courage to raise his woice or vote against this corrupt deal. Courage is an essential to a high

"The highest gift that scorns to lend no mean devices for a sordid Pitiful it is to contemplate that not a single follower of Mr. Ross had the courage to strike a blow for the maintainance of the independence of Parliament and the protection of the public treasury.

It is difficult for high-minded men to understand why there is this cowardly truckling by the Premier's majority. The impression has been created and is steadily growing that this finad lust for power is not for the good of the province, that there is something else behind. The nefarious deals which the opposition have been unable to unearth from time to time, culminating in this virtual hold up of two members, all seem to point out that the Government fear the scandals which would be shown to the world directly the Opposition were in the position to examine the past transactions of the Government.

There is, however, one feature of the session which is full of encouragement. Mr. Whitney has come out of fit standing higher in the estimation of his followers and the independent electors of the Procince than His tact, his Parliament- | life. ary knowledge, his broad statesmanlike views, his determination to secure pure government and his splendid ability as a leader, have all been conspiculously shown. His followers too have proved that when he obtains power there are among them men who can be trusted to carry on with him, the Government of this Province in a manner which will meet with general approval.

WHAT LAURIER SAID TO BLAIR.

"What must have been the attitude of my right honorable friend when he offered the chairmanship of the railway commission to my friend Mr. Blair? What was the interview which took place? No account of it has been divulged to the public. We can only draw upon our imaginations and I would suppose that my right honorable friend must have address-ed the ex-Minister of Railways and Canals in some such words as these: Sir, you have impugned our motives, you have declared them unworthy, you have attacked with great bitter. ness bur great transportation project which we regarded as absolutely necessary to the salvation of this coun You have assailed it with ridicule, you have declared it to be born of madness and hysteria. You have pledged your faith as a man versed in railway matters that it is wanton, scandalous and unjustiwalton, scandalous and unjusti-able waste of public money; there-re, we think, that, in the best in-

All Humors

Are impure matters which the skin, liver, kidneys and other organs can not take care of without help, there is such an accumulation of them.

They litter the whole system.

Pimples, boils, eczema and other eruptions, loss of appetite, that tired feeling, bilious turns, fits of indigestion, dull headaches and many other troubles are due to them.

Hood's Sarsaparilla and Pills

Remove all humors, overcome all their effects, strengthen, tone and invigorate the whole system.

"My health was poor and I suffered much from hives and kidney trouble. After taking two bottles of Hood's Sarsaparille I was cured. I regard this medicine as su-perior to all others," Mrs. Joseph Hot-LINSHEAD, Harrison, Ontario.

Hood's Sarsaparilla promises to cure and keeps the promise.

most suitable person to appoint as chairman of the great commission. If my friend, Mr. Blair, showed a little modest hesitation in accepting the position, my right honorable friend could proceed as follows and I suppose he must have proceeded as follows: He could have said: Especially is this a suitable appointment since we also have declared that you are acting from unworthy and improper motives, since we have declared that you resigned because we were afraid to entrust you with the expenditure of public money upon a great enterprise such as this, and because you are a man of narrow views, small and shifty, swayed by passion and prejudice and unworthy to unloose the latches of the shoe of the prime minister. In view of all this you are an eminently proper person to appoint as chairman of this high judicial tribunal."

"Well, I suppose that my right monorable friend, the prime minister, having placed all these considerations fairly and fully before Mr. Blair, must sum it all up in this way: In view of all this you are an eminently proper person to appoint as the chairman of this high judicial tribunal which shall deal perhaps more than any tribunal in the country with the rights and with the lives of the people."—Mr. R. L. Borden, in his address on debate of the speech from the throne.

A return of all the correspon nd recommendations which led to the appointment of J. B. Jackson, late of Ingersoll, as commercial agent in England, as a salary of $3,000 a year, has been ordered. The papers may still be of some interest, but it is quite probable that some of the more potent recommendations will not ap-

A CRISIS IN WOMAN'S LIFE

There are Backaches and Headaches and Days When Life Seems Scarcely Worth Living.

There comes a time in the life of There comes a time in the life of all women when they are face to face with a grave crisis; when there are distressing backaches, headaches, dizziness; when even some women are threatened with the loss of their readistressing backaches, headaches, dizziness; when even some women are threatened with the loss of their reason; when they suffer because they are women. The happiness of women for the rest of their lives depends upon being safely tided over this crisis.
Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have proved a blessing to women at all ages, and are particularly valuable at two critical periods — when girlhood is merging into womanhood and when women are approaching the turn of life. These pills make the rich, red blood that saimulates all the organs o fthe body, expels disease and makes the weary sufferer bright, active and strong. Mrs. A. Jones, Cypress River, Man., says: — "Out of gratefulness I feel that I must let you know the good Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have done me. For years I suffered from inflammation of the womb and kindred troubles. Only those who have been similarly afflicted can tell how much I suffered, or how dreary life seemed. I tried many medicines but none of them helped me. Then I was advised to try Dr.
Williams' Pink Pills. I am grateful now for the advice, for after using about a dozen boxes every symptom of the trouble disappeared and life again seemed worth living. It is now several years since I took the pills, and as there has been no sign of the trouble since, I feel safe in saving the cure is permanent."

What these pills have done for Mrs.
Jones they will do for all suffering women if given a fair trial. But you must get the genuine with the full name "Dr. Williams Pink Pills for Pale People" on the wrapper around every box. Sold by all medicine dealers or sent by mail post paid at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 by writing The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.
